Gaily We Parade:

Queering Tourism Lynda Johnston, 2007-05-07 Gay Pride parades are annual arenas of queer public culture where embodied notions of subjectivity are sold enacted transgressed and debated From Sydney to Rome Queering Tourism analyses the paradoxes of gay pride parades as tourist events exploring how the public display of queer bodies the way they look what they do who watches them and under what regulations is profoundly important in constructing sexualized subjectivities of bodies and cities Drawing on extensive collections of interviews visuals and written media accounts photographs advertisements and her own participation in these parades Lynda Johnston gives a vibrant account of queer tourism in New Zealand Australia Scotland and Italy For each place she looks at how the relationship between the viewer and the viewed produces paradoxical concepts of bodily difference and considers how the queered spaces of gay pride parades may prompt new understandings of power and tourism Examining the intersection of sexuality space and tourism and using empirical data gathered at Gay pride parades such as the Sydney Mardi Gras New Zealand HERO Parade and World Pride Roma 2000 this important work produces a deconstructive account of tourism and presents new ways of thinking through the powerful processes of subjectivity formation
