Gallipoli Hodder Australia Series:

Our Friend the Enemy David W. Cameron, 2014-10-01 Our Friend the Enemy is the first detailed history of the Gallipoli campaign at Anzac since Charles Bean's Official History Viewed from both sides of the wire and described in first hand accounts Australian Captain Herbert Layh recounted that as they approached the beach on 25 April that once we were behind cover the Turks turned their fire on us and gave us a lively 10 minutes A poor chap next to me was hit three times He begged me to shoot him but luckily for him a fourth bullet got him and put him out of his pain Later that day Sergeant Charles Saunders a New Zealand engineer described his first taste of battle The Turks were entrenched some 50 100 yards from the edge of the face of the gully and their machine guns swept the edges Line after line of our men went up some lines didn't take two paces over the crest when down they went to a man and on came another line Gunner Recep Trudal of the Turkish 27th Regiment wrote of the fierce Turkish counter attack on 19 May designed to push the Anzac's back into the sea It started at morning prayer call time and then it went on and on never stopped You know there was no break for eating or anything Attack was our command That was what the Pasha said Once he says Attack you attack and you either die or you survive Australian National Bibliography, 1996-05 Shadows of ANZAC David W. Cameron, 2013-03-01 On 25 April 1915 with the landing of the Australian and New Zealand Army Corps ANZAC below the slopes of Sari Bair on the Gallipoli peninsula the ANZAC legend was born Nine months later having suffered thousands of casualties from disease hand to hand fighting bombing sniping and forlorn charges across no man's land the politicians and senior military commanders in London called it quits While the Turks also suffered terribly they at least emerged victorious The fighting at Anzac was not restricted to the ANZACs and Turks alone British troops also fought at Anzac from the earliest days of the invasion and large numbers of British and Indian troops were committed to the Anzac sector during the failed August offensive designed to break the stalemate The invasion was also supported by large numbers of men often non combatants who performed vital roles Naval beach officers kept logistics operating in some form of orderly fashion Indian mule handlers moved supplies of food water and ammunition to the front lines and medical staff and army chaplains worked on the beach caring for the wounded and the dead All these men were frequently under fire from the Turkish battery known as Beachy Bill Others surveyed the narrow beachhead and bored deep holes for drinking water signallers tried desperately to establish and maintain communications and the gunners hunted the battlefield for suitable places to site their guns Off the peninsula but just as vital were the nursing and medical staff on the hospital ships at Lemnos Alexandria Cairo and Malta and the airmen who flew above the battlefield spotting for the navy and artillery Shadows of Anzac An intimate history of Gallipoli tells the story of the ordinary men and women who participated in the Gallipoli campaign from April to December 1915 and gave the Anzac legend meaning Drawing on letters diaries and other primary and secondary sources David Cameron provides an intimate and personal perspective of Anzac a richly varied portrayal that describes the absurdity monotony and often humour that sat alongside the horrors of the bitter fight to claim the peninsula      A Companion to Australian Cinema Felicity Collins, Jane Landman, Susan Bye, 2019-06-05 The first comprehensive volume of original essays on Australian screen culture in the twenty first century A Companion to Australian Cinema is an anthology of original essays by new and established authors on the contemporary state and future directions of a well established national cinema A timely intervention that challenges and expands the idea of cinema this book brings into sharp focus those facets of Australian cinema that have endured evolved and emerged in the twenty first century The essays address six thematically organized propositions that Australian cinema is an Indigenous screen culture an international cinema a minor transnational imaginary an enduring auteur genre landscape tradition a televisual industry and a multiplatform ecology Offering fresh critical perspectives and extending previous scholarship case studies range from The Lego Movie Mad Max and Australian stars in Hollywood to transnational co productions YouTube channels transmedia and nature cam documentaries New research on trends such as the convergence of television and film digital transformations of screen production and the shifting roles of women on and off screen highlight how established precedents have been influenced by new realities beyond both cinema and the national Written in an accessible style that does not require knowledge of cinema studies or Australian studies Presents original research on Australian actors such as Cate Blanchett and Chris Hemsworth their training branding and path from Australia to Hollywood Explores the films and filmmakers of the Black Wave and their challenge to Australian settler colonial history and white identity Expands the critical definition of cinema to include YouTube channels transmedia documentaries multiplatform changescapes and cinematic remix Introduces readers to founding texts in Australian screen studies A Companion to Australian Cinema is an ideal introductory text for teachers and students in areas including