European Glass In The J Paul Getty Muse:

European Glass in the J. Paul Getty Museum Catherine Hess, Timothy Husband, 1998-02-19 The Getty Museum's collection of postclassical European glass represents a well defined chapter within the history of the medium. These objects, which range in date from the late Middle Ages to the late seventeenth century, originated in important Italian, German, Bohemian, Netherlandish, Silesian, and Austrian centers of production. The sixty-eight pieces presented in this catalogue include vessels made to resemble rock crystal or chalcedony glass blown into unusually large or remarkably refined shapes and glass decorated with ornament that is intricately applied, elegantly enameled, or gilded. Each object is described in detail, including provenance, bibliography, and relevant comparative examples. An introductory essay traces the history of European glass from classical times to the present.

Summary Catalogue of European Decorative Arts in the J. Paul Getty Museum Gillian Wilson, Catherine Hess, 2002-03-07 J. Paul Getty had a passion for the exquisitely made furniture and decorative objects of eighteenth-century France, which he began collecting in the 1930s. Gillian Wilson, curator of decorative arts since 1971, has broadened and strengthened the collection, adding Boulle furniture, mounted oriental porcelain tapestries, clocks, ceramics, and more. In the 1980s and 1990s, the Museum continued to enlarge its decorative arts holdings, creating a European sculpture department in 1984 and adding glass, maiolica, goldsmiths' work, pietre dure, and furniture from Italy and Northern Europe. This book is a revised and expanded edition of Decorative Arts: An Illustrated Summary Catalogue of the Collection of the J. Paul Getty Museum (1993). In addition to more than forty recent acquisitions among these four wall sconces from Versailles that once belonged to Marie Antoinette and an elaborate upholstered bed from the collection of Karl Lagerfeld, it includes the results of years of research. Designed for scholars, students, and devotees of the decorative arts, this volume provides a comprehensive look at the Getty's fine collection.

European Clocks in the J. Paul Getty Museum Gillian Wilson, David Harris Cohen, Jean Nérée Ronfort, Jean-Dominique Augarde, Peter Friess, 2013-08-15 Among the finest examples of European craftsmanship are the clocks produced for the luxury trade in the eighteenth century. The J. Paul Getty Museum is fortunate to have in its decorative arts collection twenty clocks dating from around 1680 to 1798: eighteen produced in France and two in Germany. They demonstrate the extraordinary workmanship that went into both the design and execution of the cases and the intricate movements by which the clocks operated. In this handsome volume, each clock is pictured and discussed in detail, and each movement diagrammed and described. In addition, biographies of the clockmakers and enamelers are included, as are indexes of the names of the makers, previous owners, and locations.

European Porcelain in The Metropolitan Museum of Art Jeffrey Munger,Elizabeth Sullivan,2018-05-09 Porcelain imported from China was the most highly coveted new medium in sixteenth and early seventeenth century Europe Its pure white color translucency and durability as well as the delicacy of decoration were impossible to achieve in European earthenware and stoneware. In response, European ceramic factories set out to discover the process of producing porcelain in the Chinese manner, with significant artistic, technical, and commercial ramifications for Britain and the Continent. Indeed, not only artisans but kings, noble patrons, and entrepreneurs all joined in the quest, hoping to gain both prestige and profit from the enterprises they established. This beautifully illustrated volume showcases ninety works that span the late sixteenth to the mid nineteenth century and reflect the major currents of European porcelain production. Each work is illustrated with glorious new photography accompanied by analysis and interpretation by one of the leading experts in European decorative arts. Among the wide range of porcelains selected are rare blue and white wares and figures from Italy, superb examples from the Meissen factory in Germany and the Sèvres factory in France, and ceramics produced by leading British eighteenth century artisans. Taken together, they reveal why the Metropolitan Museum's holdings in this field are among the finest in the world. p 1

