

The background of the book cover is a textured, painterly illustration of a street scene in Athens. On the left, there is a dark, shadowed area representing a building with shutters. A large, dark tree branch with green leaves and small red flowers arches over the street from the right. The ground is a mix of blue and tan, suggesting a cobblestone or paved surface. In the upper right, a blue rectangular sign with white text is visible. The overall style is artistic and evocative.