film and media studies cultural and gender studies and Australian history and politics as well as a valuable resource for educators and other professionals in the humanities and creative arts      Kiwis at War 1914 Susan Brocker, 2014-08-04 Billy galloped Tui neck and neck alongside the squadron of horses the noise of a hundred horses hooves thundering in his ears All along the lineup of horses the other troopers were doing the same leaping crouching and firing The noise was deafening machine gun fire cracked overhead and shells thudded into the ground Billy may have been fresh off the farm but he was a good rider and an even better shot When the world went to war in 1914 Kiwis rushed to enlist For Billy and his best mate Jack joining the Mounted Rifles Regiment held the promise of adventure little did they know that half the battle would lie in keeping their horses alive aboard the troopship as they journeyed halfway around the world      Gallipoli Susan McKernan, 1984      The Little Hen and the Great War Jennifer Beck, 2016-05-05 A young soldier is fighting in the trenches of wartime France when he finds a hen skinny scruffy and starving He tucks her into his jacket and takes her with him A beautiful story of unexpected friendship in the midst of fighting and devastation      Australasian Drama Studies, 1989      Antipodean Antiquities Marguerite Johnson, 2019-03-21 Leading and emerging early career scholars in Classical Reception Studies come together in this volume to explore the under represented area of the Australasian Classical Tradition They interrogate the interactions between Mediterranean Antiquity and the antipodean worlds of New Zealand and Australia through the lenses of literature film theatre and fine art Of interest to scholars across the globe who research the influence of antiquity on modern literature film theatre and fine art this volume fills a decisive gap in the literature by bringing antipodean research into the spotlight Following a contextual introduction to the field the six parts of the volume explore the latest research on subjects that range from the Lord of the Rings and Xena Warrior Princess franchises to important artists such as Sidney Nolan and local authors whose work offers opportunities for cross cultural and interdisciplinary analysis with well known Western authors and artists

Pozières Christopher Wray, 2015-01-26 From July to September 1916 some 23 000 Australians were killed or wounded in the Battle of Pozières It was the first strategically important engagement by Australian soldiers on the Western Front and its casualties exceeded those of any other battle of the First World War including Gallipoli In this important book Christopher Wray explores the influence of Pozières on Australian society and history and how it is remembered today In the opening chapters he revisits the battle and considers its aftermath including shell shock and the psychological effects experienced by surviving soldiers The concluding chapters examine the way in which the battle has been commemorated in literature and art and the extent to which it has been overlooked in contemporary remembrance of the war Generously illustrated with photographs maps and paintings Pozières Echoes of a Distant Battle is essential reading for anyone interested in the First World War and Australia's post war society      Australian Children's Books: 1973-1988 Marcie Muir, Kerry White, 1992 Volume two of a reference work listing all children's books by Australians This volume covers the period from 1973 to 1988 Entries provide physical descriptions dates publishers illustrations awards received and in some cases remarks on the content Entries are arranged by author Title and illustrator indexes are included      Bully Beef & Balderdash Graham Wilson, 2012-03-15 The Australian Imperial Force first raised in 1914 for overseas war service became better known by its initials the AIF There was a distinct character to those who enlisted in the earliest months and who were destined to fight on Gallipoli During the war the AIF took its place among the great armies of the world on some of history's oldest battlefields The Australians would attack at the Dardanelles enter Jerusalem and Damascus defend Amiens and Ypres and swagger through the streets of Cairo Paris and London with their distinctive slouch hats and comparative wealth of six shillings per day However the legend of the AIF is shrouded in myth and mystery Was Beersheba the last great cavalry charge in history Did the AIF storm the red light district of Cairo and burn it to ground while fighting running battles with the military police Was the AIF the only all volunteer army of World War I Graham Wilson's Bully Beef and Balderdash shines an unforgiving light on these and other well known myths of the AIF in World War I arguing that these spectacular legends simply serve to diminish the hard won reputation of the AIF as a fighting force Graham Wilson mounts his own campaign to rehabilitate the historical reputation of the force and to demonstrate that misleading and inaccurate embellishment does nothing but hide the true story of Australia's World War I fighting army Bully Beef and Balderdash deliberately tilts at some well loved windmills and for those who cherish the mythical story of the AIF this will not be comfortable reading Yet given the extraordinary truth of the AIF's history it is certainly compelling reading A Concise History of New Zealand Philippa Mein Smith, 2012 The story of this rugged and dynamic land is beautifully narrated from its origins in Gondwana to the twenty first century
