for Scotland Francesca Greenoak,National Trust for Scotland,2005-06 Since 1945 when it acquired its first garden at Culzean Castle The National Trust for Scotland has become the country s largest garden owner Its properties include thirty five major gardens which are notable for their range and variety representing the full history of Scottish gardening Francesca Greenoak s scholarly but easily accessible text describes each garden in detail and discusses its design and plantings its history setting and historical and cultural connections The Trust s policy for the restoration and conservation of each garden is also explained and details are given of soil and climatic conditions and their influence on the repertoire of plants in gardens of the various regions The text has been prepared with the full cooperation and assistance of the Trust s gardening staff Most of the photographs were specially taken for this book and have never previously been published There are also historical plans and other material from the archives of the Trust properties including photographs dating back a century or more showing some of the gardens and their owners in their Edwardian heyday BOOK JACKET Caleb's List Kellan MacInnes,2013-07-22 Shortlisted for the 2013 Saltire Society Scottish First Book award Edinburgh 1898 On the cusp of the modern age Caleb George Cash mountaineer geographer antiquarian and teacher stands at the rocky summit of Arthur s Seat This is the story of Caleb me and the Scottish mountains visible from Arthur s Seat Somehow the Cashes or the Calebs didn t sound right so I have called the hills on Caleb s list The Arthurs More than just a climbing book this is the story of a survivor Caleb s List is a beautifully descriptive account in which Kellan MacInnes intertwines his own personal struggle with HIV with the life story of Victorian mountaineer Caleb George Cash beginning with the moment in 1898 when Caleb stood at the top of Arthur s Seat in Edinburgh and made a list of 20 mountains visible from its summit from Ben Lomond in the west to Lochnager in the east MacInnes stumbled upon this long forgotten list of hills now dubbed the Arthurs and in this book he sets a new hillwalking challenge climbing the Arthurs Drawing on history literature and personal experience MacInnes offers both practical and emotional insight into climbing these hills in an account that is a must read for hillwalkers visitors to Edinburgh and lovers of Scotland all over the world This is not just a book about hillwalking and history At its heart this is powerful landscape writing that explores the strong bond between a person and the hills they love The author writes with skill and considerable authority ALEX RODDIE author Caleb Cash himself is an important if neglected figure in the history of the Scottish outdoors and the author's personal story gives the book an emotional power unusual in a guidebook. An excellent book. CHRIS TOWNSHEND author A triumphant debut THE GREAT OUTDOORS A tribute to the healing power of the Scottish landscape and to survival against the odds THE SCOTSMAN Women Poets in the Victorian Era Fabienne Moine, 2016-03-09 Examining the place of nature in Victorian women's poetry Fabienne Moine explores the work of canonical and long neglected women poets to show the myriad connections between women and nature during the period. At the same time she challenges essentialist discourses that assume innate affinities between women and the natural world. Rather Moine shows Victorian women poets mobilised these alliances to defend common interests and express their engagement with social issues. While well known poets such as Elizabeth Barrett Browning and Christina Rossetti are well represented in Moine's study she pays particular attention to lesser known writers such as Mary Howitt or Eliza Cook who were popular during their lifetimes or Edith Nesbit whose verse has received scant critical attention so far. She also brings to the fore the poetry of many non professional poets. Looking to their immediate cultural environments for inspiration these women reconstructed the natural world in poems that raise questions about the validity and the scope of representations of nature ultimately questioning or undermining social practices that mould and often fossilise cultural identities Pocket Rough Guide London Rob Humphreys, 2011-01-20 The Pocket Rough Guide London is your essential guide to the British capital covering all the key sights hotels restaurants shops and bars you need to know about. The easy to use Pocket Rough Guide London includes brand new itineraries and a Best of London section picking out the highlights you won't want to miss plus detailed listings to guide you from the mind boggling treasure trove of the British Museum to the gargantuan exhibition spaces of the Tate Modern or the latest champions of London's culinary revolution. Whether you have a few days or a week to fill The Pocket Rough Guide London will help you make the most of your trip Oliver Messel Thomas Messel, 2011-10-11 Oliver Messel is a lavishly illustrated book with many never before seen photographs offering a privileged view of the life and work of a design master of the 20th century Field Natural History, 1969 Farmer's Advocate and Home Journal, 1919 Mastering Primary Geography Anthony Barlow, Sarah Whitehouse, 2019-06-27 Mastering Primary Geography introduces the primary geography curriculum and helps trainees and teachers learn how to plan and teach inspiring lessons that make learning geography irresistible. Topics covered include Current developments in geography Geography as an irresistible activity Geography as a practical activity Skills to develop in geography Promoting curiosity Assessing children in geography Practical issues. This guide includes examples of children's work case studies readings to reflect upon and reflective questions that all help to show students and teachers what is considered to be best and most innovative practice and how they can use that knowledge in their own teaching to the greatest effect. The book draws on the experience of two leading professionals in primary geography Anthony Barlow and Sarah Whitehouse to provide the essential guide to teaching geography for all trainee and qualified primary teachers The British Journal of Photography William Crookes, T.
