Eva's Man Gayl Jones, 2020-10-20 The Best American Novelist Whose Name You May Not Know Calvin Baker The Atlantic A literary giant and one of my absolute favourite writers TAYARI JONES author of AN AMERICAN MARRIAGE An American writer with a powerful sense of vital inheritance of history in the blood John Updike The New Yorker Eva's Man is a gripping psychological portrait of a woman unable to love for fear of pain Imprisoned for the bizarre murder of her lover Eva Median Canada weaves together memory and fantasy to reveal a life tormented by the brutality of sexual abuse and emotional silence Brilliantly experimenting with language Jones infuses her graphic and powerful narrative of the triple yoke of race class and gender with a rich musical and oral idiom Genders 23 Thomas C. Foster, Carol Siegel, Ellen E. Berry, 1996-04 What do narratives by British suffragettes of being forcibly fed have in common with the representation of indigenous women in Canadian police archives How are literary representations of domestic violence related to the use of silence as a strategy of resistance in African American women's writing How are modernist fictions of gay male desire connected with ambiguous sexual performances in rock music or with images of Vietnam veterans in American horror movies What does a narrative of women's participation in Bengali national resistance movements share with an ethnographic study of prostitution in Papua New Guinea These are some of the specific questions raised by the essays in this volume which examines a wide variety of historical and cultural locations where differently sexed gendered and racialized bodies have been constructed More generally this volume addresses theoretical debates over whether embodiment is best understood through representations or performances Are bodies written or enacted The different answers to these questions have important consequences for how we understand the inscription of bodies with systems of power and the possibilities that exist for resisting those systems go to the Genders website Black Women Writers at Work Claudia Tate, 2023-01-10 Black women writers and critics are acting on the old adage that one must speak for oneself if one wishes to be heard Claudia Tate from the introduction Long out of print Black Women Writers At Work is a vital contribution to Black literature in the 20th century Through candid interviews with Maya Angelou Toni Cade Bambara Gwendolyn Brooks Alexis Deveaux Nikki Giovanni Kristin Hunter Gayl Jones Audre Lorde Toni Morrison Tillie Olson Sonia Sanchez Ntozake Shange Alice Walker Margaret Walker and Shirley Anne Williams the book highlights the practices and critical linkages between the work and lived experiences of Black women writers whose work laid the foundation for many who have come after Responding to questions about why and for whom they write and how they perceive their responsibility to their work to others and to society the featured playwrights poets novelists and essayists provide a window into the connections between their lives and their art Finally available for a new generation this classic work has an urgent message for readers and writers today New Criticism and Pedagogical Directions for Contemporary Black Women Writers LaToya Jefferson-James, 2022-03-03 New Criticism and Pedagogical Directions for Contemporary Black Women Writers is a collection of critical and pedagogical essays that shed new light on the creative depths of Black women writers On the one hand some Black women writers have been heavily anthologized they have more often than not been restricted by critical metanarratives Some of their works have been lionized while others remain neglected On the other hand some Black women writers have been ignored and understudied This collection corrects the gaps in our critical thinking about Black women writers by introducing them to a new generation of undergraduate and graduate students and by presenting pedagogical essays to our colleagues currently working in the field

Black Women, Identity, and Cultural Theory Kevin Everod Quashie, 2004 Ultimately moves beyond these to propose a new cultural aesthetic that aims to center black women and their philosophies Book jacket

A History of the African American Novel Valerie Babb, 2017-07-31 A History of the African American Novel offers an in depth overview of the development of the novel and its major genres In the first part of this book Valerie Babb examines the evolution of the novel from the 1850s to the present showing how the concept of black identity has transformed along with the art form The second part of this History explores the prominent genres of African American novels such as neoslave narratives detective fiction and speculative fiction and considers how each one reflects changing understandings of blackness This book builds on other literary histories by including early black print culture African American graphic novels pulp fiction and the history of adaptation of black novels to film By placing novels in conversation with other documents early black newspapers and magazines film and authorial correspondence A History of the African American Novel brings many voices to the table to broaden interpretations of the novel s development to Crime Fiction covers British and American crime fiction from the eighteenth century to the end of the twentieth. As well as discussing the detective fiction of writers like Arthur Conan Doyle, Agatha Christie and Raymond Chandler, it considers other kinds of fiction where crime plays a substantial part such as the thriller and spy fiction. It also includes chapters on the treatment of crime in eighteenth century literature, French and Victorian fiction, women and black detectives, crime on film and TV, police fiction and postmodernist uses of the detective form. The collection, by an international team of established specialists, offers students invaluable reference material including a chronology and guides to further reading. The volume aims to ensure that its readers will be grounded in the history of crime fiction and its critical reception.

