Doles, 2020-03-11 The Lord God has many ways of getting our attention and I realize that this is just one of them I found myself sitting in my truck with my left arm crushed due to an accident Thank God I was the only one involved then again this moment in time was just for me I hydroplaned on water in one of the rainiest days of the year On my way to work as usual but this became a day that changed my life Before then I felt God speaking to my heart letting me know something was going to happen to me but I didn't know what In the Bible there is a scripture that says God chastises those whom he love and that's what helped me make it through from beginning to end His grace is sufficient and that's why I am ever so grateful unto thee I knew I was living a life that was ungodly and in his timing he would get my attention if I didn't start living righteously What has happened to me has brought me back closer to God He has blessed me tremendously all in all Ever so grateful unto thee I am O Lord Be it Ever So Humble Scott R.
