Killeen, 2023-02-07 This book examines the ways in which ideas about children childhood and Ireland changed together in Irish Protestant writing of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries It focuses on different varieties of the child found in the work of a range of Irish Protestant writers theologians philosophers educationalists politicians and parents from the early seventeenth century up to the outbreak of the 1798 Rebellion The book is structured around a detailed examination of six versions of the child the evil child the vulnerable innocent child the political child the believing child the enlightened child and the freakish child It traces these versions across a wide range of genres fiction sermons political pamphlets letters educational treatises histories catechisms and children's bibles showing how concepts of childhood related to debates about Irish nationality politics and history across these two centuries The Congregationalist, 1929 The Heart of Black Preaching Cleophus J. LaRue, 1999-11-01 Cleophus LaRue argues that the extraordinary character of black preaching derives from a distinctive biblical hermeneutic that views God as involved in practical ways in the lives of African Americans This hermeneutic he believes has remained constant since the days of slavery LaRue analyzes the distinct characteristics of African American preaching and brings the insights of both theory and practice to bear on this important subject matter

The Sermon At The Coliseum John Hill, 2013-12-09 The day started for Peter Grey like any other day he got up early made his coffee and waited for his family to get up Peter works as a stockbroker in Los Angeles and his wife Sarah Grey is an attorney for a large firm They lived the quiet suburban life in the upper middle class community of Brentwood California with their two children Kelly and Tim Today Peter and his family will have a visitor that will change their lives immediately but will it be for the better or worse The visitor says his name is Emmanuel and he is on a fact finding mission to the United States and needed to stay at their home with them for five days to complete his mission Who is he and where did he really come from These questions will keep you reading until the very surprising end Union Catalog of the Graduate Theological Union Graduate Theological Union.
