The Soldier, the Spy, and the Orphan Anna Brychcy, 2025-07-29 Amid the upheaval of two world wars three individuals found themselves at the heart of Poland's struggle for survival Their extraordinary stories shaped by war resistance and resilience offer a deeply personal perspective on Poland's complex and often tragic past The Soldier A fifteen year old boy from Prussian occupied Poland fights on the brutal Eastern Front of World War I before joining his nation s battle for independence As Poland emerges from the ashes of war he is swept into the chaos of revolution border wars and the fragile rebirth of a nation The Spy A daring Polish intelligence officer orchestrates a high stakes espionage network earning the distinction of being named the most dangerous Pole alive by Heinrich Himmler In an unlikely alliance with the Japanese his covert operations place him at the centre of Poland's desperate fight against Nazi occupation The Orphan A young girl and her family are torn from their home at the start of World War II and deported to a forced labour camp in the Soviet Union When Stalin joins forces with the Western Allies the Poles who survived are set free Orphaned and alone she faces a harsh sentence in a Soviet detention centre for stealing a handful of biscuits Meanwhile her siblings embark on an extraordinary odyssey first as guests of a maharaja in India and then to a Polish refugee camp nestled in the foothills of Mount Kilimanjaro in Africa Woven into the broader historical context these moving narratives reveal aspects of Poland's wartime history that are unfamiliar to most Western readers shedding light on the high price paid by the Polish people before during and after these conflicts ended The American Friend ,1868 The Bibliographer George Henry Sargent, 1915 Psychology Library Editions: Emotion Various, 2022-07-30 Emotion or affect is a cross disciplinary subject in psychology Psychology Library Editions Emotion makes available again twelve previously out of print titles that were originally published between 1976 and 1999 either as a set or as individual volumes in your choice of print or ebook Written by a range of authors from diverse backgrounds and spanning different areas of psychology such as clinical cognitive developmental and social the volumes feature a variety of approaches and topics This is a great opportunity to trace the development of research in emotion from a number of different perspectives "Painting Labour in Scotland and Europe, 1850-1900 " John Morrison, 2017-07-05 Painting Labour in Scotland and Europe 1850 1900 explores hitherto unrecognized European variations in the phenomena of rural labour imagery particularly in Scotland In exploring these distinctions relative to Scotland and Europe it looks to develop a new understanding of the commonalities and idiosyncrasies of rural labour imagery which have often been treated as homogenous Lacking the detailed analysis that has been accorded other images writing about Scottish painting has often been appended to analyses of English or French imagery It has generally been understood as intellectually divorced from the sometimes brutal realities of evolving Scottish nineteenth century urbanism or simply ignored Painting Labour in Scotland and Europe 1850 1900 sets out systematically to discuss the Scottish rural painting in relation to its particular Scottish historical context both sociological and aesthetic and its English and European counterparts Alongside canonical Scottish images by major figures such as James Guthrie the book explores many hitherto under researched and unconsidered paintings by nineteenth century Scottish artists and considers them in relation to major English and Continental Realist and Romantic painters The juxtaposition of J F Millet with W D McKay and Edwin Landseer with George Reid makes for a volume that will appeal both to an academic audience and to one interested in European art history more generally Athenaeum and Literary Chronicle, 1849 Staff Information Bulletin Library of Congress, 1961 Wisconsin Library Bulletin ,1923
