Alexander Bruno travels the world playing high stakes backgammon and hunting for amateur whales who think they can challenge him. Lately he's had a run of bad luck not helped by the blot that has emerged in his field of vision which forces him to look at the board sideways. As the blot grows larger his game gets worse until at an opulent mansion in Berlin he passes out in the middle of a match and receives an alarming diagnosis. Out of money and out of friends he turns to the only person who can help and the last person he wants to see a high rolling former childhood acquaintance who agrees to pay for Bruno's experimental surgery in Berkeley. But Berkeley is the place where Bruno discovered his psychic gift and where he vowed never to return. There forced to confront patchouli flashbacks and his uncertain future he must ask himself: Is he playing the game or is the game playing him?
