Van Dyke,2015-07-21 Excerpt from Game Birds at Home To the majority of sportsmen love of nature is the principal element in the love of hunting The pleasure of exercising skill in the finding and capture of game is really secondary to this and still more subordinate is the flavor or size of the game Thousands enjoy a stroll with the dog out of season almost as well as the real hunt To please such a book should be made up of selected charms of the field These are first and foremost the nature of the game its action and behavior The mere form or size is of no more consequence than the flavor Why the action of certain birds will give man more delight than that of others is one of nature s secrets We can only say it is charming and describe it as we know it About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Farmers' Bulletin ,1934
