The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2005 Teaching English as a Foreign Language, 1912-1936: Michael West Richard C. Smith, 2004-01-15 This collection focuses on the work of the major pioneers working in the 1920s and 1930s whose research and writings laid the methodological foundations for post World War II British approaches to English as a foreign language teaching (ELT). These early pioneers included Harold E. Palmer in Japan, Michael West in India, and Laurence Faucett in China. Separately and jointly at the 1934-5 Carnegie Conference, they succeeded in establishing a principled basis for the teaching of English to speakers of other languages different in significant respects from teaching English as a first language in Britain and the Empire. Teaching English as a Foreign Language, 1912-1936: Lawrence Faucett Richard C. Smith, 2003 Following the Second World War, the British Council along with British publishers and universities began to take a serious interest in English as a foreign language teaching (ELT) and the UK soon gained a dominant role in the development and export of teaching approaches and materials. This set includes the works of neglected theorists such as Horace Wyatt who indicated that English can be taught through the mother tongue as well as directly, and Michael West whose emphasis on the educational value of teaching reading in difficult circumstances has often been ignored in favor of the more utilitarian spoken language approach to ELT. Teaching English as a Foreign
