Asaduddin,2016-05-20 This volume explores the reception of Premchand s works and his influence in the perception of India among Western cultures especially Russian German French Spanish and English The essays in the collection also take a critical look at multiple translations of the same work and examine how each new translation expands the work s textuality and annexes new readership for the author as well as representations of celluloid adaptations of Premchand s works An important intervention in the field of translation studies this book will interest scholars and researchers of comparative literature cultural studies and film studies Gaban Premacanda,2011 Untouchable Fictions: Literary Realism and the Crisis of Caste Toral Jatin Gajarawala,2013 Untouchable Fictions considers the crisis of literary realism progressive rural regionalist experimental in order to derive a literary genealogy for the recent explosion of Dalit untouchable caste fiction Drawing on a wide array of writings from Premchand and Renu in Hindi to Mulk Raj Anand and V S Naipaul in English Gajarawala illuminates the dark side of realist complicity a hidden aesthetics and politics of caste How does caste color the novel What are its formal tendencies What generic constraints does it produce Between Resistance and Conformity Shailendra Kumar Singh,2024-10-11 This book examines the questions of conformity and resistance with respect to Premchand s literary corpus Mapping the various complexities challenges and contradictions of interwar India it demonstrates how the passive peasant protagonists of the writer s fictional works present a diametrically opposed definition of dharma as compared to their dissident nationalist counterparts Through a relatively similar logic of comparative assessment it further foregrounds the fundamental asymmetry that exists between Premchand s literary representations of women as compliant domestic subjects and those that portray them as rebel patriots of colonial North India Juxtaposing several genres including novels short stories letters and journalistic writings to offer a reconsideration of Premchand s work this book will interest scholars of peasant narratives nationalist fiction and gender studies Print edition not for sale in South Asia India Sri Lanka Nepal Bangladesh Pakistan or Bhutan Colonialism, Modernity, and Literature S. Mohanty,2011-04-25 The product of years of cross border and cross disciplinary collaboration this is an innovative volume of essays situated at the intersection of multi disciplinary fields postcolonial subaltern theory comparative literary analysis especially with a South Asian and transnational focus the study of alternative and indigenous modernities Modern Indian Literature as Cosmopolis Didier Coste,2024-10-09 This book redefines modern Indian literature from a cosmopolitan comparative perspective inclusive of literature in English from India and the diaspora in native languages and works by non

Indians It shows how since the mid 19th century Indian literary modernity pursued the conjunction of the sensuous and ethical spiritual that characterized its three traditions Sanskritik Persian and folk culture while the encounter both receptive and oppositional with the West vastly expanded the Indian literary sphere Aesthetics and ethics are not antithetical in the Indian cultural space but the quest for an exclusive Indian identity versus universalist approaches offsets concerns for social justice as well as enjoyable embodied communication The literary constellation in many languages now formed in and around India can be better apprehended as a virtual Cosmopolis a commonwealth of elaborate emotions The versatile figure of Hanuman metaphorically flies across this Ocean of Stories to make us discover new worlds of experience The Oxford

Politics in the Age of Nationalism Talat Ahmed,2020-11-29 This book aims to provide a historical account of the All India Progressive Writers Association AIPWA In a structured narrative it focuses on the political processes inside India events and circumstances in South Asia and the debates and literary movements in Europe and the United States to demonstrate how the literary project was specifically informed by literary political movements It explores the theorisation of literature and politics that informed progressive writing and argues that the progressive conception of literature art and politics was closer to the theorisation of two thinkers of whom the writers themselves knew very little Leon Trotsky and Antonio Gramsci The book charts the progressive movement s extension into the cultural arena through the Indian People s Theatre Association IPTA and the deepening of its nation wide character through a progressive nationalism instilled with left wing ideology One of the important aims of the AIPWA project was to advance the development of a popular vernacular based on the demotic language of north India Hindustani The book locates this issue within the broader nationalist discussion on the national language Contrary to what is implied by much of the previous scholarship the book argues that the progressive movement did survive the ravages of partition and that the progressives maintained organisations in both India and Pakistan It looks at the short lived but very colourful history of the PWA in Pakistan using PWA documents government records and personal testimonies Arguing that literary output and cultural production cannot be understood let alone interpreted outside the context of the nationalist movement war independence and partition the book presents a narrative that necessarily transcends disciplinary boundaries between literature politics and history Supplemented with literary and archival sources and oral testimonies from the members of the movement it pr The Book Review ,2004 Novel Forms Ulka Shapiro Anjaria,2007 The Oxford India Anthology of Modern Urdu Literature Mehr Afshan Farooqi,2008 The Fiction volume includes both short stories and extracts from novels and novellas Beginning with Muhammad Hadi Ruswa 1857 1931 it moves on to Premchand Ghulam Abbas Krishan Chander Rajender singh Bedi Intizar Husain Qurratulain Hyder Abdullah Hussein and Naiyer Masud among others and finally Syed Muhammad Ashraf Economic and Political Weekly ,2000-10 The Delhi Omnibus Percival Spear,2002 This Collection Of Four Classic Books On Delhi Captures Its Essence And History Through The Ages A Must Buy For Historians Sociologists And Lay Reader Alike Bare Acts Monica Narula,2005 Cultural Writing Political Science This year the annual Sarai Reader looks at Acts at instruments of legislation at things within and outside the law and at acts as different ways of doing things in society and culture Several essays echo and complement themes that have emerged in earlier readers Piracy borders surveillance claims to authority and entitlement the language of expertise the legal regulation of sexual behaviour and trespasses of various kinds have featured prominently in previous Readers This collection foregrounds these issues in a way we hope can make a series of coherent but autonomous and interrelated arguments Encyclopedia of World Writers, 1800 to the Present Marie Diamond,2020-07-01 In recent years schools have started introducing more inclusive syllabi emphasizing the works and ideas of previously overlooked or underrepresented writers Readers of all ages can now explore the rich contributions of writers from around the world These writers have various backgrounds and unlike most writers from the U S or the United Kingdom information on them in English can be difficult to find Encyclopedia of World Writers 1800 to the Present covers the most important writers outside of the U S Britain and Ireland since 1800 More than 330 insightful A to Z entries profile novelists poets dramatists and short story writers whose works are anthologized in textbooks or assigned in high school English classes Entries range in length from 200 to 1 000 words each and include a biographical sketch synopses of major works and a brief bibliography Dozens of entries are new to this edition and many existing entries have been updated and significantly expanded with new Critical Analysis sections Coverage includes Chinua Achebe Margaret Atwood Roberto Bola o Albert Camus Khalid Hosseini Victor Hugo Mohammad Iqbal Franz Kafka Stieg Larsson Mario Vargas Llosa Naghib Mahfouz Gabriel Garc a M rquez Kenzaburo Oe Marcel Proust Leo Tolstoy Emile Zola and more Indian Books in Print ,2003
