Children's Cinema Noel Brown, 2016-12-22 British children's films have played a part in the childhoods of generations of young people around the world for over a century. Until now, however, their cherished status has remained largely unexplored. In this book, Noel Brown relates the history of children's cinema in Britain from the early years of commercial cinema to the present day to reveal the reasons behind its acclaim in international popular culture. Drawing on multiple sources, Brown provides in-depth analysis of a range of iconic films including The Railway Children, The Thief of Bagdad, Bugsy Malone, the Harry Potter films, Mary Poppins, Nanny McPhee, Paddington, Oliver, and the Aardman's Wallace and Gromit series. Furthermore, he investigates industrial and commercial contexts such as the role of the Children's Film Foundation and includes revealing insights on changing social and cultural norms such as the once sacred tradition of Saturday morning cinema. Brown challenges common prejudices that children's films are inherently shallow or simplistic, revealing the often complex strategies that underpin their enduring appeal to audiences of all ages and backgrounds. In addition, he shows how the films allow a privileged access to historic cultures and the nation's political past. In doing so, Brown firmly establishes children's cinema as an important genre not only for students and scholars of film studies but also for those interested in socio-cultural history, the production and reception of popular entertainment, and anyone looking for entertainment escapism and nostalgia.

The Best American Sports Writing 2003 Glenn Stout, H. G. Bissinger, Buzz Bissinger, 2003 Bissinger gathers together stellar prose on a dizzying array of sporting endeavors: triathlon, tennis, wrestling, bookmaking, basketball, boxing, chess, golf. Any reader's favorite game can be found in these pages. But every piece here transcends its subject; every piece crystallizes the emotions all great competitions evoke: joy, fear, heartache, affection, surprise in both players and fans. David Grann weighs the burden of superstardom with Barry Bonds; Susy Buchanan explores demolition derby, possibly the most Darwinian sport in America; Gary Smith examines the baseball that ignited a lawsuit; Josh Senses tees up with the ultimate Zen golfer, a Tibetan lama; S. L. Price looks back at Pancho Gonzalez, one of the greatest and likely the most irascible tennis player ever; Michael Agovino recalls life with a bookmaking father; Stephen J. Dubner hangs out with NFL draftees at their league-mandated rookie symposium, a mix of motivational seminar, boot camp, and Scared Straight. These pieces, and many more, delve beneath the stats and the hype to unveil the raw, compelling essence of sport. Since its inception in 1915, the Best American series has become the premier annual showcase for the country's finest short fiction and nonfiction. For each volume, a series editor reads pieces from hundreds of periodicals, then selects between fifty and a hundred outstanding works. That selection is pared down to the twenty or so very best pieces by a guest editor who is widely recognized as a leading writer in his or her field. This unique system has helped make the Best American series the most respected and most popular of its kind. This American sportswriting series is a venerable institution. Boston Globe Buzz Bissinger selects the very best writing on a vast variety of competitive endeavors, from baseball to weightlifting, skating to demolition derby. Herein, today's foremost journalists throw revealing light on a pantheon of stars: Shaquille O'Neal, Bobby Fischer, Mike Tyson, the San Diego Chicken, and more. Rene
