Garden Archaeology:

The Archaeology of Garden and Field Naomi F. Miller, Kathryn L. Gleason, 1997-09 Cultivation and land use practices the world over reflect many aspects of people's relationship to each other and to the natural world The Archaeology of Garden and Field explores the cultivation of land from prehistoric times to the nineteenth century through excavation experimentation and the study of modern cultural traditions The Archaeology of Garden and Field contains a wealth of information distilled from the combined experiences of the editors and contributors Whether one's interest is the Old World or the New prehistory or the present this book provides a starting point for anyone who has ever wondered how archaeologists find and interpret the ephemeral traces of ancient cultivation

Gardens of the Roman Empire

Wilhelmina F. Jashemski, Kathryn L. Gleason, Kim J. Hartswick, Amina-Aïcha Malek, 2017-12-28 In Gardens of the Roman Empire the pioneering archaeologist Wilhelmina F Jashemski sets out to examine the role of ancient Roman gardens in daily life throughout the empire This study therefore includes for the first time archaeological literary and artistic evidence about ancient Roman gardens across the entire Roman Empire from Britain to Arabia Through well illustrated essays by leading scholars in the field various types of gardens are examined from how Romans actually created their gardens to the experience of gardens as revealed in literature and art Demonstrating the central role and value of gardens in Roman civilization Jashemski and a distinguished international team of contributors have created a landmark reference work that will serve as the foundation for future scholarship on this topic An accompanying digital catalogue will be made available at www.gardensoftheromanempire.org

Sourcebook for Garden Archaeology Amina-Aïcha Malek, Fondation des Parcs et jardins de France, 2013

Earthly

Paradises Maureen Carroll, 2003 The cultivation of gardens played an integral role in both the public and private spheres of the ancient world Whether grown as sources of food symbols of wealth and prestige or as dwellings for the gods gardens were nurtured at every level of society In this beautifully illustrated book Maureen Carroll examines the most recent evidence for the existence functions and designs of gardens from the second millennium B C to the middle of the first millennium A D in the cultures of the ancient Near East Egypt Greece Italy and the provinces of the Roman Empire She looks at gardens in their many forms including house gardens orchards and parks sacred gardens and cemetery gardens and dedicates a chapter to gardens in ancient poetry She also discusses ancient horticultural practices and the role of gardeners concluding with a chapter on the survival of ancient gardening traditions in the Islamic and Byzantine worlds and the perception and depiction of paradise in those cultures Evidence is drawn from archaeological excavations which can reveal the remains of gardens that were never mentioned in written sources as well as from textual pictorial and environmental sources Illustrated with delightful images from tomb and wall paintings sculptural reliefs and manuscripts as well as with informative reconstructions and plans this book provides fascinating insights into the earthly paradises of antiquity Book jacket

Gardens and Gardeners of the Ancient World Linda Farrar, 2016-02-29 From the earliest of times people have sought to grow and nurture plants in a garden area Gardens and Gardeners of the Ancient World traces the beginning of gardening and garden history from Ancient Egypt and Mesopotamia to the Minoans and Mycenaeans Greeks Etruscans and Romans through Byzantine Islamic and Persian gardens right up to the Middle Ages It shows how gardens in each period were designed and cultivated Evidence for garden art and horticulture is gathered from surviving examples of ancient art literature archaeology actual period gardens that have survived the centuries and the wealth of garden myths associated with certain plants These sources bring ancient gardens and their gardeners back to life and provide information on which plants were chosen as garden worthy their setting and the design and appearance of ancient gardens Deities associated with aspects of gardens and the garden s fertility are featured everyone wanted a fertile garden Different forms of public and domestic gardens are explored and the features that you would find there whether paths pools arbors and arches seating or decorative sculpture The ideal garden could be like the Greek groves of the Academy in Athens a garden so fine that it was comparable with that of the mythical king Alcinoos the paradise contemplated by the Islamic world or a personal version of a garden of Eden that Early Christians could create for themselves or in the forecourt of their churches In general books on garden history cover all periods up to the present often placing all ancient gardens in one chapter at the beginning But there is so much of interest to be found in these early millennia Generously illustrated with 150 images with plant lists for each period this is essential reading for everyone interested in garden history and ancient societies

