Peripheral Locations in European TV Crime Series Kim Toft Hansen, Valentina Re, 2023-10-17 This book is a comprehensive study of peripheral locations in contemporary European TV crime series. Ambitiously it covers the complete geography of Europe and offers a nuanced image of a changing dynamic and unfinished continent. The chapters include analyses of the practical creative approach to producing crime series in European peripheries and rural areas, evaluating a continent marked by an internal crisis between urban and rural Europe. The study includes readings of crime series such as Shetland, Bitter Daisies, Trom, Pagan Peak and The Border but presents such representative cases within broader tendencies on the European TV market, including challenges from streaming services, the influence of Nordic Noir, and changes within the cognitive geography of Europe. The authors position peripheral European crime series in a complex relationship between universal appeal and local recognisability and offer a comprehensive theoretical approach to the aesthetics of peripherality. Grounded in desktop production studies, the book presents an original scholarly approach to analysing European crime series from a continental point of view. Despite local differences, the spatio-generic orientations scrutinized in the book—Nordic Noir, Mediterranean Noir, Country Noir, Eastern Noir, and Brit Noir—show remarkable aesthetic similarities in series from territories otherwise normally unconnected in television production. Consequently, television crime series reveal a common tongue and voice for dialogue on a continent in a deepening crisis.

Scenes from Deep Time Martin J. S. Rudwick, 1995-11-08 How did the earth look in prehistoric times? Scientists and artists collaborated during the half century prior to the publication of Darwin's Origin of Species to produce the first images of dinosaurs and the world they inhabited. Their interpretations, informed by recent fossil discoveries, were the first efforts to represent the prehistoric world based on sources other than the Bible. Martin J. S. Rudwick presents more than a hundred rare illustrations from the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries to explore the implications of reconstructing a past no one has ever seen.

The Moment of Death in Early Modern Europe, c. 1450-1800 Benedikt Brunner, Martin Christ, 2024-05-06 Both in our time and in the past, death was one of the most important aspects of anyone's life. The early modern period saw drastic changes in rites of death, burials, and commemoration. One particularly fruitful avenue of research is not to focus on death in general but the moment of death specifically. This volume investigates this transitional moment between life and death. In many cases, this was a death on a deathbed, but it also included the scaffold, battlefield, or death in the streets. Contributors: Friedrich J. Becher, Benedikt Brunner, Isabel Casteels, Martin Christ, Louise Deschryver, Irene Dingel, Michael Green, Vanessa Harding, Sigrun Haude, Vera Henkelmann, Imke Lichterfeld, Erik Seeman, Elizabeth Tingle, and Hillard von Thiesen.

Canadian Travellers in Europe, 1851-1900 Eva-Marie Kroller, 2011-11-01 This book provides both a detailed survey of Canadian travel writing in the nineteenth century and an unusual perspective on Canadian cultural history. The Canadians who wrote about their experiences abroad during the era of mass travel which followed the advent of the steamship reveal much about themselves and their own country as well Who were these travellers why did they travel and what did they expect to see In answering these questions Eva Marie Kroller draws upon a wide variety of materials novels guide books magazines newspapers photographs paintings and previously unpublished letters and diaries The self assured progress of the privileged Canadian travellers often turned into introspective voyages of self discovery For one thing Europeans often mistook them for Americans and many had to ask themselves what it really meant to be Canadian In addition the tone of moral earnestness which pervades the early travellers tales begins to give way to a certain world weariness by the end In Canada and elsewhere the tourist was a new phenomenon at the beginning of the period but an accepted part of the modern world by the end of it Canadian Travellers in Europe will be required reading for devotees of travel writing but it is also a significant contribution to nineteenth century Canadian history

Northern Sun, Southern Moon Mike Heffley, 2005-01-01 Until the 1960s American jazz for all its improvisational and rhythmic brilliance remained rooted in formal Western conventions originating in ancient Greece and early Christian plainchant At the same time European jazz continued to follow the American model When the creators of so called free jazz Ornette Coleman Cecil Taylor John Coltrane Albert Ayler Sun Ra Anthony Braxton and others liberated American jazz from its Western ties European musicians found their own distinctive voices and created a vital innovative and independent jazz culture Northern Sun Southern Moon examines this pan Eurasian musical revolution Author and musician Mike Heffley charts its development in Scandinavia Holland England France Italy and especially former East and West Germany He then follows its spread to former Eastern bloc countries Heffley brings to life an evolving musical phenomenon situating European jazz in its historical social political and cultural contexts and adding valuable material to the still scant scholarship on improvisation He reveals a Eurasian genealogy worthy of jazz's well established African and American pedigrees and proposes startling new implications for the histories of both Western music and jazz
