Brian Johnston, 1993 An Evening with Johnners Brian Johnston, 1997-06 In 1993 at the age of 80 Brian Johnston embarked on his first ever concert tour a one man show called An Evening With Johnners which blended stories about his life with the many jokes and puns for which he was renowned Two recordings were made from it An Evening With Johnners and An Hour With Johnners A Delicious Slice Of Johnners Brian

Johnston, 2011-09-30 Following Brian Johnston's death in 1994 Prime Minister John Major appeared to speak for the nation when he remarked that Summers will never be the same To an Englishman's ears the sound of leather against willow will always be closely associated with the cheerful tones of Johnners Brian Johnston was a man who admitted I have this absurd hankering to make people laugh He also summed up his books as the meanderings of a remarkably happy and lucky person to whom life like cricket is a funny game and still a lot of fun Lovingly edited by his eldest son Barry A Delicious Slice of Johnners is a wonderfully enjoyable compendium of three of Johnners' best loved books the autobiographies It's Been a Lot of Fun and It's a Funny Game and Rain Stops Play A Further Slice Of Johnners Brian Johnston, 2011-11-30 When Brian Johnston was a schoolboy his reports were full of phrases such as talks too much in school and apt to be a buffoon Later millions of radio listeners would be delighted to discover that some things never changed Johnners brought his unique wit and personal charm to an enormous range of BBC radio and television programmes for nearly 50 years from In Town Tonight and Down Your Way to Test Match Special After Brian died in 1994 Christopher Martin Jenkins wrote It is hard to believe that anyone in the history of broadcasting has induced such widespread affection A Further Slice of Johnners covers Brian's early days from his childhood in Hertfordshire and his schooldays at Eton and Oxford to his job in the family coffee business in the City and his service with the Grenadier Guards during the Second World War There is also a selection of the most memorable characters and locations from his fifteen years on the Radio Four programme Down Your Way Finally there is a collection of Brian's popular View From the Boundary interviews on Test Match Special including fascinating conversations with Eric Idle John Major and Peter O Toole Cricket: A Political History of the Global Game, 1945-2017 Stephen

Wagg, 2017-11-14 Cricket is an enduring paradox On the one hand it symbolises much that is outmoded imperialism a leisured elite a rural aristocratic Englishness On the other it endures as a global game and does so by skilful adaptation trading partly on its mythic past and partly on its capacity to repackage itself This ambitious new history recounts the politics of cricket around the world since the Second World War examining key cultural and political themes including decolonisation racism gender globalisation corruption and commercialisation Part One looks at the transformation of cricket cultures in the ten territories of the former British Empire in the years immediately after 1945 a time when decolonisation and the search for national identity touched every cricket playing region in the world Part Two focuses on globalisation and the game's evolution as an international sport analysing social change and the Ashes the campaigns for new cricket formats the development of the women's game the new breed of coach the limits to the game's global expansion and the rise of India as the world's leading cricket power Cricket A Political History of the Global Game 1945-2017 is fascinating reading for anybody interested in the contemporary history of sport

Round Mr Horne Barry Johnston, 2013-07-08 When Kenneth Horne died in 1969 at the age of 61 he was described as the last of the truly great radio comics In a broadcasting career spanning more than 25 years he starred in three of the most popular radio comedy series of all time Much Binding in the Marsh Beyond Our Ken and Round the Horne Born in 1907 Horne was the youngest of seven children of a Congregationalist preacher and MP He won a half blue for tennis at Cambridge but was sent down for failing his exams In 1939 he joined the RAF and rose to the rank of Wing Commander before he broke into broadcasting after compeering a troop concert on the BBC With his brother officer Richard Dickie Murdoch he created the hugely popular Much Binding in the Marsh set on a remote RAF station somewhere in England which ran for ten years After leaving the RAF he successfully combined two careers as a businessman and a broadcaster until he suffered a stroke in 1958 and had to cut short his business career During his convalescence he helped to devise the legendary radio series Beyond Our Ken in which he presided amiably over a cast of anarchic characters played by Kenneth Williams Hugh Paddick Betty Marsden and Bill Pertwee This was followed by Round the Horne which has been called the funniest comedy series in radio history In 1969 Kenneth Horne collapsed and died on stage while presenting a television awards programme

Another Slice Of Johnners Brian Johnston, 2012-05-31 Following the success of A Delicious Slice of Johnners Barry Johnston has edited another delightful anthology based on three of his father's most popular books Brian Johnston's Guide to Cricket Chatterboxes and It's Been a Piece of Cake
