Efrat Shvily:

2013, 2012-1992 : New Homes in Israel and the Occupied Territories Efrat Shvily, Ariella Azoulay, 2003 Anonymous deserted buildings have dominated the photographic work of Efrat Shvily since she began to frame Israel's architecture in her images in the early 1990s. The buildings so disconnected from their surroundings point to the problematic relationship between the Israelis and their land. Shvily's New Homes in Israel and the Occupied Territories is a series of black and white photographs of houses and neighborhoods which sometimes seem more like models than real buildings. In her desolate photos, Shvily does not make it clear whether the buildings were once inhabited and are now deserted, currently inhabited, or soon to be occupied. The series arose in reaction to the large number of new settlements that were realized in Israel in the 1990s. Perhaps because of the speed of these new developments combined with the fact that construction projects are used as a means to occupy territory, the people who live in these places seem estranged from the land that surrounds them, a state of being that Shvily captures in her photos.

Visions of Place Martin Rosenberg, J. Susan Isaacs, 2016 Visions of Place: Complex Geographies in Contemporary Israeli Art explores Israel's history, society, culture through the diverse works of its contemporary artists. Issues related to the exhibition's central theme of geography considered in the broadest sense are some of the most pressing ones in the contemporary world. Curated by Dr. Martin Rosenberg, Professor of Art History, Rutgers-Camden, and Dr. J. Susan Isaacs, Professor, Curator of Departmental Galleries, and Coordinator of Art History, Towson University, the exhibition presents 52 works by 36 Israeli artists in a variety of media demonstrating the richness, complexity, and diversity of perspectives in contemporary Israeli art.

Death's Showcase Ariella Azoulay, 2001 An interdisciplinary exploration of the visual presence of death in contemporary culture

Every Man in This Village is a Liar Megan K. Stack, 2010-06-15 A shattering account of war and disillusionment from a young woman reporter on the front lines of the war on terror. A few weeks after the planes crashed into the World Trade Center, journalist Megan K. Stack was thrust into Afghanistan and Pakistan, dodging gunmen, prodding warlords for information, and witnessing the changes sweeping the Muslim world. Every Man in This Village is a Liar is her riveting story of what she saw in the combat zones and beyond. She relates her initial wild excitement and slow disillusionment as the cost of violence outweighs the promise of democracy; she records the raw pain of suicide bombings in Israel and Iraq, and one by one she marks the deaths and disappearances of those she interviews.

Time and Difference in Rabbinic Judaism Sarit Kattan Gribetz, 2022-08-09 How the rabbis of late antiquity used time to define the boundaries of Jewish identity. The rabbinic corpus begins with a question when and is brimming with discussions about time and the relationship between people, God, and the hour. Time and Difference in Rabbinic Judaism explores the rhythms of time that animated the rabbinic world of late antiquity, revealing how rabbis conceptualized time as a way of constructing difference between themselves and imperial Rome, Jews and Christians, men and women, and human and divine. In each chapter, Sarit Kattan Gribetz explores a unique aspect of rabbinic discourse on time She shows how the ancient rabbinic texts artfully subvert Roman imperialism by offering rabbinic time as an alternative to Roman time She examines rabbinic discourse about the Sabbath demonstrating how the weekly day of rest marked Jewish time from Christian time Gribetz looks at gendered daily rituals showing how rabbis created men's time and women's time by mandating certain rituals for men and others for women She delves into rabbinic writings that reflect on how God spends time and how God's use of time relates to human beings merging divine time with human time Finally she traces the legacies of rabbinic constructions of time in the medieval and modern periods Time and Difference in Rabbinic Judaism sheds new light on the central role that time played in the construction of Jewish identity subjectivity and theology during this transformative period in the history of Judaism

Efrat Shvily, 2003 Palestinian Cabinet Ministers 2000 Efrat Shvily, 2003 Before the beginning of the Second Intifadah in 2000 Efrat Shvily an Israeli born photographer started work on the series Palestinian Cabinet Ministers portraits of the ministers of the Palestinian Authority Due to the continuing escalation of the conflicts in the West Bank and the Occupied Territories the series remains indefinitely incomplete Palestinian Cabinet Ministers can be understood as a companion to Shvily's series New Homes in Israel and the Occupied Territories also published this season by Witte de With which examines the relation Israelis have with the territory they share with other people But where the latter series questions Israel's love for the ground the former questions Israel's capacity to respect other people living on that same ground

Presenting the works of 50 contemporary artists and photographers from around the world. Strangers explores the different roles the camera now plays in negotiating the boundaries between public and private life, trust and fear, intimacy and isolation. Accompanying the first recurring exhibition of its kind devoted to photography and related media at the International Center of Photography in New York, Strangers investigates the social world through images that have been created as a result of encounters with people unknown to one another. In addition to the more personal and psychological aspects of estrangement, the artists in Strangers also engage with the theme of globalization and diaspora, an especially timely subject in its geopolitical ramifications. Strangers includes illuminating biographical essays on each of the artists and their works, four original essays by ICP curators Brian Wallis, Christopher Phillips, Carol Squiers, and Edward Earle that explore the ever-evolving and prescient theme of strangers and approximately 200 images generated in a variety of media from traditional and digital processes to multimedia installations and video. Artists represented include Olivio Barbieri, Philip Lorca di Corcia, Luc Delahaye, Rineke Dijkstra, David Goldblatt, Bill Henson, Susan Meiselas, Shirin Neshat, John Schabel, and Joel Sternfeld, among others. No es lo más natural.
