Even After All This Time A Story Of Love Revolution And Leaving Iran:

Even After All This Time Afschineh Latifi, 2005-03-29 The daughter of a colonel in the army of the Shah of Iran describes her privileged early childhood her father's arrest and execution and her mother's decision to divide the family until they could start a new life together in the United States

Representing Post-Revolutionary Iran Hossein Nazari, 2022-06-30 Memoirs of diasporic Iranian American authors are a unique and culturally powerful way in which Iran its politics and people are understood in the USA and the rest of the world This book offers an analysis of the processes of production promotion and reception of the representations of post revolutionary Iran The book provides new perspectives on some of the most famous examples of the genre such as Betty Mahmoody's Not Without My Daughter Azar Nafisi's Reading Lolita in Tehran A Memoir in Books and Fatemeh Keshavarz's Jasmine and Stars Reading More Than Lolita in Tehran Hossein Nazari places these texts in their social historical and political contexts tracing their origins within the trope of the American captivity narrative teasing out and critiquing neo Orientalist tendencies within and finally focusing on modes of discursive resistance to neo Orientalist narratives The book analyzes the structural means by which stereotypes about Islam and women in the Islamic Republic in these narratives are privileged by news media and the creative industries while also charting a growing number of counterhegemonic memoirs which challenge these narratives by representing more nuanced accounts of life in Iran after 1979

The Literature of the Iranian Diaspora Sanaz Fotouhi, 2015-04-03 The 1979 Revolution in Iran caused the migration of millions of Iranians many of whom wrote and are still writing of their experiences Formed at the junctions of Iranian culture English language and Western cultures this body of work has not only formed a unique literary space offering an insightful reflection of Iranian diasporic experiences and its shifting nature but it has also been making a unique and understudied contribution to World Literatures in English as significant as Indian African and Asian writing in English Sanaz Fotouhi here traces the origins of the emerging body of diasporic Iranian literature in English and uses these origins to examine the socio political position and historical context from which they have emerged Fotouhi brings together introduces and analyses for the first time a significant range of diasporic Iranian writers alongside each other and alongside other diasporic literatures in English While situating this body of work through existing theories such as postcolonialism Fotouhi sheds new light on the role of Iranian literature and culture in Western literature by showing that these writings distinctively reflect experiences unique to the Iranian diaspora Analysing the relationship between Iranians and their new surroundings by drawing on theories of migration narration and identity Fotouhi examines how the literature borne out of the Iranian diaspora reconstructs maintains and negotiates their Individual and communal identities and reflects today's socio political realities This book will be vital for researchers of Middle Eastern literature and its relationship with writings from the West as well as those interested in the cultural history of the Middle East

The A to Z of Iran John H. Lorentz, 2010-04-14 Iran is a country with a deep and complex history Over several thousand years Iran has been the source of numerous creative contributions to the spiritual and literary world and the site of many remarkable manifestations of material culture The special place that Iran has come to hold in contemporary historical events most recently as a center stage actor in the unfolding and interconnected drama of worldwide nuclear arms proliferation and terrorism is all the more reason to explore the characters and personality of Iran and Iranians The A to Z of Iran is designed to give the reader a quick and understandable overview of specific events movements people political and social groups places and trends Through its extensive chronology introduction bibliography appendixes and more than double the number of cross referenced dictionary entries as in the previous edition the work allows for considerable exploration of a number of historical and contemporary topics and issues In particular the modern period defined as 1800 present is covered extensively Women Write Iran Nima Naghibi,2016-05-01 Women Write Iran is the first full length study on life narratives by Iranian women in the diaspora Nima Naghibi investigates auto biographical narratives across genres including memoirs documentary films prison testimonials and graphic novels and finds that they are tied together by the experience of the 1979 Iranian revolution as a traumatic event and by a powerful nostalgia for an idealized past Naghibi is particularly interested in writing as both an expression of memory and an assertion of human rights She discovers that writing life narratives contributes to the larger enterprise of righting historical injustices By drawing on the empathy of the reader spectator witness Naghibi contends life narratives offer the possibilities of connecting to others and responding with an increased commitment to social justice The book opens with an examination of how the widely circulated video footage of the death of Neda Agha Soltan on the streets of Tehran in June 2009 triggered the articulation of life narratives by diasporic Iranians It concludes with a discussion of the prominent place of the 1979 revolution in these narratives Throughout the focus is on works that have become popular in the West such as Marjane Satrapi's best selling graphic novel Persepolis Naghibi addresses the significant questions raised by these works How do we engage with human rights and social justice as readers in the West How do these narratives draw our attention and elicit our empathic reactions And what is our responsibility as witnesses to trauma atrocity and human suffering Life Stories Maureen O'Connor,2011-08-23 Memoirs autobiographies and diaries represent the most personal and most intimate of genres as well as one of the most abundant and popular Gain new understanding and better serve your readers with this detailed genre guide to nearly 700 titles that also includes notes on more than 2 800 read alike and other related titles The popularity of this body of literature has grown in recent years and it has also diversified in terms of the types of stories being told and persons telling them In the past readers advisors have depended on access by names or Dewey classifications and subjects to help readers find autobiographies they will enjoy This guide offers an alternative organizing the literature according to popular genres subgenres and themes that reflect common reading interests Describing titles that range from travel and adventure classics and celebrity autobiographies to foodie memoirs and environmental reads Life Stories A Guide to Reading Interests in Memoirs Autobiographies and Diaries presents a unique overview of the genre that specifically addresses the needs of readers advisors and others who work with readers in finding books     Axis of Hope Catherine Z. Sameh, 2019-12-02 Political tensions between Iran and the United States in the post 9 11 period and the Global War on Terror have set the stage for Iranian women s rights activists inside and outside Iran as they seek full legal equality under the Islamic Republic Axis of Hope recounts activists struggles through critical analysis of their narratives including the One Million Signatures Campaign to End Discriminatory Law the memoirs of human rights lawyer and Nobel Prize winner Shirin Ebadi and the life story of feminist Mahboubeh Abbasgholizadeh and her activist project ZananTV Catherine Sameh examines how Iranian women s rights activists have cultivated ways of thinking of and being with each other that rupture the relentless difference making and violence of coloniality through local and transnational networks along axes of feminist solidarity friendship and love Crucial to countering despair and cynicism about Iran as well as the dangerous interventions by Western powers on behalf of Iranians activists experiences speak to the possibilities and challenges of transnational alliances in confronting oppressive regimes These stories are particularly germane in such precarious times marked by war isolation sanctions and the intense demonization of Iranians and Muslims as well as authoritarianism militarism and patriarchal nationalisms around the world Situating postreform women s rights activism within the unfolding decades long project to democratize Iran from within Axis of Hope makes a timely contribution to studies of feminist movements women s human rights in Muslim contexts activism and new media and the relationship between activism civil society and the state

