Educational Policy and Social Reproduction John Fitz,2005 Educational Policy and Social Reproduction John Fitz,Brian Davies,John Evans,2006 This book takes a theoretically informed look at British education policy over the last sixty years when secondary schooling for all children became an established fact for the first time Comprehensive schools largely replaced a system based on academic selection Now under choice and competition policies all schools are subject to the rigours of local education markets What impact did each of these successive policy frameworks have on structures of opportunities for families and their children How and to what extent was the experience of secondary school students shaped and what influenced the qualifications they obtained and their life chances after schooling The authors locate their work within two broad strands in the sociology of education Basil Bernstein s work on the realisation of power and control in and through pedagogic discourse and social reproduction provides a theoretical framework for exploring the character of and continuities and change in education and training policies The book is an important contribution to debates about the extent to which education is a force for change in class divided societies The authors also set out to re establish social class at the centre of educational analysis at a time when emphasis has been on identity and identity formation arguing for their interdependence This book will be an important resource for students policy analysts and policymakers wishing to think through and understand the longer term impact of programmes that have shaped secondary schooling in Britain and elsewhere

Toolkits, Translation Devices and Conceptual Accounts Parlo Singh, Alan R.

Sadovnik, Susan F. Semel, 2010 For over four decades Basil Bernstein researched the internal organisation and educational context of the school specifically and educational systems generally In particular he was interested in the powerful forms of knowledge transmitted through schooling systems who gained access to these forms of knowledge how they did so and with what consequences His research began by examining the differences between language and communication patterns in the institutions of the home family and of the school and extended to examining the structuring of pedagogic discourse from the level of the state to the classroom This collection brings together chapters by researchers from South Africa Portugal the United Kingdom United States and Australia to build on the theoretical concepts developed by Bernstein to explore issues of access and acquisition to school knowledge In addition contributors explore the strengths and limitations of Bernstein s work for understanding the structuring of educational institutions as well as the potential of the theory for assisting educators to make a difference in the lives of students

Teacher Education and Cultural Change James Lynch, H. Dudley Plunkett, 2025-09-01 First published in 1973 Teacher Education and Cultural Change analyses significant issues in the reform of teacher education on the evidence of up to date official and academic source materials and direct investigation It contributes to the comparative sociology of education by highlighting the question as to whether teacher education policies are geared primarily to educational and social conservation or change Features of teacher education are classified according to a scheme comprising four linked themes cultural perceptions of teaching the process of becoming a teacher curricula the organization of teacher education Attention is given to cultural and social factors acting to democratize educational philosophies and structures Reform oriented policies are evaluated for their coherence and sociological realism Differences in the three systems are found to reflect their histories and their socio economic and political contexts but a common movement is discerned towards democratic systems responding to person rather than to institution centred values The book should help to fill a serious gap in comparative studies of teacher education and should be of interest to students academics and administrators concerned with the study and development of educational systems Rethinking Family-school

Relations Maria Eulina de Carvalho,2000-10 This book addresses the complications and implications of parental involvement as a policy through an exploratory theoretical approach including historical and sociological accounts and personal reflection This approach represents the author s effort to understand the origins meanings and effects of parental involvement as a prerequisite of schooling and particularly as a policy solution for low achievement and even inequity in the American educational system Most of the policy and research discourse on school family relations exalts the partnership ideal taking for granted its desirability and viability the perspective of parents on specific involvement in instruction and the conditions of diverse families in fulfilling their appointed role in the partnership De Carvalho takes a distinct stance She argues that the partnership parental ideal neglects several major factors It proclaims parental involvement as a means to enhance and perhaps equalize school outcomes but disregards how family material and cultural conditions and feelings about schooling differ according to social class thus the partnership parental involvement ideal is more likely to be a projection of the model of upper middle class suburban community schooling than an open invitation for diverse families to recreate schooling Although it appeals to the image of the traditional community school the pressure for more family educational accountability really overlooks history as well as present social conditions Finally family school relations are relations of power but most families are powerless De Carvalho makes the case that two linked effects of this policy are the gravest the imposition of a particular parenting style and intrusion into family life and the escalation of educational inequality Rethinking Family School Relations A Critique of Parental Involvement in Schooling a carefully researched and persuasively argued work is essential reading for all school professionals parents and individuals concerned with public schooling and educational equality global geo politics attracting international interest that goes well beyond the typical stereotypes propagated by the tourist industry Popular movements clamouring for democracy conflict zones that have a spill over effect well beyond the region efforts to engage with globalisation on its own terms one and all play out in various sectors of society education included Educational Scholarship across the Mediterranean A Celebratory Retrospective brings together in one volume a selection of the best articles that have appeared in the Mediterranean Journal of Educational Studies whose first issue was published in 1996 Each chapter highlights challenges faced by education systems across the region seen from the perspective of leading scholars who draw on original empirical data a broad spectrum of theoretical frameworks and personal experience to reflect on education related topics Among these we find critical considerations of the role of the economy demography gender social stratification religion politics culture and language in shaping educational systems and practices Much has been achieved in the countries bordering on the Mediterranean over the past 25 years and yet a consideration of the continuities as much as of the ruptures is instructive showing how education remains both a transformative and reproductive force in communities

Feminism And Social Justice In Education Kathleen Weiler,2005-08-04 After more than twenty years of feminist education research policy development and innovative school practice it seems appropriate to evaluate the impact and significance of this world wide struggle for social justice in education At the same time the recent restructuring of educational provision whether in the name of sexual equality or the ideologies of the New Right also requires a considered response from Those Committed To Promoting Greater Social Equality This Collection offers a unique opportunity to host an international forum on contemporary thinking and practice not just within different national contexts but for feminism more generally In adopting a critical feminist approach the chapters re establish such egalitarian traditions as radical feminism black feminism and socialist feminism and address such themes as the interrelation between social class race and gender and the ways these articulate with feminist educational practice In gathering together leading educators from five different countries all committed to the project of social transformation this book represents the shifting concerns of the feminist theoretical debate and helps formulate feminist educational agendas more suited to the political and economic conditions which prevail in the 1990s

Theory and Resistance in Education Henry A. Giroux,2024-12-26 Reissued with a new introduction from Henry A Giroux this classic work provides theoretical and political tools for addressing how pedagogy knowledge resistance and power can be analyzed within and across a variety of cultural spheres including but not limited to the schools The time for radical social change has never been so urgent since the fate of an entire generation of young people if not democracy itself is at stake Giroux argues that challenge gives new meaning to the importance of resistance the relevance of pedagogy and the significance of political agency In a time of growing fascism Giroux argues that resistance is not an option but a necessity The book includes a foreword by Paulo Freire and a preface by Stanley Aronowitz

The State, Schooling and Identity Kari Kantasalmi, Gunilla Holm,2016-12-22 This book offers insights into the relationship between nation state and education by problematizing and analyzing the assumed straightforwardness of the role of education and schooling Placing the issue in very contemporary contested nation state structures like Scotland Catalonia Ukraine and Belgium These conflict situations and contested power relations are in a way some of Europe s internal North South struggles In addition the particular Nordic North South example of the Saami with their status as indigenous people recognized in international law is viewed in terms of their educational struggle for better consideration of their cultural features in Saami land crossing the Nordic states The book focuses on the Nordic countries often viewed as globally exemplary in their educational arrangements but casts deeper insight into Nordic education and points to problematic schooling issues in Northern Europe This volume presents somewhat unexpected views on European educational arrangements with regard to the European growing diversity
