Who Said That First? Max Cryer, 2010-04 Believe it or not this is probably the first book to attempt to identify the original sources of some of the English language s most common expressions We might think we know who first said famous for fifteen minutes annus horribilis the cold war and let them eat cake It s a no brainer you might say but Max Cryer has a surprise or two in store for you I kid you not In this very readable book he explores the origins of hundreds of expressions we use and hear every day and comes up with some surprising findings Never economical with the truth he might just have the last laugh We learn what they didn t say We are not amused Elementary my dear Watson Let them eat cake First catch your hare We learn that the Bible doesn t mention Salome or seven veils We learn about the origins of the infamous Mile High Club Written in Max Cryer s delightfully witty style WHO SAID THAT FIRST is a wonderful book to dip into or settle a friendly dispute Remember good books are few and far between and you get what you pay for So buy this book go ahead make my day Max Cryer is a writer entertainer and broadcaster who hosts a weekly radio slot on Radio Live on the quirks of the English language In a long career he has been a schoolteacher a compere and television host as well as a performer on the opera stage in London and in cabaret in Las Vegas and Hollywood Now a full time writer living in Auckland he has written many books including LOVE ME TENDER THE GODZONE DICTIONARY and HEAR OUR VOICES WE ENTREAT The inspiration for WHO SAID THAT FIRST During his years working in Hollywood Max Cryer became acquainted with Lucille Ball at the time the world s most popular comedy actress One day when they were having lunch together Max complimented her on the amount of pleasure she gave and Lucille replied I would be absolutely nothing without the writers It s all to do with the way things are written they create the springboard for me The remark stayed with Max for years and he realised it was true Very often the person who said an effective or memorable line didn't actually create it As Lucille Ball had said the person in the background should have the credit but was usually invisible This is what motivated him to seek not just popular expressions but who had actually originated them
