Music of Eternity: Meditations for Advent with Evelyn Underhill Robyn Wrigley-Carr, 2021-08-19 Almost before I had begun this wonderful book I was hooked STEPHEN COTTRELL Robyn Wrigley Carr has produced a masterpiece of insight and wisdom CLARION JOURNAL Nourishment for the soul on every page AYLAL PINE CHURCH TIMES Wrigley Carr illustrates how Underhill wonderfully unites reflection and prayer DANA GREENE Beloved spiritual writer Evelyn Underhill believed that God does not just come to us at special times but is always coming to us But how do we recognise his coming and make ourselves open to it In Music of Eternity the Archbishop of York's Advent Book 2021 Robyn Wrigley Carr shares a series of meditations exploring the nature God's comings Skilfully weaving together Underhill's writings with the psalms and short prayers she shows how as Christians we can embrace God's coming and be transformed by them in order to better love others Full of rich warmth and encouragement these Christian meditations will help you make the most of the Advent season and more able to connect with God at all times Set out in four parts to take you through Advent and with questions for reflection the Archbishop of York's Advent book can be used as a study for individuals or small groups to prepare for Christmas Music of Eternity will help you find space to deepen your relationship with God and to understand what Evelyn Underhill called the many sided truth of God's perpetual coming to His creatures

A Philosopher at the Admiralty Peter Johnson, 2012-05-29 This book is volume one of a two part series volumes sold separately Taken together the two volumes of A Philosopher at War examine the political thought of the philosopher and archaeologist R G Collingwood against the background of the First and Second World Wars Collingwood served in Admiralty Intelligence during the First World War and although he was not physically robust enough to play an active role in the Second World War he was swift to condemn the policies of appeasement which he thought largely responsible for bringing it about The author uses a blend of political philosophy history and discussion of political policy to uncover what Collingwood says about the First World War the Peace Treaty which followed it and the crises which led to the Second World War in 1939 together with the response he mustered to it before his death in 1943 The aim is to reveal the kind of liberalism he valued and explain why he valued it By 1940 Collingwood came to see that a liberalism separated from Christianity would be unable to meet the combined evils of Fascism and Nazism How Collingwood arrived at this position and how viable he finally considered it is the story told in these volumes      Women Medievalists and the Academy Jane Chance, 2005 Pioneering An important and timely collection that profiles the lives and professional careers of women medievalists in the last centuries Maureen Mazzaoui University of Wisconsin Madison      Friendship in God A. M. Allchin, 2025-02-11 The slow progress of the churches in the twentieth century towards the unity for which Christ prayed is measured chiefly by official records of conferences debates declarations and agreements What are less often recorded and rarely noticed at the individual relationships between one Christian and another of different confessions Such personal encounters sustained by mutual attraction profound respect and above all by prayer make a contribution which cannot be measured to the healing of wounds inflicted by centuries of division on the Body of Christ This short study explores with care and sensitivity the spiritual friendship between an English Anglican and an Italian Roman Catholic both women dedicated to the love and service of God and both now commemorated in the Calendars of their several Churches      Elise Boulding: Autobiographical Writings and Selections from Unpublished Journals and Letters J Russell Boulding, 2016-11-21 This volume honors the lifetime achievement of distinguished activist and scholar Elise Boulding 1920 2010 on the occasion of her 96th birthday Known as the matriarch of the twentieth century peace research movement she made significant contributions in the fields of peace education future studies feminism and sociology of the family as well as serving as a prominent leader in the peace movement and the Society of Friends She taught at the University of Colorado Boulder from 1967 to 1978 and at Dartmouth College from 1978 to 1985 and was instrumental in the development of peace studies programs at both those institutions She was a co founder of the International Peace Research Association 1964 the Consortium on Peace Research Education and Development 1970 and various peace and women s issue related committees and working groups of the American Sociological Association and International Sociological Association      The Relevance of Bernard Lonergan's Notion of Self-appropriation to a Mystical-political Theology Ian B. Bell, 2008 In The Relevance of Bernard Lonergan s Notion of Self Appropriation to a Mystical Political Theology Ian Bell takes on the issue of the separation of the interior and exterior lives that has come to dominate mystical theology over the years The mystical life he claims is necessarily involved in the establishment of social structures and institutions that govern human living and the work of Bernard Lonergan on the human subject provides a means by which the connection between the interior and exterior lives may be established Because human persons operate in a consistent pattern regardless of a given moment s particularities mystical experience is no longer relegated to so called spiritual matters and the insights of mystics may be applied to the Christian call to live as agents of love With this connection in place mystical theology and political theology come together in a theology that is both mystical and political      Then May the Senses Fall Evelyn Underhill, 2025-10-07 Essential for anyone seeking an authentic Christian mysticism that refuses to be confined by its historical boundary of the cloister Carl McColman author of The New Big Book of Christian Mysticism The lost fiction fantasy and horror of the famous Christian writer A revered priest s horrifying metaphysical secret that is revealed only after his death A sculptor s obsessive desire to craft the horrific face that haunts his dreams and drives him to madness A journey upriver to an unspoiled realm whose denizens revile anything tainted by humans The sole survivor of an island shipwreck and the terrifying ancient being he confronts Evelyn Underhill 1875 1941 is best known for her groundbreaking and accessible studies on Christian mysticism over forty books and hundreds of articles and lectures on spiritual practices including her most famous work Mysticism 1911 Yet even the most avid Underhill reader does not know that she spent her youth writing some seriously weird fiction supernatural short stories that H P Lovecraft might have enjoyed Here for the first time is a collection of short stories poetry and an essay written by the foremost Christian mystic of the twentieth century Furthermore Underhill s brief fiction career represents an important step in her mystical and spiritual development Understand these stories and you go a long way toward understanding how Underhill became the transformational thinker and mystic the world knows her to be