Women, Art, and Literature in the Iranian Diaspora Mehraneh Ebrahimi, 2019-05-09 Does the study of aesthetics have tangible effects in the real world Does examining the work of diaspora writers and artists change our view of the Other In this thoughtful book Ebrahimi argues that an education in the humanities is as essential as one in politics and ethics critically training the imagination toward greater empathy Despite the surge in Iranian memoirs their contributions to debunking an abstract idea of terror and their role in encouraging democratic thinking remain understudied In examining creative work by women of Iranian descent Ebrahimi argues that Shirin Neshat Marjane Satrapi and Parsua Bashi make the Other familiar and break a cycle of reactionary xenophobia These authors instead of relying on indignation build imaginative bridges in their work that make it impossible to blame one evil external enemy Ebrahimi explores both classic and hybrid art forms including graphic novels and photo poetry to advocate for the importance of aesthetics to inform and influence a global community Drawing on the theories of Rancière Butler Arendt and Levinas Ebrahimi identifies the ways in which these works give a human face to the Other creating the space and language to imagine a new political and ethical landscape

Women's Writing and Muslim Societies Sharif Gemie, 2012-11-15 Women's Writing and Muslim Societies looks at the rise in works concerning Muslim societies by both western and Muslim women from pioneering female travellers like Freya Stark and Edith Wharton in the early twentieth century whose accounts of the Orient were usually playful and humorous to the present day and such works as Azar Nafisi's Reading Lolita in Tehran and Betty Mahmoudy's Not Without My Daughter which present a radically different view of Muslim Societies marked by fear hostility and even disgust The author Sharif Gemie also considers a new range of female Muslim writers whose works suggest a variety of other perspectives that speak of difficult journeys the problems of integration identity crises and the changing nature of Muslim cultures in the process this volume examines varied journeys across cultural political and religious borders discussing the problems faced by female travellers the problems of trans cultural romances and the difficulties of constructing dialogue between enemy camps

Muslim Women, Transnational Feminism and the Ethics of Pedagogy Lisa K. Taylor, Jasmin Zine, 2014-06-27 Following a long historical legacy Muslim women s lives continue to be represented and circulate widely as a vehicle of intercultural understanding within a context of the war on terror Following Edward Said s thesis that these cultural forms reflect and participate in the power plays of empire this volume examines the popular and widespread production and reception of Muslim women s lives and narratives in literature poetry cinema television and popular culture within the politics of a post 9 11 world This edited collection provides a timely exploration into the pedagogical and ethical possibilities opened up by transnational feminist and anti colonial readings that can work against sensationalized and stereotypical representations of Muslim women It addresses the gap in contemporary theoretical discourse amongst educators teaching literary and cultural texts by and about Muslim Women and brings scholars from the fields of education literary and cultural studies and Muslim women s studies to examine the politics and ethics of transnational anti colonial reading practices and pedagogy The book features interviews with Muslim women artists and cultural producers who provide engaging reflections on the transformative role of the arts as a form of critical public pedagogy
