Industry and the European Union Michael Darmer, Laurens Kuyper, 2000-01-01 This book is a most valuable contribution to the understanding of the complexity of European policies and their impact on individual businesses and industry as a whole That focus makes this book unique All in all there are only a few books about the industrial policy of the European Union and none with such a focus Karel van Miert Universiteit Nyenrode The Netherlands Contrary to standard works covering community industrial policy this book is based on the experience of those involved in the actual formulation of policies It documents the evolution of this policy towards a horizontal approach combining various instruments that need to be made consistent with each other This book will be very valuable to scholars and policymakers alike Alexis Jacquemin European Commission and Universit Catholique de Louvain Belgium European policies increasingly affect the daily decisions of European firms Better understanding of the motivation and reasoning behind policies that affect industry is therefore essential to those interested in or affected by industrial policy Industry and the European Union explores different European policy areas focusing on aspects that are of particular importance for business The Politics of Europeanization Kevin Featherstone, Claudio M. Radaelli, 2003-06-05 The Politics of Europeanization looks at the political aspects of European integration from the point of view of domestic politics In doing so it goes beyond the classic analysis of how policies are made in Brussels and raises instead the question what is the power of Europe in national contexts The questions at the heart of this volume are crucial both for our understanding of European integration and for their policy implications What does Europeanization really mean How can it be measured How is the European Union affecting domestic politics and policies in member states and candidate countries Is Europeanization an irreversible process Does it mean convergence across Europe How and why do differences remain The contributors explain and question the power of Europe by providing theoretical and empirical perspectives on domestic politics and institutions government and administration public policies political actors and business groups The volume contains a new research agenda for the nascent literature on Europeanization From the Nation State to Europe Anand Menon, Vincent Wright, 2001 The relationship between the European Union and its member states is complex and evolving This book explores not only the nature of this relationship but also the broader implications of European integration for the ways in which the subject of European politics is studied Transforming Europe Maria Green Cowles, James Caporaso, Thomas Risse, 2018-08-06 Does the European Union change the domestic politics and institutions of its member states Many studies of EU decisionmaking in Brussels pay little attention to the potential domestic impact of European integration Transforming Europe traces the effects of Europeanization on the EU member states The various chapters based on cutting edge research examine the impact of the EU on national court systems territorial politics societal networks public discourse identity and citizenship norms The European Union the authors find does indeed make a difference even in Germany France and the United Kingdom In many cases EU rules and regulations incompatible with domestic institutions have created pressure for national governments to adapt This volume examines the conditions under which this adaptational pressure has led to institutional change in the member states National Government Narratives of the EU Hussein

Kassim,Adriaan Schout,2025-02-26 This book examines and compares government narratives of the EU It thereby addresses a topical issue of major political importance Bringing together leading specialists from across Europe it takes a first step in filling a gap in the scholarly literature where attention has focused mainly on narrative making at the EU level or societal understandings of Europe At a time when crises the rise of Eurosceptic populism and the UK's departure have revealed significant differences in how states view the purpose of the European Union and the significance and value of EU membership it asks How do governments explain and justify their relationship with the EU How do these narratives change over time What do these visions imply for the EU's future
