Resources in Education ,1997 Critical Perspectives on Global Literacies Shea N. Kerkhoff,Hiller A.

Spires,2023-05-05 This book offers critical perspectives on global literacies connecting research theory and practice An emerging concept in the literacy field many scholars agree on the need for students to develop global literacies yet few agree on a widely accepted definition Based on a synthesis of the literature the editors formulate a definition of global literacies with four dimensions including literacy as a human right in all nations around the world critical reading and creation of multimodal texts about global issues intercultural communication and reciprocal collaboration with globally diverse others and transformative action for social and environmental justice that traverses borders Taking this shared proposed definition as a starting point the chapters then offer contextualized examples of global literacies from K 12 and teacher education classrooms to make explicit links between research and practice The contributors interact with and interrogate the book s definition of global literacies using a common framework of critical theory As such this book provides both emerging and established scholars with critical frameworks for positioning global literacies in ways that are relevant dynamic and forward thinking English Teaching in the Secondary School Mike Fleming,David Stevens,2015-05-15 English Teaching in the Secondary School is a comprehensive guide to the theory and practice of teaching English This updated 4th edition has been revised to take into consideration changes in national policy drawing on the most recent research and theory to produce engaging practical ideas for use in the classroom It challenges mechanistic and formulaic approaches to teaching instead placing an emphasis on reflection understanding and informed practice Guiding students and new teachers through the whole process of English teaching in the secondary school this edition has been fully updated to include a report of the most recent developments in national policy discussion of multiple literacies and critical literacy a new chapter on English as an additional language a new chapter on cross curricular themes new sections on approaches to the teaching of grammar reflections on international developments in language teaching and their relevance a guide to further reading on resources and research Written in an accessible style with a wealth of advice and ideas English Teaching in the Secondary School forms essential reading for all those training to become secondary English teachers The Politics of Inclusion Barry Kanpol,2005 This volume is a collective departmental effort to delineate what a politics of inclusion on a more structural macro level might look like and the inclusion of politics on more micro levels are as related to urban and other sites particularly in regard to preservice teachers English Teaching in the Secondary School 2/e Mike Fleming,David Stevens,2014-06-03 Presenting an informed view of current educational policy this text encourages students of secondary English to take a creative and independent interpretation of government initiatives in order to achieve effective teaching practice It provides a good balance of theoretical material with practical ideas for application in the classroom and strongly encourages reflection and critical thought This new edition includes coverage of the National Curriculum 2000 the National Literacy Strategy and the new Key Stage 3 Strategy a new chapter on how to teach ICT a new chapter on Inclusion including differentiation cultural diversity EAL and teaching across the ability range new material on how to teach Shakespeare an introduction to cross curricular themes such as citizenship and social moral and spiritual values Written in an accessible and conversational style this text poses an excellent degree of challenge for all students on initial teacher training courses Whitewashed Critical Perspectives Catherine Compton-Lilly, Tisha Lewis Ellison, Kristen Perry, Peter Smagorinsky, 2021-06-30 This volume examines revolutionary constructs in literacy education and demonstrates how they have been gentrified whitewashed and appropriated losing their revolutionary edge so as to become palatable for the mainstream Written by top scholars in literacy education chapters cover key concepts that were originally conceived as radical theories to upset the status quo including Third Space Funds of Knowledge Culturally Relevant Pedagogies and more Each chapter addresses how the core theory was culturally appropriated and de fanged to support rather than take down racial and societal hierarchies Critiquing the harmful impact of watering down these theories the contributors offer ways to restore the edge to these once groundbreaking ideas reject racist and assimilationist trends and support the original vision behind these liberatory theories In so doing this volume adopts a truly radical critical stance that is essential for researchers scholars and students in literacy education
