The Art Collector's Guidebook Manuel D. Duldulao, 1999 The New Criterion, 1994 Enigmavariations John Frame, 2005 Allegories of Freedom in the Paintings of Paul Georges Stanley I. Grand (Jr), 1993 Educating in the Arts Lindy Joubert, 2008-06-19 When I was first asked to edit this book the researcher in me delighted at the opportunity to provide case studies from different cultural traditions with a team of like minded fellow artists educators and researchers But as the book took shape I also discovered a true passion for its fundamental messages Educating in the Arts the Asian Experience talks about how landscapes and histories farms and cities the mountains seas and skies interact with lives and form the backdrop for stories that build and link the creative clusters of a place This book has provided a wonderful opportunity to delve into the many worlds that incorporate the arts particularly where the arts inform inspire and look for answers to difficult questions Having attracted a broad range of contributors from every corner of the Asian region a substantial collection of detailed information has emerged Each story has an approach that is universal yet culturally unique Close your eyes and see the colours smell the smells and hear the voices of the children against the background rhythms of song birds urban traffic or whistling winds     The Great Image Has No Form, Or On the Nonobject Through Painting François Jullien, 2009 In premodern China painters used imagery not to mirror the world but to evoke unfathomable experience Considering this art alongside the philosophical traditions that inform it this book explores the nonobject a notion exemplified by paintings that do not seek to represent observable surroundings     Images of Crisis (Routledge Revivals) George P. Landow, 2014-08-01 First published in 1982 Images of Crisis explores the premise that literature and art exploit various images to present culturally prevalent ideas and thus create their own form of iconology George Landow shows how the tumultuous history of the past two hundred years has resulted in a plethora of metaphors associated with moments of human crisis Avalanches and volcanoes emerge as focal images in an aesthetic that concerns itself increasingly with the vulnerability of humanity However it is in the transformation of traditional religious images that the ideas of the vacant universe are most dramatically presented Associated with this central idea are ironic transformations of other images that formerly had been associated with Christianity as paradigms of belief the journey of Odysseus the rainbow of the Covenant and Robinson Crusoe Combining close textual analysis with a theory of literary iconology this fascinating reissue will be of particular value to students with an interest in literary images and literary and cultural history     The Art World Directory, 2002     Book Review Digest, 1992     The World Who's who of Women, 1994