Garden History John Dixon Hunt, 1992 This collection of essays explores the issues methods and approaches that students in landscape architecture have developed during that period to cope with the expanding subject of gardens and their history The volume will serve as a bench mark in the field with its range of approaches and wealth of illustrative material Each contributor focuses upon a specific piece of his or her research and uses this as a basis to discuss the wider implications of the study of gardens within such contexts as botanical horticultural agrarian literary technological social culture political and art history Provided by publisher

Garden Archaeology Christopher Keith Currie, 2005 Garden Archaeology looks at the methods used for this sub discipline The book traces the development of the genre with particular reference to the advances made in the last 20 years Chapters deal with the historical background to gardens and designed landscapes excavation techniques in the era of development archaeology as well in the research field survey geophysics air photography and environmental sampling techniques The latter chapter brings together the most recent thinking on this vital aspect of garden archaeology in one place for the first time To conclude the book gives a series of case studies including many of the most important recent projects undertaken in the UK There are interesting contributions from experienced practitioners Martin Locock and Iain

Soden Publisher's description      A Cultural History of Gardens in the Medieval Age Michael Leslie, 2015-04-02 The Middle Ages was a time of great upheaval the period between the seventh and fourteenth centuries saw great social political and economic change The radically distinct cultures of the Christian West Byzantium Persian influenced Islam and al Andalus resulted in different responses to the garden arts of antiquity and different attitudes to the natural world and its artful manipulation Yet these cultures interacted and communicated trading plants myths and texts By the fifteenth century the garden as a cultural phenomenon was immensely sophisticated and a vital element in the way society saw itself and its relation to nature A Cultural History of Gardens in the Medieval Age presents an overview of the period with essays on issues of design types of gardens planting use and reception issues of meaning verbal and visual representation of gardens and the relationship of gardens to the larger landscape      Landscape Archaeology Rebecca Yamin, Karen Bescherer Metheny, 1996 As the editors note This volume includes many searching looks at the landscape not just to understand ourselves but to understand the context for other peoples lives in other times to unravel the landscapes they created and explain the meanings embedded in them      Gardens and Landscapes in Historic Building Conservation Marion Harney, 2014-04-03 This comprehensive guide on historic garden and landscape conservation will help landscape professionals familiarise themselves with what the conservation of historic gardens garden structures and designed landscapes encompasses The aim of the series is to introduce each aspect of conservation and to provide concise basic and up to date knowledge within five volumes sufficient for the professional to appreciate the subject better and to know where to seek further help Gardens Landscapes in Historic Building Conservation is an essential guide for everyone with an interest in the conservation of historic gardens and designed landscapes worldwide The latest assessment of the origins scope and impact of gardens and designed landscapes is vital reading Covering history and theory survey and assessment conservation and management and the legislative framework the book considers all aspects of garden and landscape conservation and related issues It explores the challenge of conserving these important sites and surviving physical remains and a conservation movement which must understand protect and interpret those remains This book demonstrates how the discipline of the history and conservation of gardens and landscapes has matured in recent decades recognising the increased participation of professional contract and curatorial managers in the management of these sites and in conserving and interpreting landscapes Drawing on a wide range of sources combining academic and professional perspectives the book provides information and advice relevant to all involved in trying to preserve one of England's greatest cultural contributions and legacy for future generations to enjoy With chapters by all the leading players in the field and illustrated by copious examples this gives essential guidance to the management and conservation of historic gardens and designed landscapes      Landscape and Garden Archaeology at Crowfield Plantation Michael Trinkley, 1992      The Vernacular Garden John Dixon Hunt, Joachim Wolschke-Bulmahn, 1993 Much has been written on the traditions of elite gardens but little attention has been directed to the gardens of more humble and popular cultures that reflect regional localized ethnic