the American Alpine Club's centennial 20th Century Photographers Grace Schaub, 2014-11-13 This book is a compilation of interviews and essays that cover a broad range of photographers and photographic disciplines Each photographer profiled made a living by concentrating on a specific aspect of the craft but in doing so transcended their livelihood to become recognized for more than the type of images they created Each had a distinct style creative approach dedication to the craft point of view about themselves and the world These interviews were conducted during a seminal period in the shift from film to digital and from print reproduction to global distribution on the Internet Just like their photographs continue to inspire today now these pros words can live on as an invaluable reference for the photographers of the future The truth and wisdom in this collection transcend time and technology Tracing Time Craig Childs, 2022-04-19 An engaging glimpse into a world both fascinating and fundamentally unknowable to those who aren't born into it R E BURRILLO author of Behind the Bears Ears Craig Childs bears witness to rock art of the Colorado Plateau bighorn sheep pecked behind boulders tiny spirals in stone human figures with upraised arms shifting with the desert light each one a portal to the open mouth of time With a spirit of generosity humility and love of the arid intricate landscapes of the desert Southwest Childs sets these ancient communications in context inviting readers to look and listen deeply BBC Wildlife, 2006 Pilgrims of the Vertical Joseph E. Taylor III, 2010-10-15 Few things suggest rugged individualism as powerfully as the solitary mountaineer testing his or her mettle in the rough country Yet the long history of wilderness sport complicates this image In this surprising story of the premier rock climbing venue in the United States Pilgrims of the Vertical offers insight into the nature of wilderness adventure From the founding era of mountain climbing in Victorian Europe to present day climbing gyms Pilgrims of the Vertical shows how ever changing alignments of nature technology gender sport and consumer culture have shaped climbers relations to nature and to each other Even in Yosemite Valley a premier site for sporting and environmental culture since the 1800s elite athletes cannot be entirely disentangled from the many men and women seeking recreation and camaraderie Following these climbers through time Joseph Taylor uncovers lessons about the relationship of individuals to groups sport to society and nature to culture He also shows how social and historical contexts influenced adventurers choices and experiences and why some became leading environmental activists including John Muir David Brower and Yvon Chouinard In a world in which wild nature is increasingly associated with play and virtuous play with environmental values Pilgrims of the Vertical explains when and how these ideas developed and why they became intimately linked to consumerism
