Crossing Galilee Marianne Sawicki,2000-05-01 Recent books about Jesus and early Christianity can be divided into two kinds those that examine the life and work of the historical Jesus prior to his death and those that reconstruct events between Jesus death and the writings of the first Gospels Sawicki s provocative book challenges the results of both kinds of research by using both archaeology and anthropology to situate Jesus clearly in his Galilean cultural context Sawicki contests recent portraits of Jesus as a Mediterranean peasant a Cynic sage or the convener of a fellowship of equals In addition she calls into question readings of ancient Galilee that emphasize it as a society marked simply by economic stratification or by an honor shame sociology Rather she discovers the Galilean Jesus indigenous cultural idiom in its material structures for the negotiation of kinship the management of labor the distribution of commodities and the construction of gender Sawicki s book is the first to balance classical urban archaeology against the more recent archaeology of villages and of local and regional commerce It frames current issues in Jesus research in terms that can guide both ongoing village excavations in Israel and responsible exegesis of the Gospels in church and academy Marianne Sawicki is the author of Seeing the Lord Resurrection and Early Christian Practices For Seminarians graduate students biblical archaeologists
