An Evangelical Perspective: Essential Christianity Edward L. MacAlmon, 1984 Christianity and Social Scientific Perspectives on Sport Tom Gibbons, Stuart Braye, 2020-06-29 There has been a dramatic increase in academic research activity and practical initiatives on the topic of sports and Christianity and its cultural significance during the past decade The Faculty of Health and Life Sciences at York St John University York UK hosted the Inaugural Global Congress on Sports and Christianity IGCSC 24-28th August 2016 in collaboration with the Bible Society at which there were 180 delegates from 22 countries in attendance For the area of sports studies the social scientific study of sport there was a thematic strand at the congress titled Christian sociological perspectives on sport from which a special edition of the journal Sport in Society partially emanated This book is based upon this journal special edition The papers selected for inclusion in the special edition were purposely eclectic in order to demonstrate the diversity of current research occurring in the area of Christianity and social scientific perspectives on sport The goal was to bridge divisions between various social science disciplines and theology or religious studies through varied novel and interesting explorations of sport in its various forms We hope this collection inspires further studies into this area The chapters in this book were originally published in a special issue in Sport in Society Good News People Gavin Calver, Phil Knox, 2025-08-21 The need of the hour is for the church to hold passionately to historic Christian beliefs as found in God's word to place the Bible as the ultimate authority in our lives and to pursue Gospel living and sharing with energetic fervour We need to be Good News People Gavin and Phil invite you see what evangelicals have always been and what we need to remember to be committed to Jesus the gospel and hopefulness Our churches and the world face big challenges This book invites you to adopt vital postures to help the church stand firm in the middle of our shifting culture With lessons from history inspiration from Scripture and the energy of Spirit-filled disciples be inspired and encouraged as you seek to be good news people where you live Issues in Contemporary Christian Thought Duane Olson, Olson's clear and concise overview roots contemporary questions firmly in Christian responses to the Enlightenment He discusses the range of contemporary opinions their rationales and what's at stake Olson illustrates these alternate frameworks as they play out in central concerns over the being of God in relation to the universe how to understand the figure of Christ today and the distinctively new notions of being human Specifically geared to the novice theologian in college or seminary settings Olson's text includes Reflection Research Questions Suggestions for Further Reading and a Glossary Four Views on the Spectrum of Evangelicalism Kevin Bauder, R. Albert Mohler, Jr., John G. Stackhouse, Jr., Roger E. Olson, 2011-10-04 Understand the history core values and divisions as they've developed within the Evangelical Christian movement Four Views on the Spectrum of Evangelicalism compares and contrasts four distinct positions on the current fundamentalist evangelical spectrum Each contributor offers their case for one of four primary views Fundamentalism defended by Kevin T Bauder Conservative confessional evangelicalism defended by R. Revolutionary Change and Democratic Religion Celucien L. Joseph, 2020-04-15 In Revolutionary Change and Democratic Religion Celucien Joseph provides a fresh and careful reexamination of Haiti s intellectual history by focusing on the ideas and writings of five prominent thinkers and public intellectuals Toussaint Louverture Joseph Antenor Firmin Jacques Roumain Dantes Bellegarde and Jean Price Mars The book articulates a twofold argument First of all Haiti has produced a strong intellectual tradition from the revolutionary era to the postcolonial present and that Haitian thought is not homogeneous and monolithic Joseph puts forth the idea that the general interweaving themes of rhetoric the race concept race vindication universal emancipation religious pluralism secular humanism the particular and the universal and cosmopolitanism are representative of Haiti s intellectual tradition Secondly the book also contends that Haitian intellectuals have produced a religious discourse in the twentieth century that could be phrased religious metissage The religious ideas of these thinkers have been shaped by various forces ideologies religious traditions and philosophical schools In the same way the religious experience of the Haitian people should be understood in terms of conflicting heterodox and pluralistic manifestations of religious piety as the people in Haiti reacted to the crisis of slavery Western colonialism and imperialism and the arrogance of race in modernity in their striving to reposition themselves within the framework of universal and human metanarratives The book departs from the dominant contemporary Vodou scholarship that is often characteristic of North American and Western studies on the religious life of the Haitian people and Haitian thinkers

Christianity Reborn Donald M. Lewis, 2004 Christianity Reborn provides the first transnational in depth analysis of the global expansion of evangelical Protestantism during the past century While the growth of evangelical

