Paying the Social Debt Richard F. America, 1993-08-18 Richard F America here redefines the complex problems of racial economic injustice poverty inequality and lagging competitiveness and productivity in the United States In a controversial analysis the author argues that there is a true debt owed by White America to Black America that this debt is significant and that it has now come due He estimates the size of Whites debt to Blacks shows how that debt came to be and suggests creative ways of paying it back This book argues persuasively that the social and racial problems in the United States cannot be solved until we acknowledge that the haves truly and literally owe money to the have nots

Investment costs and policy action opportunities for reaching a world without hunger (SDG2). Joint Report Center for Development Research of the University of Bonn, Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2020-10-12 At the heart of the 2030 Agenda was a promise to prioritize two objectives to eradicate poverty and end hunger and malnutrition in all their forms While global hunger measured by the prevalence of undernourishment had been on the decline the absolute number of hungry people remained very high In response heads of states at the G7 Summit in Elmau in 2015 committed to lift 500 million people out of hunger and malnutrition by 2030 as part of a broader effort undertaken with partner countries to support the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development i.e Sustainable Development Goal SDG 2 to end hunger and malnutrition by 2030 Nevertheless the number of undernourished people in the world kept rising from 653 million people in 2015 to 690 million people in 2019 highlighting the challenge of achieving the goal of Zero Hunger and malnutrition by 2030 This study reviews the food security situation and change therein in light of recent developments including COVID 19 It also analyses to which extent G7 countries responded to the challenge and their commitment in terms of development assistance and outlines promising investment opportunities to meet the 2030 targets
