The Everingham Letterbook Matthew Everingham, Valerie Ross, 1985 Letters across Borders B. Elliot, D. Gerber, S. Sinke, 2006-09-02 This collection addresses the recent rebirth of interest in immigrant letters As these letters are increasingly seen as key rather than incidental documents in the interpretations of gender age social class and ethnicity nationality the scholars gathered here demonstrate a diversity of new approaches to their interpretation Bushwalking Through History, the Blue Mountains Greg Powell, 1989 Oceans of Consolation David Fitzpatrick, 2019-06-30 An ocean of consolation was what one young Irish emigrant in rural Australia called a letter from his father in County Clare in 1855 Similar strength of feeling is often found in the intriguing letters that David Fitzpatrick has unearthed for this extraordinary collection Oceans of Consolation offers historians and family researchers novel and sophisticated ways of reading old letters It opens to us the daily preoccupations of ordinary women and men with little education and fewer material possessions as they try to overcome the separation from family and friends created by emigration Fitzpatrick includes the personal correspondence of fourteen families of Irish emigrants in the Australian colonies giving equal attention to letters to and from Australia He reproduces in full more than one hundred letters dating from 1843 to 1906 and includes a generous selection of contemporary engravings and photographs Fitzpatrick's detailed commentaries offer biographical narratives for all of these emigrants tracing their Irish backgrounds and Australian careers Parting company with editors of comparable collections he pays special attention to the words and idiom by which letterwriters expressed their everyday concerns and sought or offered reassurance and advice He believes that personal letters provide not only unique evidence of the hopes and fears of emigrants but also an important avenue for exploring popular Irish culture Journal of the Royal Australian Historical Society Royal Australian Historical Society, 2005 Includes the Society's Annual report and statement of accounts
