VAT Fraud and Evasion Stephen C. Smith,Michael Keen,2007-02 Like any tax the VAT is vulnerable to evasion and fraud But its credit and refund mechanism does offer unique opportunities for abuse and this has recently become an urgent concern in the European Union EU This paper describes the main forms of noncompliance distinctive to a VAT considers how they can be addressed and assesses evidence on their extent in high income countries While the practical significance of current difficulties in the EU should not be over stated administrative measures alone may prove insufficient to deal with them and a fundamental redesign of the VAT treatment of intra community trade required The current difficulties in the EU largely reflect circumstances that would not apply in the United States After the Great Recession Barry Z. Cynamon, Steven Fazzari, Mark Setterfield, 2013 A collection of essays about the US Great Recession of 2007 to 2009 and the subsequent stagnation from prominent scholars Competition Law in times of Economic Crisis : in Need of Adjustment ? Jacques Derenne, Massimo Merola, José Rivas, 2013-12-02 Throughout this unprecedented crisis which is hitting all major economies in the EU the escalation of the Eurozone recession increasingly undermines public confidence in the ability of competitive markets to deliver positive outcomes A debate on the most appropriate way to enforce competition rules in light of the crisis is definitely useful A relaxed stance to competition during difficult periods may be tempting and indeed this has often been the approach used in the past However the enforcement of competition rules is no less important during times of crisis than during normal periods It has also been argued that when public resources are stretched to the limit and businesses are struggling to survive competition authorities should seek to focus their limited resources on those anticompetitive practices which are most detrimental to consumer welfare such as cartels Indeed if over enforcement is perhaps undesirable when the economy is functioning well it will inevitably become more problematic during an economic downturn In addition business managers may be increasingly tempted to resort to anticompetitive practices when faced with economic hardship This book will appeal to judges and lawyers in competition law European law business corporate law and insolvency law the study of European competition law European institutions national competition authorities and companies

OECD Economic Surveys: Italy 2009 OECD, 2009-07-21 OECD s periodic review of Italy s economy This edition finds Italy facing a sharp recession After a general review of the impact of the crisis and potential for stimulus it takes a closer look at the financial system regulatory reform and Human Resource Management Ethics John R.
