Sustainable Value Chain Management François Maon, Sankar Sen, 2016-04-01 The way organizations manage their value chain has changed dramatically over the past decade Today organizations take account of economic issues but they also adopt a broader perspective of their purpose including social and environmental issues Yet despite its global spread sustainable value chain management remains an uncertain and poorly defined ambition with few absolutes The social and environmental issues that organizations should address easily can be interpreted as including virtually everything Current literature on the topic seeks to understand the effects and management of initiatives dealing with diversity human rights safety philanthropy community and environment However the penetration of social and environmental considerations into value chain management is described as desire lacking reality thereby making the idea a patchy success The objective of this research anthology is to investigate different angles of sustainable value chain management The book's 27 chapters fill holes and explore new fields the chapters are organised in five sections Sustainable value chains context drivers and barriers Sustainable value chains managing activities Sustainable value chains managing networks and collaboration Sustainable value chains integrative perspectives and Sustainable value chains specific sectorial and industry perspectives

Pushing Past the Human in Latin American Cinema Carolyn Fornoff, Gisela Heffes, 2021-06-01 Pushing Past the Human in Latin American Cinema brings together fourteen scholars to analyze Latin American cinema in dialogue with recent theories of posthumanism and ecocriticism Together they grapple with how Latin American filmmakers have attempted to push past the human and destabilize the myth of anthropocentric exceptionalism that has historically been privileged by cinema and has led to the current climate crisis While some chapters question the very nature of this enterprise whether cinema should or even could actualize such a maneuver beyond the human others signal the ways in which the category of the human itself is interrogated by Latin American cinema revealed to be a fiction that excludes more than it unifies This volume explores how the moving image reinforces or contests the division between human and nonhuman and troubles the settler epistemic partition of culture and nature that is at the core of the climate crisis As the first volume to specifically address how such questions are staged by Latin American cinema this book brings together analysis of films that respond to environmental degradation as well as those that articulate a posthumanist ethos that blurs the line between species Ecological Democracy Roy Morrison,1995 Offering a broad based critique of industrialism Morrison explores currently emerging ecological democracies such as the Mondragon Cooperative system in Spain the Seikatsu Cooperative Clubs in Japan and Coop Atlantic in Canada He outlines a dramatic revitalized participatory democracy which includes community control of finances a social wage cooperative economies demilitarization and a solar transition and shows how to get there from here Educating for a Culture of Social and Ecological Peace Anita L. Wenden,2012-02-01 Acknowledging the dual notions of danger and opportunity that present themselves in contemporary social and ecological crises this book explores how both peace and environmental education can transform the way we think and what we value The book outlines the link between social violence and ecological degradation and the need to educate for the purpose of achieving social and ecological peace Specialists in peace and environmental education offer a holistic and integrated approach on educating about these problems and challenges They also provide educational strategies such as curricular frameworks and pedagogical innovations appropriate for both formal and informal settings and case studies and examples that illustrate their application Hicks, Tribes, and Dirty Realists Robert Rebein,2021-10-21 Robert Rebein argues that much literary fiction of the 1980s and 90s represents a triumphant if tortured return to questions about place and the individual that inspired the works of Hawthorne Melville Twain Faulkner and other giants of American literature Concentrating on the realist bent and regional orientation in contemporary fiction he discusses in detail the various names by which this fiction has been described including literary postmodernism minimalism Hick Chic Dirty Realism ecofeminism and more Rebein s clearly written nuanced interpretations of works by Raymond Carver Cormac McCarthy Don DeLillo Louise Erdrich Dorothy Allison Barbara Kingsolver E Annie Proulx Chris Offut and others will appeal to a wide range of readers Postcolonial Green Bonnie Roos,Alex Hunt,2010-09-23 Postcolonial Green brings together scholarship bridging ecocriticism and postcolonialism Since its inception ecocriticism has been accused of being inattentive to the complexities that colonialism poses for ideas of nature and environmentalism Postcolonial discourse on the other hand has been so immersed in theoretical questions of nationalism and identity that it has been seen as ignoring environmental or ecological concerns This collection demonstrates that ecocriticism and postcolonialism must be understood as parallel projects if not facets of the very same project a struggle for global justice and sustainability The essays in this collection span the globe and cover such issues as international environmental policy land and water rights food production poverty women s rights indigenous activism and ecotourism They consider all manner of texts from oral tradition to literary fiction to web discourse Contributors bring postcolonial theory to literary traditions such as that of the United States not typically seen in this light and conversely bring ecocriticism to literary traditions such as those of India and China that have seen little ecological analysis Postcolonial Green boasts a global geographical breadth diversity of critical approach and increasing relevance to the issues we face on a world stage Contributors Neel Ahuja University of North Carolina Chapel Hill Pavel Cenkl Sterling College Sharae Deckard University College Dublin Ursula K Heise Stanford University Jonathan Highfield Rhode Island School of Design Alex Hunt West Texas A M University Upamanyu Pablo Mukherjee Warwick University Patrick D Murphy University of Central Florida Bonnie Roos West Texas A M University Caskey Russell University of Wyoming Rachel Stein Siena College Sabine Wilke University of Washington Laura Wright Western Carolina University Sheng yen Yu National Taipei University of Technology Gang Yue University of North Carolina Chapel Hill Xiamen University

Empire and Environment Jeffrey Santa Ana, Heidi Amin-Hong, Rina Garcia Chua, Xiaojing Zhou, 2022-10-24 Empire and Environment argues that histories of imperialism colonialism militarism and global capitalism are integral to understanding environmental violence in the transpacific region The collection draws its rationale from the imbrication of imperialism and global environmental crisis but its inspiration from the ecological work of activists artists and intellectuals across the transpacific region Taking a postcolonial ecocritical approach to confronting ecological ruin in an age of ecological crises and environmental catastrophes on a global scale the collection demonstrates how Asian North American Asian diasporic and Indigenous Pacific Island cultural expressions critique a de historicized sense of place attachment and belonging In addition to its thirteen chapters from scholars who span the Pacific each part of this volume begins with a poem by Craig Santos Perez The volume also features a foreword by Macarena Gomez Barris and an afterword by Priscilla Wald

Extremism in America George Michael, 2013-12-10 The American Republic was born in revolt against the British crown and ever since political extremism has had a long tradition in the United States To some observers the continued presence of extremist groups and the escalation of their activities portends the fragmentation of the country while others believe such is the way American pluralism works The word extremism often carries negative connotations yet in 1964 Barry Goldwater famously said Extremism in the defense of liberty is no vice Extremism in America is a sweeping overview and assessment of the various brands of bigotry prejudice zealotry dogmatism and partisanship found in the United States including the extreme right the antiglobalization movement Black Nationalism Chicano separatism militant Islam Jewish extremism eco extremism the radical antiabortion movement and extremist terrorism Many of these forms of single minded intolerance are repressed by both the state and society at large but others receive significant support from their constituencies and enjoy a level of respectability in some quarters of the mainstream The essays in this volume written by area specialists examine the relationship between these movements and the larger society dissect the arguments of contemporary American anarchist activists look at recent trends in political extremism and suggest how and why such arguments resonate with a considerable number of people
