Games And Play In The Theater Of Spanish American Women:

Games and Play in the Theater of Spanish American Women Catherine Larson, 2004 In the seventeen dramatic texts examined in this study women writers from Spanish America have self consciously incorporated games into their plays structures to highlight from a woman s perspective the idea that life as well as the theatre is a game Some dramas are so overtly about games that the word appears significantly in their titles Others reflect game playing in less direct ways or connect metatheatrical examinations of role playing to the ludic In every drama examined however a game of some sort plays a key role in the construction of the playtest By looking at the nature and number of the games played in these women authored dramas from the past fifty years we can see the ways in which play is used to effect social control and the connections between play and aggression gender history and politics In these representative dramas the theatre serves as a vehicle for encouraging audiences to think about if not act upon the issues that have shaped Spanish America Games rules winners and losers join together as the playwrights explore events and times of fundamental importance in the countries historical and political evolutions Historical Dictionary of Latin American Literature and Theater Richard Young, Odile Cisneros, 2010-12-18 The Historical Dictionary of Latin American Literature and Theater provides users with an accessible single volume reference tool covering Portuguese speaking Brazil and the 16 Spanish speaking countries of continental Latin America Argentina Bolivia Chile Colombia Costa Rica Ecuador El Salvador Guatemala Honduras Mexico Nicaragua Panama Paraguay Peru Uruguay and Venezuela Entries for authors ranging from the early colonial period to the present give succinct biographical data and an account of the author s literary production with particular attention to their most prominent works and where they belong in literary history The introduction provides a review of Latin American literature and theater as a whole while separate dictionary entries for each country offer insight into the history of national literatures Entries for literary terms movements and genres serve to complement these commentaries and an extensive bibliography points the way for further reading The comprehensive view and detailed information obtained from all these elements will make this book of use to the general interest reader Latin American studies students and the academic specialist Home is where the (he)art is Sharon Magnarelli, 2008 Sharon Magnarelli s contribution to the critical dialogue on Spanish American literature offers fresh new reading of plays that have already attracted significant critical attention as well as insightful analyses of others that have seldom been studied Remaking the Comedia Harley Erdman, Susan Paun De García, 2015 Leading Golden Age theatre experts examine the ways that comedias have been adapted and reinvented offering a broad performance history of the genre for scholars and practitioners alike This volume brings together twenty six essays from the world s leading scholars and practitioners of Spanish Golden Age theatre Examining the startlingly wide variety of ways that Spanish comedias have been adapted re envisioned and reinvented the book makes the case that adaptation is a crucial lens for understanding the performance history of the genre The essays cover a wide range of topics from the early stage history of the comedia through numerous modern and contemporary case studies as well as the transformation of the comedia into other dramatic genres such as films musicals puppetry and opera The essays themselves are brief and accessible to non specialists This book will appeal not only to Golden Age scholars and students but also to theater practitioners as well as to anyone interested in the theory and practice of adaptation Harley Erdman is Professor of Theater at the University of Massachusetts Amherst Susan Paun de García is Professor of Spanish at Denison University Contributors Sergio Adillo Rufo Karen Berman Robert E Bayliss Laurence Boswell Bruce R Burningham Amaya Curieses Irarte Rick Davis Harley Erdman Susan L Fischer Charles Victor Ganelin Francisco García Vicente Alejandro González Puche Valerie Hegstrom Kathleen Jeffs David Johnston Gina Kaufmann Catherine Larson Donald R Larson Barbara Mujica Susan Paun de García Felipe B Pedraza Jimenez Veronika Ryjik Jonathan Thacker Laura L Vidler Duncan Wheeler Amy Williamsen Jason Yancey

