Sustainability Frontiers David Selby, Fumiyo

Kagawa,2014-12-15 Education for sustainable development the educational offshoot of the concept of sustainable development has rapidly become the predominant educational response to the global environmental crisis The authors apply a critical lens to the field and find it wanting in many regards Sustainability Frontiers is an international academic non governmental organization based in Canada and the United Kingdom It engages in research and innovation in the broad fields of sustainability and global education challenging dominant assumptions and current orthodoxies as it seeks to foster learner empowerment and action It places particular emphasis on climate change disaster risk reduction and peacebuilding and their implications for the nature and directions of sustainability education Diversity in Environmental Education Research ,2009-01-01 Research in environmental education EE is a growing field of inquiry and should be seen as respondent to a variety of program developments around the world These diverse programs are the context for this body of educational research Diversity in EE research is also compounded when one considers the various cultures epistemologies and research traditions that may inform the field This complexity accounts for the range of forms for environmental learning in formal informal or non formal contexts There is a good deal of evidence that in order to be more responsive to the needs of diverse populations program developments around the world are now beginning to reflect the variation in our society However the same cannot always be said in terms of research methodologies within mainstream environmental education research Outside of a few examples there seems to have been very little in the way of development of research genres aimed at understanding characterizing and supporting cultural diversity within much of mainstream environmental education Diversity of method may also be important for the overall quality or health of environmental education research To locate many of the new ideas and approaches in this area one needs to look outside environmental education towards general educational research or to other fields such as environmental justice indigenous education science education and health education to name only a few examples This volume of original research reports from around the globe begins to richly describe aspects of diversity in environmental education research It does so in two ways first it mirrors the diversity of voices and cultures that are conducting research in this ever broadening and increasingly global and international field of inquiry second it illuminates a potential diversity of research methods by highlighting a range of methodologies salient in other fields which have emerging promise for the practice of research in environmental education Shifting Global Powers and International Law Rowena Maguire,Bridget Lewis,Charles Sampford,2013-06-26 This book explores the impacts of global economic political and cultural shifts on various international legal frameworks and legal norms The economic growth of states throughout Asia South and Central America and Africa is having a profound effect on the dynamics of international relations with a resulting impact on the operation and development of international law This book examines the influence of emerging economies on international legal rules institutions and processes It describes recent and predicted changes in economic political and cultural powers flowing from the growth of emerging economies such as China India Brazil South

Africa and Russia and analyses the influence of these changes on various legal frameworks and norms Expert contributors drawn from a variety of fields including international law politics environmental law human rights economics and finance provide a broad analysis of the nature of the shifting global dynamic in its historical and contemporary contexts and a range of perspectives on the impact of these changes as they relate to specific regimes and issues including climate change regulation collective security indigenous rights the rights of women and girls environmental protection and foreign aid and development The book provides a fresh and comprehensive analysis of an issue with extensive implications for international law and politics Shifting Global Powers and International Law will be of interest to students and scholars of international relations international law international political economy human rights and development

Schooling for Sustainable Development in Chinese Communities John Chi-Kin Lee, Michael Williams, 2009-04-29 This book focuses on the academic foundations trends and traditions of environmental education for sustainable development principally in Chinese contexts It highlights contexts and case studies that illuminate recent Chinese initiatives It includes case studies of green schools and reports on recent initiatives in school based ESD curriculum development programmes in China Hong Kong Macao and Taiwan The book concludes with an overview chapter that points to likely future developments The assumption underpinning the book is that experiences gained in such a major country as China will be of real interest to geographical and environmental educationists professional educators and teachers elsewhere Not only will it generate interest and create greater awareness but also it is hoped that these experiences will provide a platform for scholarly exchange and contribute insights on education policy and curriculum changes across Asian Pacific communities in an increasingly globalised world

Educational Technology and Pedagogic Encounters Yusef Waghid, 2016-07-15 This book looks at some of the underlying theories of educational technology means and ways in which this technology is guided in practice ends The authors are intent on producing ends that prepare students to undertake new analyses and evaluations that can result in new possibilities for democratic action Emphasis is on their understanding of and position within educational technology as opposed to using or applying educational technology The work is not written from the point of view that their embeddedness within educational technology has a utilitarian end in mind but rather that their situatedness within educational technology a practice in itself leaves open possibilities for new ways of understanding democratic education This book is organised into six interrelated themes that work towards the cultivation of educational technology as a human practice which guides pedagogic encounters on the basis of taking risks in relation to which the unexpected unimaginable is always possible

Ethics, CSR and Sustainability (ECSRS) Education in the Middle East and North Africa (MENA) Region Noha El-Bassiouny, Dina El-Bassiouny, Ehab Mohamed, Mohamed Basuony, 2020-06-10 The Middle East and North Africa MENA region is undergoing significant socio political and developmental transition Although interest in corporate social responsibility CSR in the region is growing little research has addressed corporate social responsibility education and its potential impact CSR has an important role to play in the socio economic development of the Middle East and North Africa due to the volatility and developmental needs of the region Recent research has highlighted that the vitality of the institutional environment and the needs of multiple stakeholders in CSR are not necessarily consistent with the notion of CSR in the West This book compiles conceptual contextual and empirical research that addresses the concepts of CSR ethics and sustainability education in the MENA region with a special emphasis on how educators can bridge to the Giving Voice to Values approach This book presents a much needed portfolio of articles from authors based in Egypt Morocco the Sultanate of Oman Qatar and the United Arab Emirates UAE highlighting first an overview of the topic and its corresponding publications in the MENA region then presenting several exemplary cases related to ECSRS application in various countries
