Lousteau, 2022-03-09 All We Have To Believe In is a captivating story of love and loss of betrayal and redemption set against the backdrop of America in the 1920s Edward Dooley is a disillusioned veteran of the Great War who comes home to San Francisco struggles to fit into a fast changing society and falls in love with the daughter of immigrants who is as headstrong as he is idealistic Beneath all the glamour of the dazzling decade however xenophobia is taking hold prosperity is undone by greed and Prohibition proves morally bankrupt Told with compassion and rich in historical detail the themes of this story continue to resonate today

M. Martin, 2014-08-05 An SBC pastor and leader identifying practical solutions for existing dilemmas within his own family now you wont see that every day If you want to see your church race hard after Gods word and heart rather than a denominations culture this is the read for you Developing a Process for Christian Leaders Dr. Johnny J. Boudreaux, 2009-12-30 This book will lower your excitement about religion but will intensify your pursuit to establish the kingdom here on earth I never cease to be amazed at how so many who say they are followers of Jesus Christ can believe that Jesus has stopped forgiving healing and calling leaders into His vineyards when there is so much to do This book is here to let everyone know that He Jesus has not returned yet but His power still generates in those who have accepted Him as their Lord and savior and are willing to hold on to the faith Leadership style does not mean that the agenda is different Many leaders today are uncomfortable with the presence of another approach to ministry It calls for us to observe that all the apostles had different styles in approaching situations and difficulties yet the ministry of Jesus was their priority alone Leadership just as everyone else will have to make adjustments as long as leading is on the agenda and in process
