Future Remembered:

The Coming of God Jürgen Moltmann, Margaret Kohl, 2004-07-27 Winner of Grawemeyer Award In this remarkable and timely work in many ways the culmination of his systematic theology world renowned theologian Jürgen Moltmann stands Christian eschatology on its head Moltmann rejects the traditional approach which focuses on the End an apocalyptic finale as a kind of Christian search for the final solution He centers instead on hope and God's promise of new creation for all things Christian eschatology he says is the remembered hope of the raising of the crucified Christ so it talks about beginning afresh in the deadly end Yet Moltmann's novel framework deeply informed by Jewish and messianic thought also fosters rich and creative insights into the perennially nettling questions of eschatology Are there eternal life and personal identity after death How is one to think of heaven hell and purgatory What are the historical and cosmological dimensions of Christian hope What are its social and political implications In a heartbreakingly fragile and fragment world Moltmann's comprehensive eschatology surveys the Christian vista bravely envisioning our horizons of expectation for personal social even cosmic transformation in God

Temporal Asymmetries in Philosophy and Psychology Christoph Hoerl, Teresa McCormack, Alison Fernandes, 2022-02-24 Humans attitudes towards an event often vary depending on whether the event has already happened or has yet to take place The dread felt at the thought of a forthcoming exam turns into relief once it is over Recent research in psychology also shows that people value past events less than future ones such as offering less pay for work already carried out than for the same work to be carried out in the future This volume brings together philosophers and psychologists with a shared interest in such psychological past future asymmetries It asks questions such as What different kinds of psychological past future asymmetries are there and how are they related Under what conditions do humans exhibit them To what extent do they reflect features of time itself or particular beliefs people have about time Are they rational or at least rationally permissible or should we aspire to being temporally neutral What exactly does temporal neutrality consist of

The Emergence of Human Rights in Europe Jean Carpentier, Council of Europe. Council for Cultural Co-operation, 2001-01-01 The aim of this anthology is to identify the key texts from sixteen contributing countries which have influenced the conception and development of human rights The selection illustrates the great diversity of national circumstances systems of government and historical situations involved and also shows that in spite of different starting points the routes taken all lead to similar destinations The contributing countries are Bulgaria Croatia Finland France Germany Italy Latvia Liechtenstein Norway Poland Romania Holy See Slovakia Spain Switzerland and Ukraine The appendices include the text of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the Declaration of the Rights of Man and of the Citizen 1789

Remember Heaven: Meditations on the World to Come for Life in the Meantime Matthew McCullough, 2025-04-25 How the Hope of Heaven Shapes Our Lives as Christians in the Meantime What we expect from our future has tremendous power over our experience in the meantime that's why the Bible places the hope of heaven at the center of the Christian life But even if we affirm the reality of our heavenly future we often struggle to long for heaven much less to connect the promises of the world to come to the concrete details of life in this world as it is If and when we think about heaven at all it's easy to think of it like an insurance policy that will be there when we need it But the Bible defines our future hope as an inheritance a trust fund that is certain inexhaustible and freely accessible here and now In this book Matthew McCullough offers a series of meditations that model how to draw on the hope of heaven for everyday life in the meantime Chapters connect specific struggles of life in this world from dissatisfaction and inadequacy to anxiety grief indwelling sin and more to specific promises of the world to come Drawing on insights from Christian writers of the past McCullough shows how the Bible uses the hope of heaven to help us now Offers Hope Helps readers deal with feelings of loneliness inadequacy grief and dissatisfaction to curate a healthy life perspective around God's promises Biblical and Practical Engaging meditations offer Christians applicable advice for living joyfully in light of the inheritance that awaits them in heaven From the Gospel Coalition This accessible book makes a great gift for students pastors and Christians of every age

Love in Flesh and Bone Amy E. Richter, Joseph S. Pagano, 2014-01-15 On the weekend of April 22 2012 the St Anne's Church website received thousands of visitors That Sunday in the New York Times Magazine an article appeared about the Rev Dr Amy E Richter competing in a physique competition The strong reactions to the article got Richter and her husband and fellow clergy person the Rev Dr Joseph Pagano thinking about the scandal of the Incarnation The claim that God entered fully into our flesh and blood human existence makes some of us squeamish And yet this shocking claim is at the heart of the good news that in Christ God is with us no matter what There is nothing that can happen to us no pain no humiliation no anguish that can separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord In sermons for the seasons of Advent Christmas and Epiphany Richter and Pagano proclaim the good news of the scandalous love of God in flesh and bone

Dissent and Affirmation Arthur L. Kalleberg, 1983 Mulford Sibley for many years a professor of political science at the University of Minnesota used to frequently quote Plato s complaint in the Laws that man never legislates but accidents of all sorts legislate for us in all sorts of ways The violence of war and the hard necessity of poverty are constantly overturning governments and changing laws But even if most legislation is a result of accident Mulford Sibley holds out to us the idea that politics is a sphere of human freedom in which men and women can collectively determine the conditions of their common life

Self and Identity Trenton Merricks, 2022 Trenton Merricks shows that we cannot get clear about personal identity unless we bring together the ethics and the metaphysics He argues that while identity is not what matters in survival it delivers what matters in survival which is the appropriateness of first personal anticipation of and self interested concern for a future person
