Dreaming the Land Friedrich Schweitzer, International Academy of Practical Theology. Meeting, 2007 Dreaming the Land Theologies of Resistance and Hope is a theme that testifies to the contextual nature of practical theology This present volume contains a collection of essays with international contributions to practical theology In their original form these essays were presented at the seventh biennial conference of the International Academy of Practical Theology IAPT held at Brisbane Australia in June 2005 The dreaming and the land are both concepts central to the thinking of the aboriginal peoples of Australia The dreaming encompasses the creative and life giving forces which govern and express the lifeworld of these same people while the land is sacred space where the spirits of the ancestors of all human plant and animal life are represented The theme is the common thread in the first part of the book Here the search for Theologies of Resistance and Hope is related to experiences in the southern hemisphere to issues of the land as a concept for practical theology and to questions of human rights

Condee,Terry Smith,2009-01-16 Collection of essays by art historians and cultural theorists on what it means for art to be contemporary in the wake of postmodernism      A Handful of Earth Simon Bruinders,2017-03-10 For Abraham de Bruyn and the young men of The Island World War II offers more than a chance to prove their mettle Compensation for signing up to fight is a dream come true each soldier will receive a piece of land to call his own Having been removed to The Island years before from land at the foot of the majestic Outeniqua Mountains in the southern Cape where they had lived and farmed for generations they believe that Jan Smuts s war will finally put things right Leaving his young wife and family behind Abraham travels to North Africa With him is his brother Stanley and Kobus a wayward Afrikaner who is fighting alongside the Allies against the wishes of his Nationalist father In Egypt a fateful bullet sends Abraham home but his battle is far from over as promises of land turn to dust When in 1950 Abraham and his people are forced to move again circumstances become almost unbearable What does a good man have to endure for his own handful of earth Simon Bruinders s novel first published in Afrikaans as Die Sideboard is not only the story of a family caught up in the throes of history It is also a rich chronicle of an often overlooked community that toiled on South African soil for centuries and bears witness to the resilience of the human spirit      Interpersonal Relationships Martha Peaslee Levine,2022-07-27 Relationships are a necessary part of life This has always been true community helped keep us safe as dangerous animals prowled outside our caves We are now even more interconnected with each other What do we know about interpersonal relationships How do we develop the skills to connect with each other Relationships can bring value and meaning to our lives but sometimes they can have negative effects and impair our view of ourselves and others We need to find ways to keep hope even if some relationships have scarred us We need to recognize skills that we can use to form closer relationships in both our professional and personal lives This book examines interpersonal relationships from many different angles It will allow the reader to look at relationships in new ways and perhaps find tools to enhance and deepen connections within their lives The South African Archaeological Bulletin, 2004

From Boys to Men Tamara Shefer, 2007 The current emphasis in research and education on women and girls is fraught with problems It has raised a concern that boys and men should be included in research and intervention work on gender equality and transformation As a result academics with a background of many years of work in women's and gender studies undertook a research project focusing on the construction of masculinities among young men From Boys to Men was born out of this project This highly original work arises from the conference From Boys to Men held in January 2005 It represents the work of some of the best known theorists and researchers in masculinities and feminism in South Africa on the continent and internationally The subjects covered are based on rich ethnographic studies mostly in South Africa but also elsewhere in Africa Acknowledging that there are multiple versions of masculinity and that some are more valued than others this book is concerned with documenting both hegemonic discourses on masculinity as well as resistances and challenges to dominant forms of being a boy or man in different contexts of space and time From Boys to Men provides valuable material for those working with issues of gender identity and power and will sharpen understanding of males inform community based interventions and facilitate theory building This impressive collection of research on men boys and masculinities would have been impossible just a generation ago It took the worldwide impact of the women's liberation movement and the many feminisms that have since developed to bring gender into focus and to bring men into focus as participants in a gender system Raewyn Connell Professor at the University of Sydney author of Masculinities 1995 Given the extant paucity of research and literature on masculinities this book will undoubtedly prove to be an invaluable resource for scholars in the field of gender studies The editors of the volume should be commended for this timely well constructed and significant contribution to the literature on masculinities studies both in South Africa and internationally Norman Duncan Chair of Psychology University of the Witwatersrand Setting this collection apart from existing scholarship on masculinities in South Africa is its interrogation of the gendered rhetoric of boyhood and manhood in the context of HIV Aids This is a multilayered and rich collection that suggests masculinities have the potential to be unmade and remade The volume usefully opens up new avenues of analysis telling us that masculinities are always in process under negotiation contradictory for ever in crisis Vasu Reddy Gender and Development Unit Human Sciences Research Council Amy Biehl's Last Home Steven D. Gish, 2018-06-13 In 1993 white American Fulbright scholar Amy Biehl was killed in a racially motivated attack near Cape Town after spending months working to promote democracy and women's rights in South Africa. The ironic circumstances of her death generated enormous international publicity and yielded one of South Africa's most heralded stories of postapartheid reconciliation. Amy's parents not only established a humanitarian foundation to serve the black township where she was killed but supported amnesty for her killers and hired two of the young men to work for the Amy Biehl Foundation. The Biehls were hailed as heroes by Nelson Mandela, Desmond Tutu and many others in South Africa and the United States but their path toward healing was neither quick nor easy. Granted unrestricted access to the Biehl family's papers, Steven Gish brings Amy and the Foundation to life in ways that have eluded previous authors. He is the first to place Biehl's story in its full historical context while also presenting a gripping portrait of this remarkable young woman and the aftermath of her death across two continents.

The Big Bad Bitterkomix Handbook Anton Kannemeyer, Conrad Botes, 2006. Their assault on mainstream Afrikaner culture has continued to be challenging, outrageous and controversial. This book is an essential chronicle, catalogue and visual cornucopia of the work of the Bitterkomix artists from 1992 to 2006. Pub info.

Power and Ideology in South African Translation Maricel Botha, 2020-11-21. This book provides a social interpretation of written South African translation history from the seventeenth century to the present, considering how trends involving various languages have reflected ideologies and unequal power relations and focusing attention on translation's often hidden social operation. Translation is investigated in relation to colonial mercantilism, scientific knowledge of extraction, Christian missionary conversion, Islamic education, various nationalisms, apartheid oppression and the anti-apartheid struggle, neoliberalism, exclusion and post-apartheid social transformation by employing Niklas Luhmann's social systems theory. This book will be an essential resource for scholars, graduate students and general readers who are interested in or work on the history and practice of translation and its cultural agents in the South African context.

At the forefront of this struggle stood Nelson Mandela, an indomitable spirit whose unwavering dedication to freedom and equality became a symbol of hope for the oppressed.
