Economic Policy And State Intervention Selected Papers Of T N Srinivasan:

Economic Policy and State Intervention T. N. Srinivasan, 2001 This collection brings together for the first time Srinivasan's classical theoretical writings and his work on issues relevant to developing countries His world renowned work on GATT and the Uruguay Rounds with reference to developing countries is the highlight of the volume Practical Economic Analysis and Computation Probal Pratap Ghosh, Rajbans Talwar, Sureshbabu Syamasundar Velagapudi, 2025-01-29 This book pays tribute to Professor Kirit Parikh through contemporary essays from experts on energy climate change including mitigation and adaptation agriculture food procurement water resources and public health The chapters use statistical methods and mathematical models to analyse questions of policy formulation and effectiveness The book picks up important SDG topics such as current issues and policy making in the infrastructure sector of power and their relationship to India's climate commitments computable models of the growth and absorption of renewable generation as the focal point of policy interventions in the power sector increasing efficiency of national grids and to support integration of renewables in South Asia natural gas pricing policy achieving nutrition self sufficiency and foodgrains surplus welfare implications of the minimum support price MSP policy for food grains evaluating epidemiological performance of strategies against COVID 19 critical examination of economic growth methodological issues in policy formulation modeling the Social Accounting Matrix algorithms for solving convex optimization models and fossil fuel power plant operations The studies especially bring into focus the latest developments in climate change the switch to renewable energy sources and the public health crisis due to COVID 19 This collection will be of great value to policymakers and researchers especially from a developing economy perspective Poverty, inequality and social disparities during China's economic reform, Globalizing India Aseema Sinha, 2016-04-26 India's recent economic transformation has fascinated scholars global leaders and interested observers alike In 1990 India was a closed economy and a hesitant and isolated economic power By 2016 India has rapidly risen on the global economic stage foreign trade now drives more than half of the economy and Indian multinationals pursue global alliances Focusing on second generation reforms of the late 1990s Aseema Sinha explores what facilitated global integration in a self reliant country pre disposed to nationalist ideas The author argues that the impact of globalization on India has affected trade policy as well as India's trade capacities and private sector reform India should no longer be viewed solely through a national lens globalization is closely linked to the ambitions of a rising India The study uses fieldwork undertaken in Geneva New Delhi Mumbai and Washington DC interviews with business and trade officials as well as a close analysis of the textile and pharmaceutical industries and a wide range of documentary and firm level evidence to let diverse actors speak in their own voices China, India and Beyond Natalia Dinello, Wang Shaoguang, 2014-05-14 China India and Beyond challenges the widespread belief that China and India will be the driving forces of the global economy in the 21st century Scholars of these two countries offer scenarios ranging from buoyant to subdued to negative depending on h Asian

Century Or Multi-polar Century? David Dollar, 2007 The rise of Asia is something of a myth During 1990 2005 China accounted for 28 percent of global growth measured at purchasing power parity PPP India accounted for 9 percent The rest of developing Asia with nearly a billion people accounted for only 7 percent the same as Latin America Hence there is no general success of Asian developing economies China has grown better than its developing neighbors because it started its reform with a better base of human capital has been more open to foreign trade and investment and created good investment climates in coastal cities China's success changes the equation going forward its wages are now two to three times higher than in the populous Asian countries Bangladesh India Indonesia Pakistan and Vietnam and China will become an ever larger importer of natural resource and labor intensive products Developing countries need to become more open and improve their investment climates to benefit from these opportunities China itself faces new challenges that could hamper its further development unsustainable trade imbalance with the United States energy and water scarcity and unsustainable use of natural resources and growing inequality and social tension To address the first two of these challenges good cooperation between China and the United States is essential The author concludes that we are more likely to be facing a multi polar century than an Asian century

The Indian Journal of Agricultural Economics, 2001 Vols include Proceedings of the conference of the Indian Society of Agricultural Economics Economic and Political Weekly, 2005 The Political Economy of Trade, Finance, and Development T. N. Srinivasan, 2007 Articles with reference to India Journal of the Institute of Public Enterprise, 2002 Reforms in State Public Enterprises in Karnataka Meenakshi Rajeev, 2004

Karnataka, Development Report, 2007 The constraints challenges and future of the state of Karnataka are addressed in this comprehensive reference engaging a gamut of issues relevant to the state including the real estate and financial sectors regional disparities human and social development environmental sustainability and governance The concluding chapters are dedicated to forming a vision for the state's future development Guide to Indian Periodical Literature, 2001

Indian Economic Review, 2000 The Bibliographic Index, 2005 Indian National Bibliography Bellary Shamanna Kesavan, 2001 The Indian Economic Journal, 2006 Indian Review of Books, 2000 Reinventing the Congress V. Bijukumar, 2006 In the 1990s an academic interest aroused from certain quarters to locate the Congress Party in the context of the three trends in Indian politics like Mandal Mandir and Market This study focuses on the policies and strategies of the Congress in relation to its emphasis on the role of the developmental state and its transition towards market oriented development in the 1990s The Congress Party which developed an intrinsic relationship between the developmental state and market for its mobilization strength and domination in Indian politics over a period of time was at the receiving end of the crisis Since the market oriented economic reforms attacked the developmental state it contributed to the de institutionalization of the party By shifting the developmental strategy from the state oriented to a market oriented one great harm has been done to the Congress Party and its legitimacy over Indian politics During the second generation reforms

under the BJP led NDA government the Congress Party underwent a process of introspection and reiteration Then it realized that the policies of socialism and social justice which were anathema for it during the economic reforms under the Rao regime have the potentiality to mobilize the alienated social groups and thereby reinvent its space in Indian politics The
