the crew lie at the foot of the access ladder They are wearing Baldy uniforms and are very dead The scouts send back word of the second ship A working party comes through the time portal and starts preparing the alien globe ship for transfer forward in time When the nearby volcano erupts the scouts take shelter in the alien ship Then the time transfer grid around the ship is activated and they are thrown forward in time But the shift in time initiates the takeoff sequence and the ship heads for space This tale takes Travis Ross Ashe and Renfry a technician who is also trapped on the ship back toward the Baldy home worlds The ship is traveling on automatic pilot and they are afraid to touch any controls while the ship is in flight Apparently they are going to see what the alien confederation is like in their own time period This story is a prime example of the author's storytelling skills It is a fascinating tale of alien technology and worlds Enjoy Highly recommended for Norton fans and for anyone else who enjoys tales of alien civilizations time transfer and travel among the stars
