Evangelical Futures A Conversation On Theological Method:

Evangelical Futures John G. Stackhouse, 2000 In this book these theologians of international renown reflect on the history and state of evangelical theological method and suggest avenues for composing theology in today's postmodern context Although all of the scholars who contributed to this book are self-professed evangelicals they represent diversity within the tradition in their understanding of biblical inspiration and authority the role of tradition or contemporary philosophy and spiritual experience The result is an effort to spur evangelicals on to deeper and more creative discussion of their tradition and how it can meet the needs of our time Book jacket

Beyond Evangelicalism Steven Knowles, 2010 A prolific author and thinker Stanley J Grenz was a respected and influential figure not only within evangelicalism but in the wider theological world Amongst the many issues tackled by him it is perhaps his revisioning of evangelical theology in the light of the postmodern challenge that has caused the biggest stir in the theological world Advocating a nonfoundationalist methodology Grenz attempts to re-position evangelical theology in line with postmodern concerns This will be the first book length treatment on Grenz's work on theological methodology and therefore will break new ground in this important area of study

Evangelicals Engaging in Practical Theology Helen Morris, Helen Cameron, 2022-03-30 This book aims to introduce a distinctively evangelical voice to the discipline of practical theology Evangelicals have sometimes seen practical theology as primarily a liberal project This collection however actively engages with practical theology from an evangelical perspective both through discussion of the substantive issues and by providing examples of practical theology done by evangelicals in the classroom the church and beyond This volume brings together established and emerging voices to debate the growing role which practical theology is playing in evangelical and Pentecostal circles Chapters begin by addressing methodological concerns before moving into areas of practice Additionally there are four short papers from students who make use of practical theology to reflect upon their own practice Issues of authority and normativity are tackled head on in a way that will inform the debate both within and beyond evangelicalism This book will therefore be of keen interest to scholars of practical evangelical and Pentecostal theology

The Futures of Evangelicalism Craig G. Bartholomew, Robin Parry, Andrew West, 2004 An insightful assessment of the current state of evangelical affairs and the varied directions evangelicalism is poised to take Contributors include Alister McGrath Eugene Peterson I Howard Marshall Gregory J Laughery Stephen Lazarus Robin Parry and Andrew West

Introducing Christian Theologies, Volume One Victor I. Ezigbo, 2013-08-21 Should Christianity's theological face remain largely European and North American in the twenty-first century in the wake of the expansion of Christianity in sub-Saharan Africa Asia and Latin America The question about the theological face of Christianity cannot be ignored For too long African Asian and Latin American theologians have been left out of mainstream theological discussions Few standard textbooks on Christian theology acknowledge the unique contributions theologians from these continents have made to global Christianity Introducing Christian Theologies Voices from Global Christian Communities is a two volume textbook that alters the predominantly European and North American theological face of Christianity by interacting with the voices of the Christian communities from around the globe Introducing Christian Theologies explores the works of key theologians from across the globe highlighting their unique contributions to Christian theology and doctrine

Re-Envisioning Transformation David C. Scott, 2018-09-14 In today's church use of the term transformation has become commonplace Various perspectives are offered on what a Christian view of transformation is and on how it may be achieved These often conflicting views suggest an ecclesial landscape characterized by pluralism division fragmentation confusion relativism individualism pragmatism and subjectivism Despite the current interest in transformational theology the absence of a common coherent and integrated vision and the lack of transformation is often accepted and affirmed Re Envisioning Transformation looks at the possibility of moving toward a vision of transformational theology that is cohesive unified broad effectual and distinctly Christian In this book the contributions of two radically different theologians of the Christian life are examined This provides the basis from which to develop a comprehensive and integrated framework of transformational theology pointing God's people toward the need to express and live out a distinctly Christian vision

Theology in the Present Age Christopher Ben Simpson, Steven D. Cone, 2013-08-23 This volume of essays centers on the theme of doing Christian theology in the present postmodern context a consistent theme of the teaching of John D. Castelein The work will celebrate and honor John's years of service by representing reflections of his teaching in the thought of his students and colleagues The essays range over such topics as theological reflections on the postmodern philosophical themes the relations between Christian theology and culture the contributions of philosophical hermeneutics for Christian theology and the challenges of engaging in ministry in a postmodern context The seventeen contributors to the volume are former students and both present and former colleagues involved in various ministries be they in a college setting or in a local church

Evangelism and Social Concern in the Theology of Carl F. H. Henry Jerry M. Ireland, 2015-06-01 How do evangelism and social concern relate to one another in the mission of the church How should the Old Testament's emphasis on social justice inform the praxis of modern believers Does the Bible emphasize individual salvation or does it teach a broader more inclusive concept Theologians missiologists pastors and educators have wrestled with these questions for centuries But especially since the early part of the twentieth century this debate has increasingly become a point of contention among evangelical Christians with few indications that a consensus may soon be forthcoming Yet few have offered so thorough an answer to these questions as has Carl F. H. Henry Henry's regenerative model of evangelism and social concern stands on the shoulders of Augustine and many others and offers what may be the best way forward This book explores Henry's thoughts on this subject and sets him in dialogue with numerous others who have written on these topics Thus it will prove a valuable resource for all interested in this topic

Theology and the Mirror of Scripture Kevin J. Vanhoozer, Daniel J. Treier, 2015-11-09 In this inaugural volume in the Studies in Christian Doctrine and Scripture Kevin J.

