Forming Intentional Disciples Sherry Weddell, 2012-07-05 How can we transmit a living personal Catholic faith to future generations By coming to know Jesus Christ and following him as his disciples These are times of immense challenge and immense opportunity for the Catholic Church Consider these statistics for the United States Only 30 percent of Americans who were raised Catholic are still practicing Fully 10 percent of all adults in America are ex Catholics The number of marriages celebrated in the Church decreased dramatically by nearly 60 percent between 1972 and 2010 Only 60 percent of Catholics believe in a personal God If the Church is to reverse these trends the evangelizers must first be evangelized in other words Catholics in the pew must make a conscious choice to know and follow Jesus before they can draw others to him This work of discipleship lies at the heart of Forming Intentional Disciples a book designed to help Church leaders parish staff and all Catholics transform parish life from within Drawing upon her fifteen years of experience with the Catherine of Siena Institute Sherry Weddell leads readers through steps that will help Catholics enter more deeply into a relationship with God and the river of apostolic creativity charisms and vocation that flow from that relationship for the sake of the Church and the world Learn about the five thresholds of postmodern conversion how to open a conversation about faith and belief how to ask thought provoking questions and establish an atmosphere of trust when to tell the Great Story of Jesus how to help someone respond to God s call to intentional discipleship and much more And be prepared for conversion because when life at the parish level changes the life of the whole Church will change The New Evangelization Steven C. Boguslawski,Ralph Martin,2008 One of Pope John Paul II s most important legacies is his repeated call to a new evangelization the need to reevangelize traditionally Christian societies that are hurtling toward secularization This book brings together the best scholarship on this topic BOOK JACKET The Four Ways Forward Susan Windley-Daoust,2022-09-19 An increasingly post Christian world is forcing parishes to re envision how they make disciples of all nations Mt 28 19 Pastors and lay leadership must pivot to building mission first parishes equipped to proclaim the Gospel to those who have not heard it while the number of practicing Catholics falls with increasing speed Parish leaders are hungry for programs and resources to help address these challenges Yet no single model or program can suit every parish and leaders are bogged down with options many of which offer no clear goals or methods In The Four Ways Forward Susan Windley Daoust theologian and diocesan director of missionary discipleship provides a road map to pastors and parish staff to make sense of it all To become an apostolic parish there are four effective models to choose from each built on a distinct necessary insight and method in the art of conversion Radical hospitality and proclamation The practice of spiritual multiplication Organizational mission re focus Highlighting divine signs and wonders in our midst Every fruitful joyful evangelizing parish should embrace the insights and methods of at least three of the four models This book not only describes each model giving examples of how it is being used in parishes today but offers a practical blueprint toward crafting a response to the post Christian world including notes on spiritual roadblocks that can get in the way Forming Intentional Disciples Sherry A. Weddell,2022-08-22 How can we transmit a living personal Catholic faith to future generations By coming to know Jesus Christ and following him as his disciples As we emerge from a pandemic into a post Christian world these are times of immense challenge and enormous opportunity for the Catholic Church in the United States Consider these statistics Fully 10 percent of all adults in America are ex Catholics Nearly three quarters of young Catholics think that they could be a good Catholic without going to Mass every Sunday Catholic marriages have declined by almost two thirds since 1969 even as the number of Catholics in the United States has grown significantly Only one third of Catholics believe that the bread and wine actually become the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ at the consecration during Mass If the Church is to reverse these trends the evangelizers must first be evangelized In other words Catholics in the pew must make a conscious choice to know and follow Jesus before they can draw others to him Ten years after it was first published Forming Intentional Disciples is still helping scores of Church leaders parish staff and all Catholics transform parish life from within World renowned author and speaker Sherry Weddell leads you through the steps that will help Catholics enter more deeply into a relationship with God and the river of apostolic creativity charisms and vocation that flow from that relationship for the sake of the Church and the world
