European Union Law Q and A 2003-2004 Mike Cuthbert, 2003-02-26 The terminology of and general approach to European Union Law are not usually associated with the UK common law tradition Thus many examination or assessment techniques developed by students are challenged Cambridge Yearbook of European Legal Studies, Vol 6, 2003-2004 John Bell, Claire Kilpatrick, 2005-03-29 The Cambridge Yearbook of European Legal Studies provides a forum for the scrutiny of significant issues in European Union Law the Law of the Council of Europe and Comparative Law with a European dimension and particularly those which have come to the fore during the year preceding publication The contributions appearing in the collection are commissioned by the Centre for European Legal Studies CELS Cambridge which is the research Centre of Cambridge University Law Faculty specialising in European legal issues The papers presented are all at the cutting edge of the fields which they address and reflect the views of recognised experts drawn from the University world legal practice and the civil services of both the EU and its Member States Inclusion of the comparative dimension brings a fresh perspective to the study of European law and highlights the effects of globalisation of the law more generally and the resulting cross fertilisation of norms and ideas that has occurred among previously sovereign and separate legal orders The Cambridge Yearbook of European Legal Studies is an invaluable resource for those wishing to keep pace with legal developments in the fast moving world of European integration of 2003-2004 Report, Together with Formal Minutes, Oral a Written Evidence Jack Michael, 2004 Agriculture plays a larger role in the economies of the new Member states of the EU than it does in EU 15 There have thus been fears of the market being flooded by cheap agricultural exports and controversy about the extension of CAP payments This report therefore looks at the impact of enlargement on agriculture both in the new Member states and in the UK It concludes that structural fragmentation and the lack of capital investment mean that the new Member states are not in a position to undermine EU agricultural markets However there are concerns about the quality of inspection and food quality For the UK the Committee think that enlargement is more of a challenge than a threat especially if the government does more to help promote UK food exports and investments Books in Print, 2006 Companies in 2003-2004 Great Britain: Department of Trade and Industry, 2004 This report sets out key company law developments during the period April 2003 to March 2004 and activities undertaken by the DTI Companies House and the Insolvency Service to promote an effective corporate and insolvency framework in support of company enterprise It also contains statistical tables including details of companies registered at Companies House and of legal proceedings brought by the Department European Legal Book Index, 2003
