It gives lawyers the confidence to understand and actively improve their ethical priorities and behaviour when confronted with major ethical challenges. It identifies the applicable law and conduct rules and analyses them in the context of four different types of ethical lawyering: zealous advocacy, responsible lawyering, moral activism and the ethics of care. This new edition is fully updated with a new chapter on confidentiality and new case studies and review questions. This edition also contains a self assessment instrument designed to allow readers to recognise the type of lawyering that most appeals to them.
