Co-Dependence Healing the Human Condition Charles Whitfield, 2010-01-01 Of all the books on the often misunderstood concept of co dependence this is probably the clearest most complete and informative Charles Whitfield is a frontline clinician who has been assisting co dependents in their healing for over twenty years He has researched the literature on co dependence which he summarizes in this widely read book He sees co dependence as a way to more accurately describe the painful and confusing part of the human condition In careful detail he describes just what co dependence is and what it is not how it comes about and how to heal its painful aftereffects Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1997 National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), 1991 Lost Childhoods Gregory J. Jurkovic, 2014-06-17 Parentification the assumption of responsibility for the welfare of family members by children and adolescents is increasing as a result of various forces both inside and outside of the family Evidence suggests that pathological parentification of children has serious consequences for them and for succeeding generations as do other forms of maltreatment This work is an exploration of the forces at work in families with parentified children and the treatment strategies that hold the promise of interrupting a cycle of destructive behaviour The author begins by guiding the reader from conceptualization to possible causes and manifestations of parentification facilitating a clear understanding of how and why this scenario is common The second part of the book builds on this foundation to introduce methods of assessment treatment and prevention This part of the text includes insights into the professional ethical and personal challenges faced by therapists who themselves have a history of pathological parentification Basics of Addiction Counseling, 1999 Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965 70 Readings, 1995 Books in Print Supplement, 2002 Resources in Education, 1997 Evaluating and Treating Adult Children of Alcoholics: Evaluation Timmen L.
