Daring, Disreputable and Devout Dan W. Clanton, Jr., 2009-04-01 Stories of women in the Bible have been interpreted by artists writers musicians filmmakers and biblical commentators for centuries However in many cases these later interpreters have often adapted and altered the Bible to fit their own view s of the stories Ironically these later renderings usually serve as the basis for the generally accepted view s of biblical women For example many readers of the Bible assume that Eve is to blame for the disobedient act in the Garden of Eden or that Delilah seduced Samson and then cut his hair A closer look at these assumptions though reveals that they are not based on the Bible but are mediated through the creations of later interpreters In this book the author examines eight such women s stories and shows how later readers interact with the biblical stories to construct sometimes fanciful sometimes faulty views of these women Dan Clanton Jr broadens our awareness of the influence of these later readings on how we understand biblical women so that we can be more critical in our engagement with them and become more familiar with what the Bible actually says about the women whose stories it contains

The Forgotten Creed Stephen J. Patterson, 2018-09-03 Long before the followers of Jesus declared him to be the Son of God Jesus taught his followers that they too were the children of God This ancient creed now all but forgotten is recorded still within the folds of a letter of Paul the Apostle Paul did not create this creed nor did he fully embrace it but he quoted it and thus preserved it for a time when it might become important once again This ancient creed said nothing about God or Christ or salvation Its claims were about the whole human race there is no race there is no class there is no gender This is the story of that first forgotten creed and the world of its begetting a world in which foreigners were feared slaves were human chattel and men questioned whether women were really human after all Into this world the followers of Jesus proclaimed You are all children of God There is no Jew or Greek no slave or free no male and female for you are all one Where did this remarkable statement of human solidarity come from and what finally happened to it How did Christianity become a Gentile religion that despised Jews condoned slavery as the will of God and championed patriarchy Christian theologians would one day argue about the nature of Christ the being of God and the mechanics of salvation But before this in the days when Jesus was still fresh in the memory of those who knew him the argument was a different one how can human beings overcome the ways by which we divide ourselves one from another Is solidarity possible beyond race class and gender