Vanhoozer and Daniel J Treier set forth a programmatic proposal for evangelical theology rooted in the claim that the church's vocation is to mirror the witness of Scripture in its doctrine and discipleship

The Dialogic Evangelical Theology of Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen Peter Goodwin Heltzel, Patrick Oden, Amos Yong, 2022-02-21 In this book established scholars from different religions regions and disciplines continue the dialogue that Veli Matti Kärkkäinen began in his A Constructive Christian Theology for the Pluralistic World series and respond to his work in light of their diverse expertise and context Each of the three parts focuses on a key area of Kärkkäinen's engaging work 1 highlighting how his method shaped each volume 2 highlighting his commitment to global perspectives and 3 highlighting his interreligious and interdisciplinary dialogue partners Together these essays seek to deepen and extend the impact of Kärkkäinen's work taking it seriously as a substantive model for contemporary systematic theology in listening and engaging with this world

Revisioning, Renewing, Rediscovering the Triune Center Derek J. Tidball, Brian S. Harris, Dr Jason S Sexton, 2014-11-10 An international cast of theologians come together in this volume to offer essays in tribute to the late Stanley J Grenz one of the leading theologians of his generation Accordingly the volume includes timely explorations in some of the most exciting areas in contemporary theology It is only fitting that these very explorations revolve around the key motifs of Grenz's theology Trinity community eschatology and the key sources from which he drew for theology's construction Scripture tradition culture While engaging key features seen in Grenz's work some of the essays here interact with Grenz's own writings reflecting on his theological journey and his contributions to evangelical theology In these ways this volume highlights the kind of evangelical theology that so many have experienced in recent years and of which Stan Grenz was a leading proponent Revisioning Renewing Rediscovering the Triune Center then makes a significant contribution to discussions in contemporary theology while itself setting out to honor the life and work of an eminent theologian who did so much for evangelical theology throughout time A High View of Scripture? (Evangelical Ressourcement) Craig D. Allert, 2007-06-01 Word Guild

 2008 Writing Award Biblical Studies Where did the Bible come from Author Craig D Allert encourages more evangelicals to ask that question In A High View of Scripture Allert introduces his audience to the diverse history of the canon s development and what impact it has today on how we view Scripture Allert affirms divine inspiration of the Bible and in fact urges the very people who proclaim the ultimate authority of the Bible to be informed about how it came to be This book the latest in the Evangelical Ressourcement series will be valuable as a college or seminary text and for readers interested in issues of canon development and biblical authority A Critical Examination of the Doctrine of Revelation in Evangelical Theology Carisa A. Ash, 2015-07-14 How God reveals himself is an important matter for Christians especially evangelicals For too long Carisa Ash contends evangelicals have rightly affirmed that God reveals through the created world but then they functionally neglect such revelation In this monograph Ash offers a corrective to this practice by presenting a theology of revelation that explores the commonalities between various forms of revelation world written and spoken word and Incarnate Word Particularly aimed at theologians interested in theological method Ash s study will also benefit people interested in faith and learning or interdisciplinary integration Ash argues that evangelicals must strive to align more closely their affirmations and their practice Her critique of current practices in theological method and integration along with the proposed theology of revelation are designed to help move the conversation forward Evangelicals & Scripture Vincent E. Bacote, Laura Miguelez Quay, Dennis L. Okholm, 2009-08-20 Vincent Bacote Laura C Migu lez and Dennis L Okholm present twelve essays that explore in depth the meaning of an evangelical doctrine of Scripture that takes seriously both the human and divine dimensions of the Bible Evangelical Theology Michael F. Bird, 2013-10-29 Evangelical Theology is a systematic theology written from the perspective of a biblical scholar Michael F Bird contends that the center unity and boundary of the evangelical faith is the evangel gospel as opposed to things like justification by faith or inerrancy The evangel is the unifying thread in evangelical theology and the theological hermeneutic through which the various loci of theology need to be understood Using the gospel as a theological leitmotif an approach to Christian doctrine that begins with the gospel and sees each loci through the lens of the gospel this text presents an authentically evangelical theology as opposed to an ordinary systematic theology written by an evangelical theologian According to the author theology is the drama of gospelizing performing and living out the gospel in the theatre of Christian life The text features tables sidebars and questions for discussion The end of every part includes a What to Take Home section that gives students a run down on what they need to know And since reading theology can often be dry and cerebral the author applies his unique sense of humor in occasional Comic Belief sections so that students may enjoy their learning experience through some theological humor added for good measure The Wisdom of the Spirit Canon Martyn Percy, Professor Pete Ward, 2014-09-28 In this groundbreaking book exploring Christianity and contemporary culture internationally renowned scholars interface with the legacy of Andrew