An Introduction to Religious and Spiritual Experience Marianne Rankin,2008-01-01 Spiritual experiences mystical and near death incidences are interpreted from scientific philosophical and religious viewpoints Archangels & Archaeology Geoffrey A. C. Ginn,2012 John Sebastian Marlow Ward 1885 1949 was an English antiquarian mystic occult scholar and museums pioneer Ward s provocative works on Masonic symbolism secret societies and spirit communications remain in print and the innovative social history museum the Abbey Folk Park which he founded in New Barnet north London in the 1930s was later transplanted to Queensland Australia where it continues to flourish His career demonstrates a remarkable fusion of the esoteric and spiritual pre occupations of the early 20th century with the deeper currents of antiquarianism and Christian mysticism Ward s life of energetic work spiritual exploration and public activity presents a compelling narrative His career moved from Cambridge Freemasonry and Edwardian Britain s occult revival to wartime spirit communications and mystical visions of a Pentecostal apocalypse as World War II approached His unique and populist history museum fused a passion for Britain s disappearing heritage with his conviction that the collapse of Western civilization was imminent When Ward was unfairly disgraced in a sensational court case in May 1945 he and his followers departed England for Cyprus in self imposed exile Archangels and Archaeology examines Ward s extraordinary life and career demonstrating how these religious intellectual and cultural themes so often treated in isolation came together in the turbulent decades of the early 20th century But his career also has its own tragic arc from youthful antiquarian to the mature scholar to full blown mystic and eccentric religious leader and finally to his own fall from public grace in exile and decline Protestant Spiritual Traditions Frank C. Senn,2000-12-22

An Introduction to Christianity for a New Millennium Scott Gambrill Sinclair,2008-02-28 Without presupposing prior knowledge this accessibly written introduction to Christianity covers the entire history of the religion from its Old Testament foundations up to the present including the significant individuals events doctrines and rituals of the faith Sinclair surveys the major historical forms of Christianity Catholicism Eastern Orthodoxy Protestantism and the contemporary issues that divide Christians today e.g. homosexuality. The book also tackles such difficult topics as the origin and relevance of biblical prophecy, the historicity and significance of the miracles of Jesus and the resurrection, combining evolution and biblical faith and producing an intellectually coherent explanation of the Trinity and the Incarnation. Throughout the book, Sinclair carefully explains what he himself believes as a contemporary critical Christian and why, and provides readers with enough information to form their own independent opinions. He also acknowledges the dark side of Christian history: the crusades, anti-Semitism, the wars between Catholics and Protestants, the forced imposition of Christianity on native peoples, even as he celebrates the spiritual depth and dazzling cultural achievements of the largest religion in the world.