Trans/acting Jacqueline Eyring Bixler, Laurietz Seda, 2009 This collection offers a series of new essays authored by leading scholars of Latin American and U S Latino theater as well as the performance script Mexterminator vs The Global Predator written by Guillermo Gomez Pena The fourteen essays focus on contemporary Latin American and U S Latino plays and performances and challenge the meanings of genre gender race cultural identity and performance itself in the context of globalization and shifting borders The concept of trans acting a term that connotes negotiation and or exchange provides the framework for essays that include such topics as transculturation transnationalism transgender transgenre translation and adaptation These individual studies of contemporary theater and performance arts are complimented by trans actor Gomez Pena's Mexterminator vs The Global Predator a striking transgressive script that underscores the performance nature of territorial and symbolic border crossings Jacqueline Bixler is Alumni Distinguished Professor of Spanish at Virginia Tech Laurietz Seda is Associate Professor of Spanish at the University of Connecticut Storrs

The Comedia in English Susan Paun De García, Donald R. Larson, Donald Larson, 2008 The bringing of Spanish seventeenth century verse plays to the contemporary English speaking stage involves a number of fundamental questions Are verse translations preferable to prose and if so what kind of verse To what degree should translations aim to be faithful Which kinds of plays work and which do not Which values and customs of the past present no difficulties for contemporary audiences and which need to be decoded in performance Which kinds of staging are suitable and which are not To what degree if any should one aim for authenticity in staging In this volume a group of translators directors and scholars explores these and related questions Jacket

Embodying Difference Linda Saborío, 2012 Embodying Difference offers a fresh perspective on the current theoretical debates about the role of Latinas in today's multicultural society and globalization's impact on cultural attitudes toward femininity Saborío's interdisciplinary approach links feminist and gender discourse cultural studies and theatrical performances as a means of exploring many dynamic forms of cultural productions

Feeling the Gaze Gail Bulman, 2022-08-25 Feeling the Gaze explores the visual elements in eight contemporary Argentine and Chilean theater performances Gail A Bulman shows how staged images can awaken spectators emotions to activate their intellect provoking nuanced and deep contemplation of social historical and political themes Ranging from simple props costumes body movements and spatial constructions to integrated media and digital images the aesthetic components in these pieces engage to forge multifaceted storytelling stimulate the public's relation to memory and create affective bonds that help build individual and collective social consciousness Recent innovations in Southern Cone theatre aesthetics have been shifting traditional performance spectator relationships and animating ideological discussions The various works presented here give readers a holistic understanding of the emerging prominence of visuality and affect as a vehicle for political advocacy in Latin American theatre and performance The book asks us to consider the formation of new spectator performance bonds as authors directors and theatre groups increasingly turn toward alternative settings for their work Lingering visual memories of the performances together with the feelings that the performative experience stirs up provide spectators with an enduring focal point through which to reflect on and judge what is beyond the performed scenes Staged live in the Southern Cone and internationally since 2014 these plays demonstrate the transgressive power of the visual to make spectators see feel and potentially act against injustices and violence This study offers comprehensive critical discussions of Teatro Banda's O Higgins un hombre en pedazos Teatro Ni o Proletario's Fulgor Mario Luigi y sus fantasmas's Manual de carro a Agustín León Pruzzo's En la sombra de la cúpula Teatro la Mar's Los millonarios Claudio Tolcachir's Príximo Sergio Blanco's Tebas Land and Lola Arias's Doble de Riesgo

Technology, Literature, and Digital Culture in Latin America Matthew Bush, Tania Gentic, 2015-07-16 Grappling with the contemporary Latin American literary climate and its relationship to the pervasive technologies that shape global society this book visits Latin American literature technology and digital culture from the post boom era to the present day The volume examines literature in dialogue with the newest media including videogames blogs electronic literature and social networking sites as well as older forms of technology such as film photography television and music Together the essays interrogate how the global networked subject has affected local political and cultural concerns in Latin America They show that this subject reflects an affective mode of knowledge that can transform the way scholars understand the effects of reading and spectatorship on the production of political communities The collection thus addresses a series of issues crucial to current and future discussions of literature and culture in Latin America how literary visual and digital artists make technology a formal element of their work how technology from photographs to blogs is represented in text and the ramifications of that presence how new media alters the material circulation of culture in Latin America how readership changes in a globalized electronic landscape and how critical approaches to the convergences boundaries and protocols of new media might transform our understanding of the literature and culture produced or received in Latin America today and in the future