personal or folk creations These articles reflect growing interest in a range of cultural artifacts that demonstrate how culture influences surroundings The Medieval Garden Sylvia Landsberg, 2003-01-01 Combining her historical knowledge with practical experience of recreating medieval gardens in various sites in England Landsberg explains how she designed Queen Eleanor's garden at Winchester and Brother Cadfael's physic garden at Shrewsbury Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress. Cataloging Policy and Support Office, 2009 Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress, 2006 Library of Congress Subject Headings: A-E Library of Congress. Subject Cataloging Division, 1989 Analysing the Boundaries of the Ancient Roman Garden Victoria Austen, 2023-02-09 This book demonstrates how the Romans constructed garden boundaries specifically in order to open up or undermine the division between a number of oppositions such as inside outside sacred profane art nature and real imagined Using case studies from across literature and material and visual culture Victoria Austen explores the perception of individual garden sites in response to their limits and showcases how the Romans delighted in playing with concepts of boundedness and separation Transculturally the garden is understood as a marked off and cultivated space Distinct from their surroundings gardens are material and symbolic spaces that constitute both universal and culturally specific ways of accommodating the natural world and expressing human attitudes and values Although we define these spaces explicitly through the notions of separation and division in many cases we are unable to make sense of the most basic distinction between garden and not garden In response to this ambiguity Austen interrogates the notion of the boundary as an essential characteristic of the Roman garden Familiar Past? Sarah Tarlow, Susie West, 2002-01-08 The Familiar Past surveys material culture from 1500 to the present day Fourteen case studies grouped under related topics include discussion of issues such as the origins of modernity in urban contexts the historical anthropology of food the social and spatial construction of country houses the social history of a workhouse site changes in memorial forms and inscriptions the archaeological treatment of gardens The Familiar Past has been structured as a teaching text and will be useful to students of history and archaeology Perspectives on Garden Histories Michel Conan, 1999 Garden history is a discipline of contested purposes Perspectives on Garden Histories contributes to a self critical examination of this emergent field of study at the same time offering an overview of its main achievements in several domains such as Italian and Mughal gardens and of the new kinds of investigation to which they have led In its early years garden history centered on architectural studies of garden design but in the 1960s the emphasis shifted from garden design to garden meaning The new paradigm considered gardens as complex works of art and demanded an extensive documentation of the historical context as well as of the figurative and discursive sources This approach in its turn was challenged by neo Marxist scholars who proceeded to view landscape appreciation as an ideological superstructure an outgrowth of agricultural production processes Garden designs and their histories can also be viewed as expressions of ideological conflicts in society Neither gardens nor their history can thus be studied independently of the social cultural and political movements that give prominence to the contested ideologies Gardens can be used to foster some ideologies or reflect a reaction against a social change Comparative research offers another fascinating approach exploring the relations between European landscape concepts and other cultural contexts and discussing issues of cultural dominance and interpretation The emergence of various perspectives has led to the incorporation of further questions into the domain of garden studies which has been moving in new directions and using new methods in search of an adapted theoretical framework This volume offers a striking view of changes taking place in the discipline     Gardens of Court and Country

David Jacques,2017-01-01 Gardens of Court and Country provides the first comprehensive overview of the development of the English formal garden from 1630 to 1730 Often overshadowed by the English landscape garden that became fashionable later in the 18th century English formal gardens of the 17th century displayed important design innovations that reflected a broad rethinking of how gardens functioned within society With insights into how the Protestant nobility planned and used their formal gardens the domestication of the lawn and the transformation of gardens into large rustic parks David Jacques explores the ways forecourts flower gardens bowling greens cascades and more were created and reimagined over time This handsome volume includes 300 illustrations including plans engravings and paintings that bring lost and forgotten gardens back to life
