close readings of a number of familiar and unfamiliar works and an overarching account of the importance of this form of writing suggesting new ways of looking at style as a medium through which gender can be signified and reshaped Style Gender and Fantasy in Nineteenth Century American Women's Writing redefines our understanding of women's relation to aesthetics and their contribution to both American literary romanticism and feminist reform This illuminating account provides valuable new insights for scholars of American literature and women's writing Styling Texts Cynthia G. War I then drew upon their experiences in subsequent literary works Jennifer Haytock and Milena Radeva Costello analyze their powerful perspectives on the cataclysmic conflict traditionally viewed as marking the advent of modernism in literature In turn Cecilia Macheski and Sirpa Salenius consider the authors passionate representations of Italy informed by personal sojourns there in which they observed its beautiful landscapes and culture its liberating contrast with the United States and its period of fascist politics Linda Wagner Martin Lisa Tyler and Anna Green focus on the complicated gender politics embedded in the works of Wharton and Hemingway as evidenced in their ideas about female agency sexual liberation architecture and modes of transportation In the collection s final section Dustin Faulstick Caroline Chamberlin Hellman and Parley Ann Boswell address suggestive intertextualities between the two authors with respect to the biblical book of Ecclesiastes their serialized publications in Scribner s Magazine and their affinities with the literary and cinematic tradition of noir Together the essays in this engaging collection prove that comparative studies of Wharton and Hemingway open new avenues for understanding the pivotal aesthetic and cultural movements central to the development of American literary modernism