Christianity in the non Western world has already been documented the significance of this book lies in its scholarly treatment of that phenomenon Written by prominent historians of religion these chapters explore the expansion of evangelical including charismatic Christianity in non English speaking lands with special reference to dynamic indigenous responses The range of locations covered includes western and southern Africa eastern and southern Asia Latin America and Oceania The concluding essay provides a sociological account of evangelicalism s success highlighting its ability to create a multiplicity of faith communities suited to very different ethnic racial and geographical regions At a time of great interest in the growth of Christianity in the non Western world this volume makes an important contribution to our understanding of what may be another turning point in the historical development of evangelical faith Contributors Marthinus L Daneel Allan K Davidson Paul Freston Robert Eric Frykenberg Jehu J Hanciles Philip Yuen sang Leung Donald M Lewis David Martin Mark A Noll Brian Stanley W R Ward World Christian Trends Ad30-ad2200 (hb) ,2001 Evangelical Review of Theology, Volume 45, Number 3, August 2021 Thomas Schirrmacher,2022-03-17 ERT publishes quality articles and book reviews from around the world both original and reprinted from an evangelical perspective reflecting global evangelical scholarship for the purpose of discerning the obedience of faith and of relevance and importance to its international readership of theologians educators church leaders missionaries administrators and students The journal is published as a ministry rather than as a commercial project seeking to be of service to the worldwide spread of the gospel and the building up of the church and its leadership in co ordination with the World Evangelical Alliance s broader mission and activities Approaching the World's Religions, Volume 2 Robert Boyd,2017-06-20 Evangelical theology strives to be evangelical conservative and contemporary In a world in which everyone is Christian evangelical theology provides a balanced position between fundamentalism and liberalism While theological debates within the family will occur to be evangelical is a breath of fresh air for many However we do not live in such a world We do find ourselves living in a secular global society It is secular because no religious organization dictates how we live our lives It is global for at least two reasons First our technology brings us immediately in contact with those faraway places Second and of more importance we can simply step outside our front doors and encounter our neighborhoods that reflect a global pluralism This raises the question how shall we then live The intent of An Evangelical Theology of Religions is to suggest a direction for evangelicals to think about the secular global society in which they live in a way that is not only conservative but also evangelical and contemporary The final essay strives to address the evangelical aspect of our tradition that places an emphasis on the Great Commission and the law of love The Christian Evangelist ,1901 Pietism and the Foundations of the Modern World Justin A. Davis,2019-08-09 The experiential impulse of Protestant Christianity often identified as Pietism is one of the key driving forces in shaping the western world as well as promoting the ethos of individualism and antipathy toward the larger society As such understanding the foundations of Pietism is an essential and overlooked aspect of Western Christianity This work helps to address this gap in scholarship by addressing the first two centuries of Pietism First this work shows where the experiential impulse is found within medieval Christianity specifically in mysticism Following the Protestant Reformation this experiential impulse is unmoored from church tradition but still finds confessional variants including Lutheran Reform and Anglican The work then focuses on six key figures in the development of Pietism specifically William Perkins Johann Arndt Philip Spener August Francke Count Zinzendorf and John Wesley demonstrating that Pietism begins as a protest against institutional forms but then grows into institutional and denominational forms itself These institutional forms include Moravians Methodists and Prussianism which directly shaped Germany England and America though the latter not until the nineteenth century This work reveals the diverse impact Pietism had while remaining a cohesive yet contradictory movement Ford's The movements that have surfaced since the late 1970s in the United States Central America South Africa the Philippines India and the Middle East Sahliyah and others analyze this trend toward the politicization of religious conservatism and question a number of assumptions central to concepts of modernization For example it has been assumed by development theorists that the interrelated components of modernization would enhance the trend toward secularization of societies This book shows that in many societies today religious revivalism and fundamentalism seem to be direct products of modernization A global comparative approach is utilized to formulate general explanations for religious revivalism and its implications for modernization development and politics

Architect of Evangelicalism Carl F. H. Henry, 2019-11-27 Discover the ongoing relevance of the essential evangelical In recent years the label evangelical has been distorted and its usefulness questioned No one is better equipped to provide a clear understanding of evangelicalism than the late Carl F H Henry the founding editor of Christianity Today and the most influential theologian of American evangelicalism in the twentieth century While Billy Graham was preaching the gospel to stadiums full of people Henry was working tirelessly to help Christians adopt a worldview that encompasses all of life Architect of Evangelicalism helps us gain a better sense of the roots of American evangelicalism by giving us the best of Henry's Christianity Today essays on subjects such as what defines evangelicalism what separates it from theological liberalism what evangelical Christian education should look like and how evangelicals should engage with society

Evangelicals and Science in Historical Perspective David N. Livingstone, D. G. Hart, Mark A. Noll, 1999-04-08 In the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries evangelicals often took their place among prominent practicing scientists and their perspectives exerted a considerable impact on the development of modern western science Over the last century however evangelical scientists have become less visible even as the focus of evangelical engagement has shifted to political and cultural spheres Evangelicals and Science in Historical Perspective offers the first wide ranging survey of the history of the encounter between evangelical Protestantism and science Comprising papers by leading historians of science and religion this collection shows that the questions of science have been central to the history of evangelicalism in the United States as well as in Britain and Canada It will be an invaluable resource for understanding the historical context of contemporary political squabbles such as the debate over the status of creation science and the teaching of evolution
