encouraging positive student outcomes in multicultural learning environments      Educating the Consumer-citizen Joel Spring, 2003-05-14 In Educating the Consumer Citizen A History of the Marriage of Schools Advertising and Media Joel Spring charts the rise of consumerism as the dominant American ideology of the 21st century He documents and analyzes how from the early 19th century through the present the combined endeavors of schools advertising and media have led to the creation of a consumerist ideology and ensured its central place in American life and global culture Spring first defines consumerist ideology and consumer citizen and explores their 19th century origins in schools children s literature the commercialization of American cities advertising newspapers and the development of department stores He then traces the rise of consumerist ideology in the 20th century by looking closely at the impact of the home economics profession on the education of women as consumers and the development of an American cuisine based on packaged and processed foods the influence of advertising images of sports heroes cowboys and the clean shaven businessman in shaping male identity the outcomes of the growth of the high school as a mass institution on the development of teenage consumer markets the consequences of commercial radio and television joining with the schools to educate a consumer oriented population so that by the 1950s consumerist images were tied to the Cold War and presented as the American way of life in both media and schools the effects of the civil rights movement on integrating previously excluded groups into the consumer society the changes the women s movement demanded in textbooks school curricula media and advertising that led to a new image of women in the consumer market and the ascent of fast food education Spring carries the story into the 21st century by examining the evolving marriage of schools advertising and media and its ongoing role in educating the consumer citizen and creating an integrated consumer market This book will be of wide interest to scholars professionals and students across foundations of education history and sociology of education educational policy mass communications American history and cultural studies It is highly appropriate as a text for courses in these areas      Non-Western Educational Traditions

Timothy G. Reagan, 2004-09-22 This text provides a brief yet comprehensive overview of a number of non Western approaches to educational thought and practice Its premise is that understanding the ways that other people educate their children as well as what counts for them as education may help us think more clearly about some of our own assumptions and values and to become more open to alternative viewpoints about important educational matters The value of this informative mind opening text for preservice and in service teacher education courses is enhanced by Questions for Discussion and Reflection and Recommended Further Readings included in each chapter New in the Third Edition Chapter 2 Conceptualizing Culture I We and The Other is new to this edition It is a response to feedback about the problems inherent in our general discourse about culture and in addition provides an example of a culture that is near to us but nevertheless alien the culture of the Deaf World Chapter 9 which deals with Islam and traditional Muslim education has been substantially revised The subtitle of the Third Edition has been changed to Indigenous Approaches to Educational Thought and Practice reflecting not so much a change in the emphases found in the book but rather a recognition of the growing scholarly interest in indigenous peoples their languages cultures and histories Various points throughout the text have been expanded and clarified and chapters have been updated as needed Studying Educational and Social Policy Ronald H.

Heck,2004-07-19 The purpose of this textbook is to introduce beginning researchers to the study of policy making how it has been examined from a scholarly perspective and the salient issues to consider in conceptualizing and conducting policy research How Educational Ideologies Are Shaping Global Society Joel Spring,2014-04-08 In this book Joel Spring explores three major international educational ideologies that are shaping global society neo liberal educational ideology human rights education and environmentalism Neo liberal ideology reflects a rethinking of nationalist forms of education as the nation state slowly erodes under the power of a growing global civil society Traditional nationalist education attempts to mold loyal and patriotic citizens who are emotionally attached to symbols of the state whereas the goal of neo liberal educational ideology is to change nationalist education to serve the needs of the global economy These changes are fueling a clash between the ideas of free market and consumer based neo liberals and those of human rights and environmental educators Human rights education is concerned with creating activist global citizens It is rooted in the idea that inherent in human rights doctrines is a collective responsibility to ensure the rights of all people Environmentalism is the most radical of the ideologies because it rejects the industrial and consumerist paradigm that has dominated most economic thought including capitalism and communism Spring synthesizes and analyzes the effect of these educational ideologies on shaping the future of the global society In the concluding section he compares the effect of these ideologies on global society with the possibility of a world divided between conflicting civilizations How Educational Ideologies Are Shaping Global Society Intergovernmental Organizations NGOs and the Decline of the Nation State features a critical exploration of the transition of schooling from a function of the nation state to a globalized economic and political system a discussion of the major organizations and trading blocs shaping the future globalization of educational policies an analysis of the major competing global ideologies of education including national and corporate models that emphasize training workers for a competitive global free market the worldwide network of human rights and peace educators who are teaching a global set of ethics and the environmental movement s efforts to create a common set of educational standards for sustainable development and sustainable consumption and an exploration of the possible future of global educational policy and school organizations By integrating a wide range of previously scattered information within a bold new framework for understanding educational ideologies and their impact on the global society Spring raises important questions for researchers professionals and students in history and philosophy of education educational policy educational studies comparative education multicultural education curriculum studies critical media studies global studies human rights education and related areas Global Migration and Education Leah Adams,Anna Kirova,2007 Global Migration and Education makes a notable contribution to understanding the issues faced by immigrant children their parents and educators as they interact in school settings and to identifying the common challenges to and successes in educational institutions worldwide as they cope with these issues Global in scope there are chapters from 14 countries It will help educators and others involved in these complex processes to see beyond the notion of problems created and experienced by recently arrived young children Rather this volume provides many concrete suggestions deriving from the success stories and voices of teachers parents and students It also offers evidence that diversity can be a condition for learning that when understood embraced and supported leads to rich learning opportunities for all involved that would not exist without diversity All of the authors offer recommendations about educational policy and practices to address and ultimately improve the education of all children including immigrant children The book is organized around five themes Multiple Global Issues for Immigrant Children and the Schools They Attend They Are Here Newcomers in the Schools Views and Voices of Immigrant Children Far from Home With Fluctuating Hopes and Searching for New Ways to Belong Intended for researchers students school professionals and educational policymakers and analysts around the world in the fields of multicultural education child psychology comparative and international education educational foundations educational policy and cross cultural studies this book is highly relevant as a text for courses in these areas
