Know it All, Find it Fast Robert John Duckett, Bob Duckett, Peter Walker, Christine Donnelly, 2008 There is a queue the phone is ringing the photocopier has jammed and your enquirer is waiting for a response You are stressed and you can feel the panic rising Where do you go to find the information you need to answer the question promptly and accurately Answering queries from users is one of the most important services undertaken by library and information staff Yet it is also one of the most difficult least understood subjects There are still very few materials available to help frontline staff often paraprofessional develop their reader enquiry skills This award winning sourcebook is an essential guide to where to look to find the answers quickly It is designed as a first point of reference for library and information practitioners to be depended upon if they are unfamiliar with the subject of an enquiry or wish to find out more It is arranged in an easily searchable fully cross referenced A Z list of around 150 of the subject areas most frequently handled at enquiry desks Each subject entry lists the most important information sources and where to locate them including printed and electronic sources relevant websites and useful contacts for referral purposes The authors use their extensive experience in reference work to offer useful tips warn of potential pitfalls and spotlight typical queries and how to tackle them This new edition has been brought right up to date with all sources checked for currency and many new ones added The searchability is enhanced by a comprehensive index to make those essential sources even easier to find saving you valuable minutes Readership Offering quick and easy pointers to a multitude of information sources this is an invaluable reference deskbook for all library and information staff in need of a speedy answer in reference libraries subject departments and other information units

A History of the European Restorations Michael Broers, Ambrogio A. Caiani, 2019-11-14 Europe's Restorations were characterised by their evolving dialectics The chapters in this first volume address the key questions and controversies of Napoleonic history from a national and international perspective From the re ordering of the European world through the tools of intervention occupation and diplomacy to the creation of new constitutional monarchies across France Scandinavia and Germany the volume outlines the processes that realigned national priorities and the accompanying dynamics of social and political identity In a structure that makes sense of what Luigi Mascilli Migliorini describes as the fiendishly complex process of reconstructing order in post Napoleonic Europe this collection of essays brings together experts in the field to set a new precedent for transnational research frameworks in the study of the European Restorations