The Cambridge Companion to Crime Fiction Martin Priestman, 2003-11-06 The Cambridge Companion

The Politics of (M)Othering Obioma Nnaemeka, 2005-08-04 This collection is a study of African literature framed by the central and multi-faceted idea of mother, motherland, mothertongue, motherwit, motherhood, mothering, looking at the paradoxical location of mother as both central and marginal. Whilst the volume stands as a sustained feminist analysis, it engages feminist theory itself by showing how issues in feminism are in African literature recast in different and complex ways.

The Kentucky African American Encyclopedia Gerald L. Smith, Karen Cotton McDaniel, John A. Hardin, 2015-08-28 The story of African Americans in Kentucky is as diverse and vibrant as the state's general history. The work of more than 150 writers, The Kentucky African American Encyclopedia is an essential guide to the black experience in the Commonwealth. The encyclopedia includes biographical sketches of politicians and community leaders as well as pioneers in art, science and industry. Kentucky's impact on the national scene is registered in an array of notable figures such as writers William Wells Brown and bell hooks, reformers Bessie Lucas Allen and Shelby Lanier Jr, sports icons Muhammad Ali and Isaac Murphy, civil rights leaders Whitney Young Jr and Georgia Powers, and entertainers Ernest Hogan, Helen Humes, and the Nappy Roots. Featuring entries on the individuals, events, places, organizations, movements, and institutions that have shaped the state's history since its origins, the volume also includes topical essays on the civil rights movement, Eastern Kentucky coalfields, business, education, and women. For researchers, students, and all who cherish local history, The Kentucky African American Encyclopedia is an indispensable reference that highlights the diversity of the state's culture and history.

Politics of Mothering Obioma Nnaemeka, 1997-01 This collection is a study of African literature framed by the central and multi-faceted idea of mother, motherland, mothertongue, motherwit, motherhood, mothering, looking at the paradoxical location of mother as both central and marginal. use literature to understand the experience of African American women Covers the full chronological range of African American literature Fosters a respect for cultural diversity Develops research skills by directing students to additional sources of information Builds bridges between African American history literature and Women s Studies      Feminism and Contemporary Women Writers Radha Chakravarty,2014-05-30 This book attempts to deal with the problem of literary subjectivity in theory and practice The works of six contemporary women writers Doris Lessing Anita Desai Mahasweta Devi Buchi Emecheta Margaret Atwood and Toni Morrison are discussed as potential ways of testing and expanding the theoretical debate A brief history of subjectivity and subject formation is reviewed in the light of the works of thinkers such as Hobbes Hume Kant Hegel Marx Nietzsche Raymond Williams and Stephen Greenblatt and the work of leading feminists is also seen contributing to the debate substantially      After the Pain Fiona Mills,Keith B. Mitchell,2006 As a poet playwright novelist short story writer and critic Gayl Jones has always resisted labels in her quest to find a liberating voice for black women and herself With a poet s lyricism and a musician s ear for rhythm she continually seeks new ways to confront the barriers traumas insecurities and prejudices oppressing black women and by extension all women After the Pain Critical Essays on Gayl Jones is the first comprehensive collection of essays dedicated solely to the exploration of Jones s work Ranging from analyses of her use of language and music to reevaluations of her representation of sexuality and gender roles to examinations of the oft overlooked connections between Latin America and African Americans each of these essays investigates Jones s desire to continually complicate the process of identity formation      Women Take Care Katie Hogan,2018-08-06 Self sacrificing mothers and forgiving wives caretaking lesbians and vigilant maternal surrogates these good women are all familiar figures in the visual and print culture relating to AIDS In a probing critique of that culture Katie Hogan demonstrates ways in which literary and popular works use the classic image of the nurturing female to render queer AIDS more acceptable while consigning women to conventional roles and reinforcing the idea that everyone with this disease is somehow suspect In times of crisis the figure of the idealized woman who is modest and selfless has repeatedly surfaced in Western culture as a balm and a source of comfort and as a means of mediating controversial issues Drawing on examples from journalism medical discourse fiction drama film television and documentaries Hogan describes how texts on AIDS reproduce this historically entrenched paradigm of sacrifice and care a paradigm that reinforces biases about race and sexuality Hogan believes that the growing nostalgia for women s traditional roles has deflected attention away from women s own health needs Throughout her book she depicts caretaking as a fundamental human obligation but one that currently falls primarily to those members of society with the least power Only by rejecting the stereotype of the good woman she says can Americans begin to view caretaking as the responsibility of the entire society
