Fast-Talking Dames Maria DiBattista, 2008-10-01 There is nothing like a dame proclaims the song from South Pacific Certainly there is nothing like the fast talking dame of screen comedies in the 1930s and 40s In this engaging book film scholar and movie buff Maria DiBattista celebrates the fast talking dame as an American original Coming of age during the Depression the dame a woman of lively wit and brash speech epitomized a new style of self reliant articulate womanhood Dames were quick on the uptake and hardly ever downbeat They seemed to know what to say and when to say it In their fast and breezy talk seemed to lie the secret of happiness but also the key to reality DiBattista offers vivid portraits of the grandest dames of the era including Katharine Hepburn Irene Dunne Rosalind Russell Barbara Stanwyck and others and discusses the great films that showcased their compelling way with words and with men With their snappy repartee and vivid colloquialisms these fast talkers were verbal muses at a time when Americans were reinventing both language and the political institutions of democratic culture

As they taught their laconic male counterparts most notably those appealing but tongue tied American icons Gary Cooper Henry Fonda and James Stewart the power and pleasures of speech they also reimagined the relationship between the sexes In such films as Bringing Up Baby The Awful Truth and The Lady Eve the fast talking dame captivated moviegoers of her time For audiences today DiBattista observes the sassy heroine still has much to say The Star System Paul

McDonald,2001-06-13 Looks at the development and changing organization of the star system in the American film industry Tracing the popularity of star performers from the early cinema of attractions to the Internet universe Paul McDonald explores the ways in which Hollywood has made and sold its stars Through focusing on particular historical periods case studies of Mary Pickford Bette Davis James Cagney Julia Roberts Tom Cruise and Will Smith illustrate the key conditions influencing the star system in silent cinema the studio era and the New Hollywood Mindset List of the Obscure Ron

Nief,Tom McBride,2014-09-02 An entertaining trip through pop culture for the old fogeys and kids these days Today s teens and twentysomethings have never seen a real airplane ticket To them point and shoot cameras are so last millennium and Star Wars is a movie not a defense strategy The world views of today s young and old have never been more different In this entertaining romp through American culture the creators of the Beloit College Mindset List explore 75 icons once famous and now forgotten from Abbott and Costello to the singing telegram Packed with entertaining facts trivia and photos this is the perfect gift for college students their oh so outdated parents and pop culture mavens nostalgic for days gone by

Silver Screen Crosswords to Keep You Sharp Stanley Newman,2008-11 Hooray for Hollywood And ditto for this star studded collection of movie themed crosswords created by the editor of Newsday s nationally syndicated puzzle Inside you ll find 50 cinematic crosswords that highlight screen legends from the recent and more distant past Each puzzle contains a quote from one of the subject s films as well as fun and fascinating factoids The above the title names range from Katharine Hepburn James Cagney and Judy Garland to contemporary Oscar winners such as Robert De Niro Julia Roberts and Denzel Washington In addition hundreds of general movie related clues will challenge and then delight film lovers evoking vivid memories of the great screen performances that defined the golden age of film Journeys of Desire Alastair

Phillips,Ginette Vincendeau,2019-07-25 A comprehensive guide to European actors in American film this book brings together 15 chapters with A Z entries on over 900 individuals It includes case studies of prominent individuals and phenomena associated with the emigres such as the stereotyping of European actresses in bad women roles and the irony of Jewish actors playing Nazis Pre-Code Hollywood Thomas Doherty,1999-08-27 Pre Code Hollywood explores the fascinating period in American motion picture history from 1930 to 1934 when the commandments of the Production Code Administration were violated with impunity in a series of wildly unconventional films a time when censorship was lax and Hollywood made the most of it Though more unbridled salacious subversive and just plain bizarre than what came afterwards the films of the period do indeed have the look of Hollywood cinema but the moral terrain is so off kilter that they seem imported from a parallel universe In a sense Doherty avers the films of pre Code Hollywood are from another universe They lay bare what Hollywood under the Production Code attempted to cover up and push offscreen sexual liaisons unsanctified by the laws of God or man marriage ridiculed and redefined ethnic lines crossed and racial barriers ignored economic injustice exposed and political corruption assumed vice unpunished and virtue unrewarded in sum pretty much the raw stuff of American culture unvarnished and unveiled No other book has yet sought to interpret the films and film related meanings of the pre Code era what defined the period why it ended and what its relationship was to the country as a whole during the darkest years of the Great Depression and afterward

Theaters of Occupation Jennifer Fay, 2008 In the aftermath of total war and unconditional surrender Germans found themselves receiving instruction from their American occupiers It was not a conventional education In their effort to transform German national identity and convert a Nazi past into a democratic future the Americans deployed what they perceived as the most powerful and convincing weapon movies In a rigorous analysis of the American occupation of postwar Germany and the military's use of soft power Jennifer Fay considers how Hollywood films including Ninotchka Gaslight and Stagecoach influenced German culture and cinema In this cinematic pedagogy dark fantasies of American democracy and its history were unwittingly played out on screen Theaters of Occupation reveals how Germans responded to these education efforts and offers new insights about American exceptionalism and virtual democracy at the dawn of the cold war Fay's innovative approach examines the culture of occupation not only as a phase in U S German relations but as a distinct space with its own discrete cultural practices As the American occupation of Germany has become a paradigm for more recent military operations Fay argues that we must question its efficacy as a mechanism of cultural and political change Jennifer Fay is associate professor and codirector of film studies in the Department of English at Michigan State University

Lubin takes readers on a fascinating journey through film history that proves once and for all why Sunset Boulevard is one of the most iconic films in cinematic history Just in time for the film's 75th anniversary Ready for My Closeup breathes life into a beloved masterpiece of American cinema
