Agriculture and EU Environmental Law Brian Jack, 2016-03-23 This book critically examines the development and current structure of European Union agri environmental measures at a substantive level Examining the measures in an integrated manner showing how they interrelate linking different aspects of European Union agricultural law and policy this volume examines the legislation adopted at European Union level as well as the impact of particular national measures to implement that legislation Where appropriate comparisons are drawn between the manner in which European Union legislation has been implemented among various Member States Critically assessing European Union and national measures in the light of other policy pressures such as the influence of world trade agreements and the political pressures exerted by the agricultural sector within the national legal systems of individual Member States this volume is a valuable resource for academics researching and practitioners working in the areas of European Union environmental and agricultural law

High-level Pan-European Conference on Agriculture and Biodiversity Council of Europe. Council for the Pan-European Strategy for Biological and Landscape Diversity, 2005-01-01 This publication contains a number of reports prepared for a high level conference on issues relating to biological and landscape diversity in European agricultural policies held in Paris in June 2002 The conference made recommendations to states and relevant organisations and provided input to policy work and programmes within the framework of the Convention on Biological Diversity the Ministerial Conference on Environment for Europe the Convention to Combat Desertification and the EU s Common Agricultural Policy and national policy developments

Regulatory Reform and Competitiveness in Europe: Vertical issues Giampaolo Galli, Jacques Pelkmans, 2000-01-01 The second of two volumes this text discusses the vertical issues involved in regulatory reform The contributors describe in detail the regulatory reforms which are needed or have been initiated in nine major industrial sectors including automobiles textiles and clothing retail trade chemicals banking road transport telecoms electricity and scheduled air transport They argue that regulatory reform can more often than not help improve the competitiveness of companies while generating net growth effects for the European Union as a whole

Green Finance in the European Union Marta Postuła, Mariusz Lipski, 2024-09-02 While global challenges continue to reshape the

here and now public and corporate finance management needs to adapt quickly to increase the efficiency of institutions enterprises and policies to face our new reality There are very few publications that offer a comprehensive approach to the financing of environmental protection activities by the European Union This book explores this topic from various angles and levels as well as highlighting the determinants that influence micro and macro level decisions in this area It presents an in depth and unique analysis of the sources of funding for environmental measures implemented by European Union institutions against the backdrop of national expenditure by Member States and analyses the plausibility of the adopted targets in the run up to 2050 in the context of the war in Ukraine and ad hoc energy policy solutions This book is a voice in an ongoing discussion among the community of practitioners and theoreticians on sources of financing for the energy transition to achieve independence from Russian sources in the quickest possible timeframe It demonstrates that environmental measures cannot occur without the financial participation of economic actors and financial institutions particularly the capital market and further underscores the scale of involvement in environmental projects as measured by the value of green loans and green bonds covered by European financial institutions The authors offer policy recommendations for financing activities related to environmental policy notably energy transition This book will appeal to scholars students and researchers of corporate finance banking strategic and public finance management as well as policy makers and practitioners involved in green finance investments