A Renaissance Treasury Laurie Winters, Joseph R. Bliss, Charles Avery, Russell Bowman, Montgomery Museum of Fine Arts, Milwaukee Art Museum, 1999. Winters introduces Richard Flagg and Erma Flagg's collection of some hundred objects made during 1450 to 1900. Most of the beautifully crafted, highly decorative yet functional pieces are examples of Renaissance and Baroque marvels; they include clocks, a particularly varied and sumptuous collection of sculpture, inlaid boxes, china, and glassware, tankards, metalwork, and furniture. Each of the 77 individual chefs d'oeuvre documented in this catalog, celebrating the gift of the Flaggs to the Milwaukee Art Museum, are exceptional examples of artistry combined with technical achievement. Such is the case with a 15th century Cassone from Florence, replete with intarsia and coat of arms, signaling a marital alliance between the nobility. Another magnificent piece highlighted through an individual entry in the catalog is a 15th century limestone tympanum, possibly from the Burgundy region of France, showing the enthroned Virgin and Child. The physical properties of this volume are as elaborate as the objects it defines; lavish full page color plates illustrate the pieces, lengthy catalog entries provide detailed information, and the whole is supplemented with appendixes consisting of checklist and glossary. 69 colour, 29 b/w illustrations. Mirror of the Medieval World Barbara Drake Boehm, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 1999. The publication of this comprehensive catalogue celebrates the distinguished career of William D. Wixom at the Metropolitan. Highlighted in these pages are more than three hundred purchases and gifts, the great majority of which have been on view, but many of which have remained unpublished until now. Objects of Virtue Luke Syson, Dora Thornton, 2001 You are what you own So believed many of the elite men and women of Renaissance Italy The notion that a person's belongings transmit something about their personal history status and character was renewed in the fifteenth and early sixteenth centuries Objects of Virtue explores the multiple meanings and values of the objects with which families like the Medici Este and Gonzaga surrounded themselves This lavishly illustrated volume examines the complicated relationships between the so called fine arts painting and sculpture and artifacts of other kinds for which artistry might be as important as utility furniture jewelry and vessels made of gold silver and bronze precious and semi precious stone glass and ceramic The works discussed were designed and made by artists as famous as Andrea Mantegna Raphael and Michelangelo as well as by lesser known specialists goldsmiths gem engravers glassmakers and maiolica painters

"Prints in Translation, 1450-1750" Edward H. Wouk, 2017-07-05 Printed artworks were often ephemeral but in the early modern period exchanges between print and other media were common setting off chain reactions of images and objects that endured Paintings sculpture decorative arts musical or scientific instruments and armor exerted their own influence on prints while prints provided artists with paper veneers templates and sources of adaptable images This interdisciplinary collection unites scholars from different fields of art history who elucidate the agency of prints on more traditionally valued media and vice versa Contributors explore how after translations across traditional geographic temporal and material boundaries original meanings may be lost reconfigured or subverted in surprising ways whether a Netherlandish motif graces a cabinet in Italy or the print itself colored or copied is integrated into the calligraphic scheme of a Persian royal album These intertwined relationships yield unexpected yet surprisingly prevalent modes of perception Andrea Mantegna's 1470-1500 Battle of the Sea Gods an engraving that emulates the properties of sculpted relief was in fact reborn as relief sculpture and fabrics based on print designs were reapplied to prints returning color and tactility to the very objects from which they derived Together the essays in this volume witness a methodological shift in the study of print from examining the printed image as an index of an absent invention in another medium a painting sculpture or drawing to considering its role as a generative active agent driving modes of invention and perception far beyond the locus of its production

The World Beyond Europe in the Romance Epics of Boiardo and Ariosto Jo Ann Cavallo, 2013-10-28 This study offers a sustained examination of the presentation of eastern Asia the Middle East and northern Africa in two of the most important chivalric epics of the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries Matteo Maria Boiardo's Orlando Innamorato 1495 and Ludovico Ariosto's Orlando Furioso 1516 Comparing the narratological strategies used to depict non European characters in these stories Jo Ann Cavallo argues that Boiardo's cosmopolitan vision of humankind increasingly became replaced by Ariosto's crusading ideology which emphasized a binary opposition between Christians and Saracens Cavallo addresses the poems mixing of imaginary sites and the geographical reality of a rapidly expanding globe contextualizing them against current events and concerns as well as ancient medieval and Renaissance texts influential at the time As the prize committee for the Scaglione Publication Award for a Manuscript in Italian Literary Studies noted This articulate engaging and well documented study represents an important work of scholarship in its cross cultural considerations of Italian Renaissance epic poetry
